refuge in the woods, whilst others went over to the victors.

Love what God loves, and you will enjoy what God enjoys. Something of his felicity will be yours. You will be permitted to sip at the fountain.

☞The sloop Gen. Washington, had not arrived when our paper went to press.

DIED,

Near Chestertown on the 6.h inst., Sarah, eldest daughter of Mr. Joseph Gouff, aged 38 years.

In St. Georges, Delaware, about a week since, Dr. Hiram Beni, late of Kent, and formerly of Queen Anne's Co., Md.

On the 21st ult. Miss Ann Eliza Sutton, aged 17 years and six months.

In obituary notices much of the warm eulogium and panegyric is imputed to the partiality of the writer or a laudable desire to please the relatives of the deceased. Those who were acquainted with this young lady, will vindicate the author of these few lines from any such charge. Those who knew her, remember that in her, in a permanent degree, existed an equanimity of temper, a pleasing disposition, and all those bright virtues that adorn her sex. Whilst absent from boarding school, where she had been assiduously engaged in acquiring knowledge, cultivating her mental powers and preparing her mind for the serious and sterner duties of after life, she was seized with a virulent disease which terminated in death. Her seat is vacant in the school room, at the table, and oh! at the hour of retiring when the affectionate good night is passed around among her school mates, her cheerful voice will be heard no more amid the throng. Still more will her presence be missed in the domestic circle and closer ties of home. To those who were connected with her in these relations, while the wounds of grief are yet fresh, we know how futile are formal attempts at consolation. They remember the pain and suffering she endured, the convulsive spasm, the scorching fever, the last fond look of the glazing eye and the faint faltering accents struggling even in death, to give one more assurance of affection. But they sorrow not as those who have no hope.

The uniform goodness of her heart while in health, the patience and fortitude with which she bore her sufferings, her unmurmuring disposition, the calmness which she exhibited at the approach of death, her resignation to the will of Heaven, are gratifying evidences that she has gone to that Saviour who said, "come unto me all ye that are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest;" to that Saviour who likewise said, "in my father's house are many mansions—that Father is our Father and our God forever." He takes us from earth that he may lead us to Heaven, to share with us his own immortality, admit us to his everlasting habitation and crown us with his eternity.

We are bid to bow in meekness to the loss of those we love,
And are pointed to the mercy of a Providence above,
To raise the heart to Heaven, with a meek and holy trust,
And silence its repinings that have bowed it to the dust;
We may not see the purpose why our hearts are pressed and riven,
Yet with a faith undoubting let us still look up to Heaven!
This life is full of trial, yet we know that One above
Looks ever down upon us with a sympathising love,
And pitieth our infirmities though others may deride,
For the heart hath not a sorrow by which He was not tried,
O! let us then be patient, be meek and murmur not,
Though clouds and gloom and shadow, surround our earthly lot;
And when the heart repineth, think of that Holy One,
Who meekly bore and suffered, to win for us a crown!

TRINITY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

That our daughters may be of corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace.—Ps. 144, 12.

Rev. E. M. Van Deusen, Rector of Trinity Church, Visiter.

Miss Henrietta Davis, Principal.

Miss H. S. Gilbert, Associate Principal.

Mrs. Amelia Foote, Teacher of the Piano and Guitar.

Prof. Aug. D'Ouville, Teacher of French, &c.

TRINITY SCHOOL will be re-opened as a boarding and day school on Monday, Sept. 3. The entire dwelling at the corner of Market and ninth streets (recently occupied by the Rev. Mr. Chambers,) has been secured for this purpose, and affords unusual facilities for the comfortable accommodation of pupils. The situation commands an uninterrupted view of the Delaware and the adjacent country—is the most elevated in the city—proverbial for its healthfulness and being removed from the business part of the town, is quiet and yet central and convenient. The boarding pupils will be accommodated with well ventilated dormitories, and always under the immediate care of their instructors. They will have all the advantage of home in a christian family; the great design of the instruction being to train up the young in the faith and fear of God, and prepare them to fill their various situations in life, not merely as of and for this world, but living members of Christ's body, the Church, and children of immortality. The government will be based upon religious principles, appeal to the moral sense of the child, and aim to check and control the influence of that corruption of our nature, out of which spring all our sufferings. As uniformity and system in the discipline and instruction are essential to the success of the school, it will be expected that all pupils will conform to its regulations. The Rector of the Church, as visiter, conducts the devotions, and examine the pupils weekly, on Tuesday morning, when parents and others are respectfully invited to be present at 2 o'clock.

The vacations are one week at Christmas, and the month of August.

TERMS.

Board and Tuition $150 for the scholastic year—$3 per week during vacations, if the pupils remain at the institution.

Day Scholars' Tuition, $3 per quarter for Reading and Spelling—$4 for Reading, Writing, Spelling and Arithmetic—$6 for all the higher English branches.

Music—$10 per quarter—use of the piano $2 per quarter.

French at Professors prices—not over $5 per quarter.

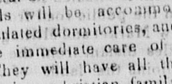

Each boarder is requested to bring three napkins, a silver fork and spoon.
