DR. SWAYNE'S
Celebrated Family Medicines
DR. SWAYNE'S
COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY
The Original and Genuine Preparation!
THE MOST COMMON SAYING

Is that I would not give one bottle of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, for half a dozen of any other preparations. I have tried all the popular ones, but this stands unrivalled for the cure of the following diseases: Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Spitting of Blood, Palpitation of the Heart, Whooping Cough, Tickling or Rising Sensation in the Throat, Asthma, or a Weakness of the Nervous System, or impaired constitution from any cause, and to prevent persons from falling into a decline, this medicine has not its equal. And when too much calomel or quinine has been used, this medicine will prevent its evil effects on the system, and repair the billiary functions.

TESTIMONIALS WILL NEVER CEASE.
REMARKABLE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

Abraham Hunsicker, 2 miles from Skippersville, Pa., contracted a severe cold, which settled upon his Lungs, attended with violent coughing, great difficulty of breathing, an abscess formed in his lungs, and made its way through the side, and discharge large quantities of pus externally. This mournful state of things continued for a long time, until making use of Dr Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which performed a perfect cure.

Have you the Asthma, Liver Complaint or Bronchitis? If so give this medicine a trial. It seldom fails to cure.

VERY IMPORTANT CAUTION.

Be very particular to inquire for Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, as some unprincipled individuals have stolen the name of Wild Cherry, thinking to borrow a reputation from the already established. Remember, the genuine is put in square bottles, covered with a beautiful wrapper, (steel engraving) with the portrait of DR. SWAYNE thereon, as his signature; all others are positively fictitious and counterfeit

SWAYNE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE.

A safe and effectual remedy for Worms, Dyspepsia, Cholera Morbus, sickly or adults, and the most useful Family Medicine ever offered to the public."

EXTRACT OF A LETTER TO DR SWAYNE,

Dated, Andersontown, Indiana.

A man purchased a bottle of your Vermifuge the other day for his child, and by its use discharged over a dozen worms he had verseen. This man who collected to get the people to say it, as they live by so often called by nauseous and worthless worm medicines. Yours being so very pleasant to the taste, at the same time effectual, I shall be able to dispose of a large quantity. Respectfully, yours.

TOWNSEND SHARP P. M.

BEWARE OF MISTAKES! Remember Dr. Swayne's Vermifuge is now put up in square bottles (having recently been changed) covered with a beautiful steel engraving wrapper, with the portrait of Dr. Swayne thereon. Bear this in mind, and be not deceived.

See that the name is spelt correctly.—SWAYNE

CLEANSE AND PURIFY.

DR. SWAYNE'S SUGAR COATED SARSAPARILLA AND EXTRACT OF TAR PILLS.

A mild and effective purgative great purifyer of the blood, they correct all the functions of the Liver, and as an alterative in Dropsical affections, they are very valuable. Giddiness of the head, dimness of sight, depression of spirits, headache, &c., are cured by these tasteful Pills. No medicine can have a better effect for monthly irregularities, which occasionally happen to women, they are perfectly safe, and will in conjunction with Dr Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, take all pain and disease from every part of the system.

POETRY.

A Whig Song.

Fling out the old Whig banner, boys,
Unfurl it to the air,
Nor never strike its folds, boys,
'Till vict'ry perches there.
Away with all dissentions, boys,—
'Tis not the time of strife,
When, with import deep, boys,
The coming fight is rife.

The "union bond of peace," boys,
Like that our country binds,
Inscribe upon your banners, boys,
Then give it to the winds.
W've an honest band, and true boys,
To hold the Union helm;
Our State requires the same, boys,
E'er ruins Gulf o'erwhelms.

In CLARKE we've, just the man boys,—
We've tried him well and long;
In head and heart he's right, boys,
In the old Whig faith is strong.
Unlike the loco's Frenchman boys,
He boasts no foreign ton,
Nor like a simpering ape, boys,
The dandy's struts puts on.

As kind in heart, he's plain in garb—
The man speaks from his face,
While no taint upon his name, boys,
Can envious malice trace.
We know him, and we'll trust him, boys,
For him we'll cast our votes,
Then proudly watch the ship, boys,
As on its proudly floats.

When safe and sound 'tis moored, boys
In honor's harbor, dry,
We'll raise a shout of vict'ry, boys,
As in good old times gone by.
From loco spoils and rule, boys,
W'ell take the helm of State,
And trust to honest hands, boys,
Our fortunes small and great.

Then "one fire more" lets give, boys,—
Let every man come out
And watch the Locos catch boys,
A Buena Vista rout.
Then let's all hurrah for Clarke, boys,
And pledged each heart and hand,
That the loco rule is o'er, boys,
In good old Maryland.

THE WHIG TRIUMPH.

Wednesday last was a great day for the Whigs of old Dorset. The Gubernatorial candidates were present and addressed their fellow citizens, and the result was a great triumph for the whig candidate. Mr. Lowe opened the discussion, and in a few minutes after he had commenced, disappointment was strongly marked on every countenance. His party for a while seemed to realize a little aid and comfort from the effort of their candidate. But when Col. Clarke arose to address the meeting the Whig fire of old Dorset broke forth in "three times three" for the nominee of the Whig convention. And well did that nominee sustain himself. He proved by the Journal of the house of Delegates, the very test his opponent called for, that he was a better reformer than his opponent, and laid down his platform of reform. Although as he justly remarked, a Governor will have no more to do with reform convention than the humblest citizen of our State, yet to show that he was a friend of the masses, he gave his views as an individual in regard to reform issues which were honestly entertained, and which claimed the admiration of nearly every man present. Not even Mr. Lowe could find any objection to them, and notwithstanding the effort of the party press to denounce Mr. Clarke, on the subject of reform the Whig candidate proved conclusively to every impartial and candid mind that, practically, he is a better reformer than Enoch Louis Lowe.

Mr. Lowe started out with the idea that the Governor had a great deal to do with the subject of reform and hinted that the Executive would exercise a controlling influence over the convention, an idea that Mr. Clarke emphatically repudiated and distinctly stated that he would never think of influencing an independent representative of the people. Mr. Clarke's is the doctrine of the great Whig party, it is the doctrine of the people

Again, to the surprise of almost every one Mr. Lowe exhumed that band of locofoco "martyrs" the glorious nineteen. He eulogised them to the skies, and said they were the first ones to put the ball of reform in motion. People of Maryland! reformers as well as anti-reformers, reflect that the nominee of the locofoco party eulogises a set of men who were base enough to set at nought their solemn oaths, in order to carry out party views.

Elected for a specific purpose, they trampled the trust reposed in them by the people, into the very dust, for nothing else but party motives. A thought professing democracy they, in the minority violated its fundamental principles by trying to control a majority. Yet Enoch Louis Lowe, the committee of the bitterest end portion of the bitter enders, aye the defunct Custom House Clique of Baltimore, with War Horse No. 2 at its head, dares to come before the people, and advocate the course of a set of politicians, who bid defiance to all law and order, and say, in effect to the people of Maryland.—We care not if we are in the minority, give us what we ask, or 'Let discord reign forever. Such reader is about the sum and substance of Mr. Lowe's argument. If the man had known anything about the sentiments of the people of 'old ocean's shore,' he never would have breathed a sylable in commendation of a band of traitors, upon whom the people of Maryland have long since placed the seal of condem-
