KENT NEWS

CHESTER TOWN, MD.

Saturday, Oct. 13, 1849.

Fifth Congressional District.

The election of the Hon. Alexander Evans, in this district, cannot fail to give entire satisfaction to the great whig party of the Union. Mr. Evans is known as a firm, and staunch whig—a gentleman of great intellectual worth, and an industrious and hard-working Representative of the people. His success in this district, and the warm-hearted support accorded to him in the several counties comprising it, is the best and surest evidence of the universal confidence that is reposed in him. The contest was severe and hard fought, and every weapon that the power of the adversary could wield was used with unrelenting and unremitted force and exertion—truth in some instances was set aside; slander let loose to do the work of the secret authors; the secret whisper and open cry of abolitionism "and a hundred other falsehoods, were detected, dispersed and put down. And the purest yeomanry of the land by their votes declared in whom they trusted, and whom they were willing to select as supporters of the honest and free-hearted OLD ZACK, to aid him in his endeavours to reform the government and advance the best interest of the people—we can now assure the Editors of the Republic that at no time was there any cause to despond for the whigs of OLD KENT—she has always been true to the principles of the party—hers are true hearted whigs in thought, and action, and though as heretofore they will cry down and oppose all parties, cliques or whatever other name or those demagogism may assume they will never suffer their private feelings or personal predilections or prejudice to interfere with their stern sense of duty, where principles are involved the whigs of KENT may well be found as in their past course, in all future contests their banner will be unfurled to triumph over any other motto, than that which is inscribed upon its folds "PRINCIPLES NOT MEN!! *

JOHN PRICE.—The trial of this individual who was indicted at Baltimore for the murder of George W. Campbell, has been removed to Anne Arundel county, on the motion of the Attorney General.

THE THIRTY-FIRST CONGRESS.—The result of the election in Maryland, enables us to sum up the number of members elect to the next Congress from the several States, as follows:

Whigs,	143
Locofocos,	108
Whig majority, so far,	5

Leaving Mississippi and Louisiana, entitled to 4 members each, to elect. The whigs last year had one member from each of these two States. There is also a vacancy in Massachusetts, and another in Virginia; the latter will very probably be filled by a locofoco. The free soilers are included in the above account; Messrs. Tuck, Allen, and Giddings with the whigs; and Messrs, Julian of Indiana, King, of N. Y., and Wilmot, of Penn. with the locofocos.

By the official returns from several counties, given below, it will be seen that the whigs have gained a member in Carroll, and lost one in Somerset; and another in St Mary's county. Conceding Charles and Worcester, from which we have no returns, to the whigs, the House will stand as follows:

Baltimore city	0	5	0	0
Baltimore co.	0	5	0	0
Cecil	0	4	0	1
Prince George's	3	1	0	0
Washington	2	3	0	3
Anne Arundel	4	1	1	0
Montgomery	4	0	0	0
Frederick	2	3	0	3
Harford	4	0	1	0
Kent	3	0	0	0
Queen Anne's	3	0	0	0
Allegany	0	4	0	3
Carroll	1	3	1	0
Calvert	3	0	0	0
Caroline	2	2	0	1
Talbot	0	3	0	0
Dorchester	4	0	0	0
Worcester	4	0	0	0
Charles	3	0	0	0
St. Mary's	2	1	0	1
Somerset	3	1	0	1
	47	35	3	13

This gives the whigs a majority of 12. The Senate consists of 14 whigs and 5 locofocos, leaving two vacancies, one in Anne Arundel, and the other in Caroline.—The whig majority, therefore, on joint ballot, will be 21 votes.

FIRE IN THE PINES.—A wide spread conflagration swept over the shore section of Burlington and Monmouth counties, N. J. week before last, destroying an immense quantity of timber. It broke out on Sunday morning the 23d ult, in a cranberry meadow near Hampton Forge, and swept northeasterly through the forests for nearly a week, terminating not far from the seabeach. The territory burnt is over 20 miles long by a breadth averaging from 3 to 10 miles.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—Gov. Manly, of North Carolina, has issued a proclamation setting apart Thursday, the 15th day of November, as a day of prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God throughout the State.

There were sixty converts lately to the Methodist church, during revivals at Charlestown, Va,

THE RESULT OF THE ELECTION IN MARYLAND.—We have sufficient returns of the election for members of Congress to enable us to say that the following gentlemen will compose the delegation for Maryland in the next House of of Represenative:

Whigs.	Locofocos.
RICHARD J. BOWIE,	WM T. HAMILTON,
ALEXANDER EVANS,	E. W. HAMMOND,
J. B. KERR,	R. M. MCLANE.

The Whigs, as compared with the last Congress, lose one member, Mr. Hamilton being elected in the second district over Mr. McKaig, which was represented in the last Congress by Mr. Roman, (W.)

The Legislature will be decidedly Whig in both Houses. There was no election for the Senate this year. The members of that body are divided into 14 Whigs and 7 Locofocos. So far as we have returns, the House of Delegates consists of 38 Whigs and 34 Locofocos, and St. Mary's, Charles and Somerset to hear from. There is no regular opposition made to the Whig ticket in St. Mary's or Charles. The six delegates from these counties would give the Whigs 44 members in the House, a majority of six, without counting Srmerset, from which, it is but reasonable to expect, the full ticket is elected.

Under all the advantageous circumstances with which the whigs entered upon the contest, the result is to be regarded as favourable. It has demonstrateted that if the whigs had turned out in their full strength, their triumph would have been decided, not onely here in Baltimore, but in every part of the State. The result has also shown, that to whatever the falling off in the whig vote in Baltimore may be ascribed, there exists in the ranks of the opposition a want of union and spirit, which must be traced to a cause that is intrinsic in their organization, and must prove fatal to their success if the whigs present an united front against them. To no light or ephemeral cause can be rightly ascribed the great falling off in the Locofoco vote. They had nothing to differ about among themselves, which did not go beyond their organization to their party prineiples. They had no responsbility of government resting upon them. They had no disappointments to heal or dissatisfaction to reconcile, growing out of that responsibility. They are the outs, and they were only struggling to get in. Not to vote, then, for the Locofoco party ticket at the late election, was equivalent to a declaration on the part of those who had been members of the party, that they did not desire to see it succeed, and were no longer to be counted among its supporters. This is the only construction that can be placed on their not voting, for it is idle to ascribe to opposition to the candidates, and there is no other apparent reason to be given.

Let the whigs of Baltimore look at these facts, and whilst lamenting, as they must do, that they have allowed the opposition to gain an apparent triumph, let them resolve, every man of them, that they will never again throw eway a victory, which would have been theirs, if they had only wilded to gain it.—Balt. Pat.

DECREASE OF CRIME.—By a statement published in another column, made by Wm. H. Gatchel, Esq., Clerk of Baltimore City Court, the whole number of prisoners confined in the Maryland Penitentiary on the 1st of October, in each year from 1825 to 1849, inclusive, will be seen. The whole number during the 25 years is 7, 894. The largest number in any one year, was in 1836, when there were 394 prisoners; and the smallest number is at present time, being only 223. Although the population of Maryland has vastly increased since 1825, the number of prisoners now in the Penitentiary is 104 less than in that year. This fact is highly gratifying, evidencing a great decrease of crime in the community.—Sun.

BEAUTIFUL FIGURE.—The following beautiful metapher, from a sketch in a New York papar, would do honor to any writer in speaking of the two rivers at Harper's Ferry, Va.,

The entrance to this valley at the northern gate is magnificent. There is the solemn meeting of the Potomac and Shenandoah, the latter stream having come down the valley and joined its consort at the mountain guarded pass, so celebrated by Jefferson. There the marriage ceremony is performed, the union is perfected; the bride loses her name, taking that of her partner, lordly Potomac, and onward pushes the amalgamted stream saluting the capitol of the Union as it passes, to pay its tribute to the ocean."

SEWING MACHINE.—We had the curiosity, on Saturday last, to examine the Machine, which is being exhibited in the Colvin Building, corner of Baltimore and South streets, and were much pleased with its operation. It sews neatly, firmly, and with great rapidity the operator making the stitches close or wide to suit his taste or the work on which he is engaged.—The management of the machine is very easily com prehended; and, if the cost of construction be not too high, it is possible that it may come into general use, for plain sewing particularly. It is a curiosity and well worthy of examination.—Balt. Clipper.

SIGNS OF RAIN.—The air, when dry, I believe, retracts more red, or heat-making, rays, and as dry air is not perfectly transparent, they are again reflected in the horizon. I have generally observed a coppery or yellow sunset to foretell rain; but as an indication of wet weather approaching, nothing is more certain than a halo round the moon, which is produced by the precipitated water; and the largest circle, the nearer the clouds, and consequently the more ready to fall.—Sir H. Davy.

"NED BUNTLINE" AND THE PRISON AUTHORITIES.

The New York Express states that the keeper of the penitentiary on Blackwell's Island, discoverd a letter, which Dr. Covel, the resident city prison physican, sent to Dr. kelley, the Penitentiary "Medico," reccommending Judson, the Astor riot leader, to his "kindly attentions," with the intent to provide him an easy and comfortable situation in the Penitentiary Hospital, under the pretence of siekness. The affair will probably be invesigated. Mr "Ned" has refused to take any eustenaace since he was comitted. He wanted time to edit his "Own," dut this was refused as against the rules, and he was orderd to array in prison clothes, and go to work in the quarry. At first he refused, complaining of indisposed, &c., but after a while did as he was commanded.

AWFUL AFFAIR.—We learn from a gentleman of Caroline County, that the Rev. James Nicols, a Minister of M. E. Church, residing in Hillsborough, in that County, on Thursday night, after prayers, he commenced taking wildly, and hearing a rap rt the door, jumped up and seized a gun which was in the room, and deliberately shot his cousin, Miss Julia Ann Nicols, the contents entering in front of the shoulder blade, and passing down near the heart. As he seized the gun, his daughter begged Miss N. to run, but she did not comply, but the daughter immediately escaped.—He then dragged her out of the house, to the pig-stye near by, and endeavored to get the body into it, but without success. The corpse was found there yesterday morning by the neighbors. Mr. N. started on foot for this county, where he arrived yesterday morning. He was found to be insane, and was safely secured in jail.

Mr. Nicols is subject to fits of insanity, and has been in the Philadelphia Hospital. When sane he is an eloquent preacher, possessed of more than ordinary intelligence and talent, and is very amiable and inoffensive.—Easton Gazette.

DEATH FROM CAMPHINE GAS.—Mr. Robert Evans, of Philadelphia, undertook to fill a lighted lamp with camphine, on Saturday, from a half gallon iin pan, when the fluid ignited and exploded, blowing the lamp to pieces and the bottom of the can out, and setting fire to the room and to his clothes, from which he was so dreadfully burned, that after lingering in the most intense agony thro' the night and morning, he expired at about noon on Sunday. He had repeatedly cautioned his family against the very practice from which he himself met his terrible death It is supposed the violence of the explosion was sufficient to prove fatal to him.

ANOTHER REVOLUTION IN FRANCE.—Mr. Walsh, in one of his recent letters to the Journal of Commerce, says:

"There may be, this winter, in Paris, an entire political revolution, accompanied or lot accompanied by convulsions in the capital or the provinces, or both. It is doubtful whether the great parties, three at east, who aim at fundamental changes, can longer keep at bay, or be content simply to manœuvre. There may ensue mighty external coalitions and enterprizes, which France, if she undetake to resist, can combat only with all her resources—every man and her every franc."

The Tribune says it will be a royalist movement, to restore legitimacy in the person of Henry the 5th.

SERIOUS DISASTER AND LOSS OF LIFE.—We learn from the New Orleans Bulletin, that during the evening of the 27th ult., the river bank at Morganza, in the parish of Point Coupee, caved in, carrying away about two acres of ground. Mr. Bessett, the proprietor of the hotel at that place; Mr. Boyd, and two negro men, belonging to the estate of Mr Charles Morgan, lost their lives by being engulphed in the fall.

A SAD CASE.—Elinor McCracken, recently from Ireland, drowned herself in Lower St. Clair, Pa on Monday. She was bethrod to a young man of her own country, who died of cholera on hoard of the ship in which they were coming to this country, and had been ever since in a very desponding mood.

DIVORCE OF MRS. JUDSON. Mrs. Annie Judson, the wife of E. Z. C. Judson alias Ned Buntline, the convicted Astor Place rioter, obtained a divorce from him, on Saturday last, before the Superior Court of N. Y., on the ground of cruelty. She had previously separated from him.

ROBBING THE ALMS HOUSE.—The Hagerstown News says that on the night before the election the Alms House of that county was broken into by some of the politicians and one of the inmates, named Rollins, stolen therefrom, with the object of voting him the next day.

SUICIDE OF A MURDER.—Frederick Smith, convicted at Gettysburg of the murder of Frederick Foster, was on Tuesday last sentenced to be hung. On Friday the prisoner anticipated justiee, by hanging himself in his cell.

TERRIBLE SLAUGHTER.—No less than 3,520 dogs were made to bite the dust in New York city during the past summer, in obedience to the rigorous dog law.

EMANCIPATION.—Maj. Wood, late of Darien, Ga., at his death, freed all his slaves 150 in number, and left $5,000 for the purpose of paying their expense to Liberia

DEATH OF CAPT GUINN, U. S. NAVY.—Letters from Palermo, dated the 17th ult., received at Philadelphia, by the last steamer, announce the decease of Capt. John Guinn, of the Mediterranean squadron, which sad event took place on the 4th September, on board the United States flag ship Constitution.

THE CALIFORNIA FLEET.—It was reported at Rio, on the 25th of August, that the ports between that place and the Straits of Maggelan were filled with vessels that had been trying to get around Cape Horn.

SINGULAR OBITUARY. The following singular orbituary notice appears in the Athens (Ga.) Messenger:

"He was the father of eleven sons,—five of the sons having married five sisters. He had also one hundred and eighty-nine great-grand-children; and at his funeral, two weeks ago last Sabbath, two horses were stung to death by bees, and another came near loosing his life by the same!"

ONE OF THE B'HOYS!—There is a youth in Rusmey, Ky., 15 years old, who stands five feet three inches high; measures six feet round the waist, three feet six inches round the thigh, two inches round the calf of the leg, two feet six inches round the arm, and weighs five hundred pounds. Beat that chap who can—he is "some Pumpkins."

Widow Grizzle has an only sister; the sister is a widow also.

Her lord died lately of cholic. In the midst of his most acute bodily pain, after the hand of death had touched him, and while writhing in agony, his gentle wife said to him;

"Well, Mr. Schyloc, you need'nt kick round so and wear out the sheets, if you are dying."

"Well, Stubbs, how did you amuse yourself lsst night, did you attend the grand hop?" Oh no, I was engaged at a fancy ball." "Fancy ball—why, where the deuce was it?" "Oh, at home; my wife Fanny had the toothache all night, and a crying spell at that—so you see that I have attended a Fan-cy-bawl."

☞"Well Jim," said Joe, "I kissed Kate for the first time, last night, and I declare, it electrified me."

"No wonder," said Jim, "it was a galvanic battery.

YELLOW FEVER.—There were 54 deaths from yellow fever in the Chairity Hospital at New Orleans during the week ending the 31st ult.

COUNTERFEITS.—A man named George Wilson was arrested near Owingsville, Ky. and in his possession were found $100 in counterfeit bank notes and spurious half dollars.

☞Men; who have extravagant wives are observed to have sharp noses. The cause is supposed to be that their noses are kept to the grindstone continually.

GOVERNOR OF OREGON.—We learn that Major J. P. Gaines, of Kentuckey, has been appointed Governor of Oregon in the place of Mr. Lincoln, who declined the appointment.

A man who had a severe fall was asked by the surgeon, "Have you sprained yourself near the firbula?" No, sir, he answered, "it was near the market place."

SQUIRREL HUNT.—A grand squirrel hunt, composed of two parties of thirty on each side, came off at Washington, (Pa.) on Friday last. The whole number of squirrels killed wgs 673.

☞"I say, Jim, are there any bears in your country, in the winter?" 'Yes, the ice bears."

☞"Jones, you are too much of an every-day man to suit me." "Well, Sir, you are too weak a one to suit me." "Good day."

☞"I'm blessed if I do," as flint said when advised to marry a neighbor,s daughter.

☞"Can you tell us when the ears leave for Newark?" "As soon as the seats aree all taken" said Jem, "that will make the car-go."

The reason why ladies' teeth decay sooner than gentlemen's, is because of the friction of the tongue, of the lips.
