WILSON'S
BUSINESS DIRECTORY,

FOR N. Y. CITY, FOR 1850-51.

Containing the names and address of all Persons engaged in business, classified under appropriate Headings.—Price 50 cents

This work (the most complete of its kind ever issued) will be found very valuable to those who visit New York to purchase—as by means of it they may purchase at first hand, at a considerable saving—and they may arrange their business so as to make a great saving in time. Every country merchant should procure a copy.

We extract the following commendatory notices from several of our exchanges:

"Wilson's Business Directory is one of the most useful publications which we have seen. It is a complete business—Encyclopedia of the city, and, as a Guide and Directory to every merchant and man of business coming into the Great Metropolis, it is certainly invaluable. This book contains in all 27,670 names of persons or firms engaged in business on their own account, in the city of New York, south of 23d street."—N. Y. Farmer and Mechanic.

"Wilsons Business Directory is a neat little volume, and is a work of great convenience, if not indispensible, to residents of the city and all who transact business there. Those engaged in one kind of business are grouped under a distinct head, making reference very easy. The work is also furnished with a map which renders it a useful guide to all strangers in the Island City."—Troy Budget.
