Leonard Town 22d Augt 1832.

Sir

Independant of my duty under the law as an officer nothing will give me more pleasure than to assist in the great undertaking in which the State has embarked and to promote your views as expressed in yours of last April received by me.

There has been no will exhibited for probat in my office since the passage of the law of last Session manumitting any slave except that mentioned in the annexed communication which I have been to transmit you agreeably to law & your request.

No opportunity has presented as yet to put the questions to the slave manumitted by Mr Sewall when one shall offer they will assuredly be put and the result communicated.

Very respt Yrs Obedient

E. J. Millard
