very high as to be unnatural—or Bishop must have been leaning forward and the arm must have been raised and drawn—the muscles at their utmost tension.

Ex. by Mr. Franklin.—The pectoralis major must have been at its utmost tension; it could have been accounted for by only one other position—that is the arm pushed back—the hand on the waist or very high up and the body leaning forward; (in unnatural position.)

The above is all the testimony for the prosecution which closed at 12 o'clock on Thursday. The witnesses for the defence were examined on Thursday afternoon; we are compelled for the want of room to defer the publication of their evidence till next week. The case was opened on the part of the defence, by Mr. Ricaud, who addressed the Court for three hours with great ability—he was followed by Mr. H. A. Wise, who spoke for seven hours and three quarters in a masterly and learned manner, in the course of which he handled our particular friend of the Shield, "without gloves." Smith was present, during the whole speech, and asked the protection of Court, as a member of that bar. We wonder at this, inasmuch as Mr. Smith does his "own fighting;" we presume, however, he did not consider Mr. Wise, "a foe-man worthy of his steel."

The case was given to the jury at half ten o'clock; after an absence of about an hour returned with a verdict of "Not guilty."

Mr. Burrows was immediately discharged; he arrived here on Monday evening last in company with one of his counsel Mr. Ricaud, and was warmly received by a large number of friends and acquaintances.

CHESTER TOWN, MD.

Saturday, May 26, 1849.

☞Advertisements omitted this week shall appear next. Among those crowded out is the report of Commissioners of Chestertown.

☞Our paper this week is nearly filled with the testimony for the prosecution in the case of Rev. Mr. Burrows—next week the evidence for the defence will be published. We invite a perusal of it.

☞Gen'l Worth, who distinguished himself in the late war with Mexico as a commander, died at San Antonio Texas, of cholera.

AN INFALLIABLE CURE FOR CHOLERA—Take three table-spoons full of Castor oil, three table-spoons full of the best French brandy, and forty drops of laudnum, mixed well together, and let the patient drink it off. The body must then be rubbed over with brandy and a hot flannel cloth. Should the condition of the patient not improve within one hour, and the nails of the fingers begin to get black, administer one table-spoon full of castor oil, one of French brandy, and ten of laudnum. This generally throws the sufferer into a profound sleep, from which he will awaken perfectly well. This treatment has been found most effectual in India, where cholera first appeared, and thousands of persons were cured by this very simple remedy.—Liverpool Paper.

The Lancasterian, a Loco Foco paper in Pennsylvania, has the following frank confession:

"The democratic party requires purgation. There is too much rottenness and corruption in it. It has blinked at deviations from political rectitude so long that many seem to think these deviations essentialities."

If all that is corrupt is to be purged upon the Locofoco, party, the result will not be unlike that of the fellow who took powerful an emetic: he threw up every thing but the soles of his boots.—N. Y. Courier.

TAKE NOTICE!

The undersigned, grateful for the patronage received from the public, takes this mode of apprising it that he has declined renewing his Bond as Constable, the present year, and must now, of necessity, close and settle all official business in his hands. He has a large amount of unsettled business on hand—a very considerable number of Executions and Levies, and as the law requires an early settlement, and his duty and interest, as well as the interest of the claimants, will make it imperative upon him to close all his cases promptly and speedily, he therefore invites all persons against whom he has claims, to come forward immediately and liquidate them.

The parties will now see that further indulgence is impossible—business has already accumulated to a great extent on his hands, in consequence of promises unredeemed, and failures to meet engagements made to him. If any prove delinquent after this notice, they may expect a decisive and legal course—to be pursued, without delay or respect to persons. The subscriber has no right to defer in this matter and his duty must now be performed promptly and efficiently.

FARM & PLANTATION,

lying on Fairlee Creek, in Kent county, Md., late the property of Mrs. Harriet Welch, deceased, called

Fairlee, Galloway's Fancy and Orchard Neck,

CONTAINING

165 1-2 Acres, more or less.

This land lies on Fairlee Creek—on or near navigable water and a public landing—it adjoins the Farm of the late Miss Araminta Frazier, Wm. B. Wilmer, Esq. and others.

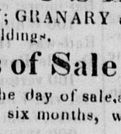

A very large proportion of this land is covered with the different varieties of

Oak, Hickory, Poplar

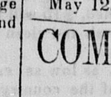

&c., and there is rarely found such a body of excellent

TIMBER.

Its vicinity to navigable water and its nearness to the Baltimore market, give advantages to this land, which are rarely equalled.

The BUILDINGS, are small and of frame.

The Farm is under good fencing.

Mr. J. F. Yearly who resides on the adjoining Farm, will take pleasure in shewing the premises to whoever may call to examine them.

THE TERMS

OF SALE, are, that the purchaser shall pay two hundred dollars on the day of sale, and give bond with approved security for the balance of the purchase money to the State of Maryland, conditioned to pay to the heirs and representatives of the said Harriet Welch, by name, their respective proportions of the same according to the order of the Court, with interest from the day of sale in three equal instalments in six, twelve and eighteen months.

APPLETON'S GREAT CENTRAL
CHEAP BOOK STORE,
164 Chesnut Street,
Corner of Seventh, Swaim's Buildings,
PHILADELPHIA.

KNOWING the wants of the community, the Proprietor of this Establishment has fitted up a Store in the most elegant manner, having due regard to the comfort of his customers, so that every stranger visiting his Book Store, may feel entirely at home.

HIS IMMENSE STOCK

of Books is classified according to the various Departments of Literature, so that visitors can find the Books they are in search of for themselves. Buying his Stock for the most part at the Auction Sales, and being connected with one of the Largest Publishing Houses in this country, besides publishing largely himself, enables him to sell all Books at than any other house of a similar character on this continent. His facilities for the Importation of Books from Europe are unsurpassed, having a Branch of the Establishment in London, where orders of private gentlemen are carefully executed and forwarded to this Country by every Steamer and Packet.

LOWER PRICES

A CATALOGUE

of Books with the prices attached is issued quarterly, containing Lists of New additions made to his large collection, which are in all cases for sale at the or, from 25 to 75 per cent, below Publishers' Prices. Thus in buying even a Few Books, quite a considerable amount is saved.

LOWEST PRICES,

As a still further

INDUCEMENT

to strangers visiting the city, every one who purchases One Dollar's worth of Books, will receive a copy of the STRANGER IN PHILADELPHIA, an elegant 18mo. volume, the price of which is 25 cts.

☞The limits of an advertisement are too confined to enumerate the prices of any of the Books, or to give even a faint idea of the immense advantages to be derived from purchasing at the Great Central Cheap Book-store but let all who are in search of Books send for a catalogue and buy the Books they are in want of, and when visiting the city, give Appleton one call, and you will be sure to call again.

STATIONERY

in all its branches, furnished at the Lowest Prices. The Initials of those purchasing Letter and Note Paper, neatly stamped in the corner, without charge.

Orders for any article may be sent by mail, addressed to the Proprietor, and the directions in all cases will be fully carried out, with great punctuality and despatch.

Orders for Catalogues should be pre-paid.
