APPLETON'S

GREAT CENTRAL

CHEAP BOOK STORE,

164 Chesnut Street,

Corner of Seventh, Swaim's Buildings,

PHILADELPHIA.

KNOWING the wants of the community, the Proprietor of this Establishment has fitted up a Store in the most elegant manner, having due regard to the comfort of his customers, so that every stranger visiting his Book Store, may feel entirely at home.

HIS IMMENSE STOCK

of Books is classified according to the various Departments of Literature, so that visitors can find the Books they are in search of for themselves, Buying his Stock for the most part at the Auction Sales, and being connected with one of the Largest Publishing Houses in this country, besides publishing largely himself, enables him to sell all Books at than any other house of a similar character on this continent. His facilities for the importation of Books from Europe are unsurpassed, having a Branch of the Establishment in London, where orders of private gentlemen are carefully executed and forwarded to this Country by every Steamer and Packet.

LOWER PRICES

A CATALOGUE

of Books with the prices attached is issued quarterly, containing Lists of New additions made to his large collection, which are in all cases for sale at the

LOWEST PRICES,

or, from 25 to 75 per cent, below Publishers' Prices, Thus in buying even a Few Books, quite a considerable amount is saved.

As a still further

INDUCEMENT

to strangers visiting the city, every one who purchases One Dollar's worth of Books, will receive a copy of the STRANGER IN PHILADELPHIA, an elegant 18mo. volume, the price of which is 25 cts.

☞The limits of an advertisement are too confined to enumerate the prices of any of the Books, or to give even a faint idea of the immense advantages to be derived from purchasing at the Great Central Cheap Book-store, but let all who are in search of Books send for a catalogue and buy the Books they are in want of, and when visiting the city, give Appleton one call, and you will be sure to call again.

STATIONERY

in all its branches, furnished at the Lowest Prices. The Initials of those purchasing Letter and Note Paper, neatly stamped in the corner, without charge.

Orders for any article may be sent by mail, addressed to the Proprietor, and the directions in all cases will be fully carried out, with great punctuality and despatch.

Orders for Catalogues should be pre-paid.
