Mr Bankes Complained much, Sickness of Stomach Vintage Dimness of Sight, My Self & Mr Stout Ash & Nimbly & Whitley being anxious to go to the Bize tawn and had Determined to go, But Mr Bankes got Worse, I Not Willing to Do Ad over instructions Stated, that is one of our gals Sick Have him, & one Native man and the Rest Sick on, this were a Hard Saying, & for us to Do that Could Not be, And Any Reasonable Man that thought any thing of his Patawe, Man on a Bought like this, particular a Morning Journey Matter So We Concluded to Remain a Day on time & See if Mr Bankes Would Not get Better About 2 o Clock Mr Bankes Called on Me to Read the instruction to Explaine them, to Paba, King Bella & this Head Waterman from Matteme Whose Name was as Ulola, & Jaculler from Damaryah, They Wanted to know Who had the best Right to us, Paba, or Jaculler in bringing us to Pak Country, I Dare So, Gone thence Gentlemen to under Stand, that We were placed in the Hand of Paba & Gones or Rentmann, & he Were to bringe us Back to the Cape Jaculler argued that Paba did Not Know the path to Pak C, the way he Brought us, & if Paba had Carried us Any other path We Would Not Reached Pak & as he Were Chief God for us through the Country & taken Care of us on the path, He had the Best Right to our visit in his tawn, before Any other Tawn, Jaculler Name Not being Mentioned in the instruction left us intirely Have to Decided on the Matter, So it Were left to King Bella, Ulola, and the Shaba on each side to Determine Who had the Best Right, They argued the question very warmly, it Got to Shock a pitch, that the Shaba belonging to Matteme & the Shaba belonging to Damaryah Where Jaculler lived, liked to have Come into Battle Each other, King Bella Seeing this, Stepped forward & told the partay that Were to Decide, the Right of Gods, That Paba, pepper, glotter, had put there 3 American in his hand, to take Care of them till we got Ready to go Home, But as his people have Chase Enough Were to his tawn, about us, he Would give us up & let us go Where we like, And further Says that Jaculler Had the Most trouble in Bringing us, that he had the Best Right to our presence in his tawn, From this Jaculler then told Mr Bankes that he must fit Ready to go to his tawn.
