OUR MAY EXPEDITION IN THE SHIP M. C. STEVENS.

This vessel is now, April 18th, rapidly filling up with freight and emigrants' effects.

We are in a position entirely new—emigrants offering and no room for them. Applications have been made by people from the free States, which we have been obliged to reject, for the present voyage—a full complement having previously been engaged. A large proportion of those to go are from the free States—many of comparative wealth and of great respectability.

Ploughs, waggons, carts, cotton gins, coffee pulpers and hullers, and steam boilers, constitute parts of the cargo.

TERMS.

This Journal is published Monthly, and is furnished to Subscribers at $1 per year whether sent by mail or otherwise. All profits arising from its publication are applied to advance the general purposes of the Society.

New Series. BALTIMORE, MAY, 1860. Vol. 10.—No. 12.

VOYAGE H, OF THE SHIP M. C. STEVENS.

ON the 21st ult. the ship left our port on her eighth voyage to Liberia, anticipating her fixed time of sailing some ten days, as arrangements had been made for her to enter the outer harbor of Savannah, and receive a number of emigrants, that could not be brought to this city without great trouble and expense. She arrived off Savannah on the 30th ult., took her emigrants on board on the 2d of May, and at once weighed anchor and set sail for Liberia, with a fair wind.

For the first time since her construction, the ship took near her full complement of passengers, 228 in all, 162 adults or those 8 years or over and 66 under that age, equivalent to 33 adults, making 195 full rations—5 less than the complement allowed by law between decks. With her cabin and deck-house she might carry some 25 more. We hope some day to see her filled and running over.

This expedition excelled, not only in the number of emigrants, but in their appearance and character. Many among them were men of great worth and promise, and not one did we come in contact with, who did not appear to feel the great importance and heavy responsibilites of their mission. They seemed pilgrims, bound for a free land, and to have fully reckoned the cost of the undertaking, entertaining no idle, indefinite hopes, of worldly ease and comfort, but prepared for the labors and trials that must, of necessity, await all emigrants to a new country and an untried clime. God speed them!

The ship took out six cabin passengers. The Rt. Rev. Bishop Payne and lady, of Cavally, Miss Griswold, for the Episcopal Mission, Mrs. Brown and Mr. Johns, of Monrovia, and Dr. Snowden, of Sinou.
