THE LAST NOTICE.
TO THE PUBLIC,
AND ALL
WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

MY Commission as a public officer expired during the month of MAY, 1847 nearly three years ago, I then notified all persons against whom I held Executions, that unless they come foward and settle their respective dues by a certain time, that my duty would compel me to advertise their property. A few come up and complied with my reasonable request, but yet find in my hands. between one and two hundred Executions unsatisfied, and plantiffs are threatening me with a suit.

In every case where the money is not paid by the 7th day of MARCH next, or the defendant with the plantiffs releases me of all other responsibility. I shall, and will advertise and sell property without any respect of persons. It is a duty I owe my Bondemen, my family and the public.
