Wasta Baker and the King spoken all by the King accenes him of lieing, this King Glaker were to be a matter gid for ans, these people were told By Wasso, Bam much money we had in our Bar this created a Jelausey, Wasta Markeed against ans all he could because we would not take Glaker as our Chief Gid, and ~~through~~ thrown spoken a Lid, which we could not Do, these old people got Mad, and would Not let ans go, they say we could go, provided we would give up our money to Jeffers & Glaker & Letthem Sell as they can fit, Mr Banks would Not consent to this, I Sent the Disient by runs a hunt to Tize before we left Bona that is 1st Becaus the governor had Not carried in the Head King of the Country that we were to Spoke through, & Wasta Baker bangin in a second & a third person as Gids to go to Pale, these 3 Gentlemen it were Reasonable to Suppose that Each one have a particular path to go and also Jelausey existing between the three, to be which could not Do, the Other one wanted the Spease and the other wanted the Praise I Same this, Mr Banks Seeming impatient and angry, prepared to me, to Get Redy to go back home, I Not Writing for that, & Seing that things were Not Many age Right, I said hold on the palaver to try to effect a Clearance, Gat Dacis Wasta, Brother, who Talke English very well, Maid a handle of him, Gat him to tell me all the palaver after hearing it i found that Mans, was their object, so i spoke to Dacis, to Gat Glaker the King, Same tobacco pipes and Cloth & flints & then Gash thause i old Gentlemen of the town, so as to make their Hart glad, Dacis agreed to this I Sent Dacis to tell them, at the same time I went to Mr Banks, and told him, What would be best to Do, Gash so Much to Glaker & then Gash so Much to the Head Men ordering Mr Bankes agreed with me so the Gash to the King, there 6 Hankerchief 2 Bar tobacco 4 pipes & 10 flints to the town 8 Hankerchief 30 flints & pipes thanked ans, King Gash ans a gat in Returne Natives are quick to observe Right & Range - Men should be Carefull - Have they talke to them (Civellizen men) in palavers