KENT NEWS.

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Saturday, March 23, 1850.

Court.

Our Court commenced its session on Monday last, and will probably adjourn on Monday next. But one civil case has been tried—several criminal cases have been tried, but none of great magnitude.—The case of the State against William Longfellow for an Assault and Battery on Henry Lilly, a small boy, his nephew, resulted in a verdict of guilty, and the sentence was eighteen months confinement, in the county Jail and a fine of $1. The case was an aggravated one and the judgment of the Court was not unreasonable. Judges, Hopper and Eccleston on the bench—Judge Chambers is in attendance in the Court of Appeals at Annapolis.

The Next Presidency.

By reference to the Washington letter, from the Baltimore Sun, it will be seen that it is proposed to run as the Whig candidates for the next Presidency and Vice Presidency, HENRY CLAY as President, and DANIEL WEBSTER as Vice President.

It is probably a little too early to agitate these matters, but such a ticket would be a "tower of strength," and whilst it would have the entire confidence of the Whig and Conservative party of the whole Union, it would inspire the Whig party to such active and untiring exertions which could not fail of success.

CONFERENCE.—The annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church will commence in this town on Wednesday next 27th inst. We perceive by a Baltimore paper that the Steamer Osiris is to bring the Preseners and Delegates from the Western Shore to our Town on Wednesday next.—The members from the Eastern Shore who may come on horses and in carriages, will probably arrive on Tuesday.

A New Weekly Paper.

We call attention to the prospectus, in another column, of a new weekly paper, to be issued every Saturday from the office of that well established journal, the Baltimore American, and if we are to judge of the new weekly, by the daily American, we bespeak the most favorable consideration for it.

The Baltimore American is not only one of the oldest and most enterprising papers, but it is conducted with that ability, decorum and good taste which commends it to every body, and enables it to rank with the very first journals of our country, A specimen number of the weekly American has been sent to our office, and we shall be glad to shew it to any one desirous of taking a good weekly Journal from our commercial city.

The Orphans' Court.

By reference to the notice issued by the Court, which will be found in another column, the first and third Tuesday of each month will hereafter be the regular periods of their sittings, and we invite attention of those interested in the estates of deceased persons to the notice thereof.

LARGE GOOSE EGG.—We have been presented by Mr. James W. Quimby, with the largest specimen of a goose egg. It measures 6 1-2 inches in length, and 9 inches round! Who can beat that?

Appointments.

The following is a list of the civil Appointments for Kent county received at this office from the Executive of Maryland to wit:

WASHINGTON, March 19, 1850.

Prospect of Adjustment—A favorable Time—Right Feeling Abroad—Southern Retaliation, &c.

At no former stage of the session has a better prospect been afforded to us than at present for a speedy and final adjustment of the disturbing question. Efforts have been successfully made to bring a majority of the Senate to concur in Mr Foote's proposition, for the reference of the question to a select committee of thirteen. Mr Dayton will speak on that proposition but chiefly in regard to another subject—the fugitive slave bill—and on Friday, it may be hoped, that the commitee will be ordered.

The committee will attempt to settle everything which agitates and distracts the country and obstructs the regular function of legislation. If, after the deep and favorable impression made upon the country by the speeches of Mr. Clay, Mr. Dickerson, Mr. Cass, Mr. Bell and Mr. Webster, the question cannot be now adjusted, it never can be. A more favourable conjunction of circumstances can at no time recur. Gov. Steward and the idealist and fanatics whom he represents are now put down completely, and it would hardly be worth while to continue the agitation till, in the confusion of parties produced by it, his faction can rise again The administration have thrown their weight in opposition to Mr. Seward and his views. They utterly denounce and discard him as one of their friends and supporters.

Notwithstanding the fulsome and flatulent adulation adulation and homage of General Taylor, with which he stuffed his speech, and which, as Mr. Badger said to day, General Taylor's powers, of degation would not enable him to swallow, I do not suppose that Mr. Seward can gain any support from the democratic party, whose views are justly represented by Mr. Cass and Mr. Dickinson. This is the time therefore, for action, in reference to the state of feeling in the North; and in regard to the South.

We are not yet aware that Mr. Calhoun's extreme views have found any decided support. The South are not unwilling to unite on the platform presented by Mr. Webster. Speedy action should take place, because events have occurred, and are likely to occur, of a very irritating nature, and which will prompt the Southern Convention to take some very strong steps toward resistance and retaliation. Of such a nature is the subject of Gov. Floyd's recent message to the Legislature of Virginia, recomending retaliatory legislation in regard to Ohio and those States which refuse to fulfil their constitutional obligations to the South, in regard to the surrender of fugitives. The whole people of the Commonwealth of Virginia will unite in the support of the recomendation of that message.

From present appearences, there is no doubt but that Mr. Webster's position will be triumphantly sustained in New England and New York; and that the administrations will have to adopt his platform. I have reason to know that the veteran patriot Clay himself will sustain Mr. Webster, setting the country a noble example of disinterestedness and genuine patriotism. Both Mr. Clay and Mr. Webster will probably reply to Mr. Seward. Mr Badger was to-day quoting the Bible against him. Mr. Seward will answer him that the Bible is a very good book, but that there are situations in the life of a New York politician which may render it necessary for him to look for the justification of his acts to some other authority. Perhaps Mr. Seward, who is the best judge of circumstances, will grant indulgencies to his followers.

I gave you, in my letter yesterday, the new whig ticket which it is proposed to run in 1852 I meant no disrespect to Mr. Webster when I put him as Vice President on the ticket with Henry Clay. Either Webster or Clay for President would make a strong ticket, while the Presidency itself could not add a tittle to the reputation and standing of either. Mr Webster has now more influence on public affairs than the President of the United States. Such men as Clay and Webster make public opinion—the true sovereign of this country.

SOMETHING WORTH KNOWING.—It is a fact, perhaps not generally known to farmers, that there two parts in the potato, which if separated and planted at the same time one will produce potatoes fit for the table eight or ten days sooner than the other. The small end of the potato, which is generally full of eyes, is that part which produces the earliest, the middle or body of the potato produces late, and always larger ones.

THE NASHVILLE CONVENTION.—The New Orleans "Crescent" says that several of the public journals of Texas denounce in no measured terms the resolutions passed by the Legislature recommending the people to hold elections for delegates to the Nashville Convention. The Galvestown Journal of the 1s, inst says:

"When the people want to send Delegates to Nashville, or any other place, they will find means of doing so probably without diverting the attention of the legislature from its legitimate business. Legislative assemblages, however have become, like arrant school boys, apt in mischief, but slow at what they are elected and paid for, viz: making laws for the publics good. The people have not thought the emergency required the action that he recommended, and the legislature's ill-timed resolution involves a degree of haste altogether inappropriate."

VIRGINIA AND THE NASHVILLE CONVENTION.—Some week or two ago, the Hon. J. M. H Beale, a member of Congress from the 14th district of Virginia, addressed a letter to his constituents, in which he took strong ground against the Nashville Convention, and set forth moderate and conservative counsels. On the 4th instant, the citizens of Mason county, in his district, held a public meeting, at which resolutions were passed, entirely approving the sentiments contained in the letter.

WOMEN AND MEN.—Women need marrying much more than men. The girl who lives beyond thirty without a husband, withers like a lily with its drink stopped. Bachelors of that age, however, are as rosy as vermillion.

NULLIFICATION IN VIRGINIA.—Fugitives from Justice.—Gov Floyd, of Virginia, has sent a message to the Legislature of that State, in relation to the refusal of Ohio to comply with a requisition for a free negro; charged with crime. Gov. Floyd makes some well timed romarks upon the imperative duty of each State to comply with such requisitions, and then goes on to suggest the remedy or rather a mode of relatiation on the States which thus violate the provisions of the Constitution.—He says:

"I am of the opinion, that a system of taxation under the license law can be so arranged as to transfer entirely the trade from those States which have trampled under foot the Constitution of the United States, to those which are still willing to abide by its compromises, and recognize it. This would be a peaceful and efficient remedy, doubly recommended to us because it is under our own exclusive control and the worl of our own authorities.

The present session is too far advanced to perfect the details of the plan, and therefore I only suggest it that your minds may be turned to the subject, so as to enable you to act with promptness and efficiency immediately upon your return next winter. A concerted and united action on the part of the South in this matter will either redress our grievances at once, or transfer the direct European trade to the Southern ports, or build up manufacturies of all sorts in our country, which would ultimately tend greatly to our strength and independence.

We now tax a tin pedlar ten dollars, whilst a clock pedlar has to pay fifty dollars. The venders of all articles manifactured in the recusant States could be taxed one hundred per cent, and the vender required to show where the articles were made. Pains and penalties could be easily attached to any evasion of the law which would ensure the due enforcement of it. The details could be made to embrace live stock and the products of the soil.—Very respectfully, your obedient servant

JOHN B. FLOYD,

T. B Lawrence, son of Abbott Lawrence, of Boston, whose fashionable marriage with a belle of Louisville was noted last year, has advertised his wife in the Louisville papers, as a runaway, and cautions persons harboring or trusting her on his account, as he holds himself responsible for no debts contracted by her.

MISSISSIPPI.—A good feeling appears to be springing up in this State, in relation to the disunion movement, and calm, considerate people, who speak out when danger comes, are making known their opinions.—The Natchez (Miss.) Courier, last received contains a call signed, by two hundred and thirty-six citizens, for a public meeting of 'the friends of the integrity of the Union who are not opposed to the admission of California with her present constitution."

MEDICAL COLLEGES AND GRADUATES.—During the year 1848-49, the number of students attending the thirmedical colleges in the United States was 4,599, and the number of Graduates 1,370. The whole number of students attending these institutions during the past five years is estimated at 18,899 and the whole number of graduates at 6,414.

The Boston Post says that "If there be a man in the country who should be tolerant towards those who have used unjust language respecting Andrew Jackson, it is the senior editor of the Washington Union newspaper."

JUDSON PARDONED.—E. Z. C. Judson, alias Ned Buntline, sentenced to one year to Blackwell's Island, for particiation in the Astor House riot, has been pardoned by the Governor of New York
