PROCLAMATION.

State of Maryland, to wit:

WHEREAS, pursuant to the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at December session thereof, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine, entitled "an Act to provide for taking the sense of the people upon the expediency of calling a Convention to frame a new Constitution and form of Government of this State and to provide for the election of Delegates to such Convention," an election was held in the several counties, Howard District and the city of Baltimore, on the second Wednesday of May last, for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of the people as to the expediency of calling a Convention of Delegates to frame a new Constitution and form of Government of this State. And whereas, the returns of the number of ballots cast at said election for and against a Convention and blank ballots, have been examined and accurately counted by the persons required by the said Act to count the same, who have certified that upon counting and casting up the said ballots, it did appear to them that a majority of the legal voters of the State, as shown by said returns, are in favor of a call of a Convention.

Now, therefore I, Philip Francis Thomas, Governor of the State of Maryland, in obedience to the requirements of the said Act of Assembly, do, by this proclamation, order and direct that an election be held in the several counties, Howard District and the city of Baltimore, on the first Wednesday of September next, for Delegates to a Convention to frame a new Constitution and form of Government for this State, in such manner and under such regulations, as are provided in said Act of Assembly.
