[BY AUTHORITY]

State of Maryland, to wit:

WHEREAS, At an Election was held on the second day of October, being the First Wednesday of said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the several counties of this State, for Governor, and the returns thereof have been duly made and received and the number of votes, according to said returns, counted and ascertained by me, and it appears by said returns that, of the persons voted for ENOCH LOUIS LOWE, Esquire, possessing the legal qualifications and a resident of the District from which the Governor is to be taken, has received a majority of the legal votes cast at said election.

NOW THEREFORE, I, JOHN JOHNSON, Chancellor, by virtue of the power vested in me by the Constitution and Form of Government of the State of Maryland, do, by this my proclamation declare, that ENOCH LOUIS LOWE, Esquire, has been duly elected Governor of the said State, according to the Constitution and Form of Government thereof.

L. S. Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, at the city of Annapolis, on the twenty sixth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, it is the solemn duty of a Christian people, endowed with the inestimable privileges of civil and religious liberty, and to the enjoyment of uninterrupted peace and the highest degree of national prosperity, to unite, at some fixed period of each year, in fervent prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God for the manifold blessings which, through His providence have been vouchsafed to them.

And whereas, it has been customary and it is therefore, expected by the citizens of the State, that a day should be assigned by the Executive authority thereof, upon which the whole people, abstaining from all secular employment, may devoutly join in thanksgiving, praise and prayer.

Now, therefore, I, PHILIP FRANCIS THOMAS, Governor of the State of Maryland, do, by this proclamation, designate and set apart THURSDAY, the 28th of November next, as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God, to be kept and observed by the good people of the State of Maryland, whom I earnestly recommend, on that day, to abstain from their usual secular engagements and to devote themselves to such religious exercises as are appropriate to a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

L. S. Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, at the city of Annapolis, on the twenty sixth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

By the Governor, PHILIP F. THOMAS
JOHN NICK WATKINS.
