WIT AND HUMOR.

CAMPHINE.—The Maine Farmer tells of a chap in Gardiner, who took a gill of camphine in mistake for gin, but whose life was saved by a most ingenious process. After the stomach pump, and all common means of restoration had been tried in vain, the grocer's clerk simply run a wick down the patient's throat, touched a blaze to it, and burnt out the camphine! Instant restoration was the consequence.

NEGRO PHILOSOPHY.—"Cæsar," said a negro to a colored friend of his, 'which do you tink is de most useful ob de comets, de sun or de moon?"

"Well, Clem, I don't tink I should be able to answer dat question, seein' as how I neber had much book larnin'."

"Well Cæsar, I 'spect de moon orter take de fust rank in dat pertickular."

"Why so, nigger?"

"Bekase, de moon shine in de night when we need de ligh', and de sun shines in de day time when de light am no consequence."

Well, Clem, you is the most larned darkey I seed, I guess you used to sweep out a school-house for a libin'."

"Gentlemen of the jury—can you for an instant suppose that my client here, a man what has allers sustained a high degradation in society, a man you all on you suspect and esteem for his many good qualities, yes, gentlemen a man what never drinks more nor a quart a likker a day, can you, I say, for an instant suppose that this ere man would be guilty of hooking a box of percushun caps? Rattle snakes and coon skins forbid! Picture to yourselves a feller fast asleep in his log cabin, with his innocent wife and orphan children by his side—all natur hushed in deep repose, and naught to be heard but the muttering thunder, and the hollerin of the bull frogs, then imagine to yourselves a feller sneaking up to the door like a despicable hyena, softly entering the dwelling of his peaceful happy family, and in the most mendacious and disastardly manner, hooking a whole box of purcushun caps! Gentlemen, I will not, I cannot dwell upon the monstrosity of such a scene! My feelings turn from such a picture of moral turpentine, like a big woodchuck would turn from my big dog Growler! I cannot for an instant harbor the idea that any man in these diggings, much less this ere man, could be guilty of committing an act of such rantankerous and unexampled discretion.

And now, gentlemen, after this ere brief view of the case, let me retreat of you to make up your mind candid and impartially, and give us such a verdict as we might reasonably suspect from such an enlightened and intellect body of our feller citizens, remembering that in the language of Nimrod, who fell at the battle of Bunker Hill it is better that ten innocent men should escape than that the one guilty should suffer. Judge, give us a chaw of tobacko.

MAGIC TABLE—TO FIND ONE'S AGE.

RULE.—Let a person tell in which columns their age is found. Add together the top number of the columns, and the sum will be their age.

Suppose, for example, their age is in the 1st, 2d and 5th columns. Then the addition of 1, 2 and 16, (the first numbers of said columns,) gives 19 for the age.

50,000 VICTIMS EVERY YEAR
Fall a Prey to Consumption, Asthma and Raising Blood, Hectic Fever and night Sweats.

Mrs. Adams, 126th st., Harlem, suffered a year with a cough, pain in the chest, night sweats, and all the aggravated systems of Consumption. nothing relieved her till she tried Sherman's Balsam—half a bottle cured her.

Ulcerated Lungs and Liver.

Mr. E. T. Lawrence, Jackson st. Brooklyn, after years of suffering, and treated by various physiciane, was pronounced incurable from ulcerated lungs and liver. Dying, as was supposed, he tried the Balsam; its effects were most miraculous; two bottles cured him.

Pleurisy and Consumption.

Mrs. Baggas. resided at 88 Rheriff-Street, 70 years old, has been subject to attacks of pleurisy and consumptive coughs for years. This Balsam has saved her from very great suffering.

Asthma and Consumption.

L. J. Beals, 19 Delancey-street gave it to his sister-in-law who had been an ivalid for years from Asthma; to another 88 in consumption. It relieved them at once, so that they travolled several hundred miles.

Spitting Blood

Is always alarming. It leads to the worst kind of Consumption, and unless arrested in time is generally fatal. Shermah's All-Healing Balsam is the best remedy known; it heals the wounded or ruptured blood vessels of the lungs, and thereby effects a permanent cure, while other remedies only stop the blood for the time A few doses of this Balsam will satisfy the most skeptical that it is the medicine required—It has been successful in many cases, and that too where they had run into a rapid decline, or, as mord generally expressed, "Hasty Consumption." Young persons, or those of middle age, are morh subject to these attacks than the aged.

Price 25 cents and $1 per bottle.

Dr. Sherman's Bough and Worm Lozenges, and Poor Man's Plasters, sold as above.
