going to the Big town, Mr Bank did not give him a positive answer, About 5 o Clock P.M Jamboler arrived in town again, he had spent up at a small town a short distance from the town where we war at to Marsh and coming finding we did not come, he came Back on this night on coming to see if we was determined not to go to his town, We did not say much to him this evening because Mr Bank complained of not be well, he in fact all of us stood in need of Rest as we had not rested very well since our longe journey so we dismissed him till the next morning, when we promised to give him an answer ——

J. Newbayah Thursday Morning 30th

This Morning Mr Bank is Better and in good spirits all the Rest Jarrah Well Jamboler makes a palaver for Palou saying he wase the cause of our not going to his town, It wase had to let this palaver but finely it wase let, Mr Banks promise him that he would go to his town, & at the same time did not intend going, in the after noon the Big town people sent a 3 messenger for us, told us that if we wore not coming, not to go out of the country, without letting them know it, Mr Bank told them that he would not, After being here 5 & 6 day worried much in mind tothing palaver letting out in the hot sun at night Mr Bank promised to go home the next day, give them all the slip, saying that Mr Banks promised would not go, because they would say that we wore a fread of them, this came very forcea ble to my mind, I could not leave the place for any than to say i wore a fraid of him, this would be madness to me,

So I told Mr Banks at once that he must go to this Big town, before we go Home, & frame their we should leave for Home I insisted on our going & showed to him the necessity of going & the difficulty we might meet with if we did not go It was a great sin to go, so we could while the head men of this town & told him, Jack Jamboler & Hankerchief so grumbunt, I sent him off, but he did not like it because we did not go, he said he could not look governor face force he had promis him, to carry us to the country where they maid cloth, & we would not go with him. — Newbayah Friday Morning 31st October

this Morning Rose very early, could all hands left for Mattere a bout 6 o Clock A.M. Arrived at Mattere in a bout 2 hour Jarrah good path, much water in the path Left a bout 10 Miles from Newbayah, this town is situated on the Bank of a River that let into the Cavally River it is a large town Contains Not less 350 to 400 inhabitants Children & adults it command 120 Regular Shauka he lieks 30 young men Who is not consider a get shaka it appear to be a town a Considerable note it has got a good number of old Heads or men living in it & also women old, the young Girls here Sarta have Husbands, till they are grown gape to woman size than they have better men, men supposed to be 25 & 30 years of age for Husband — This people is very kind to us they looked upon our visit as being something grand because, Never a civilized man have tread their country before The men are very more till more to their house Near the Beach, They have five Houses in this country maid after the African state But the body of the House is maid of Clay Harden by fire the Roof is maid principally of assit of Baraba & thatched with the leaves the House is keept very clean clean painted on side and out with vegitable colouring they make cotton & grass cloth here, the former they sort make it over 4 or 5 inches wide & about a yard or yard & a longue Because they don't wore but a very small piece of cloth a piece Big a naught to cover their privarits, parts the English & American cloth let down goes back this for in the interior in the way of maid there is in the Pah country geuantity of wood (same wood, & heavy But at this towns they trade with the Middle Inhabs between them & Baraba they don't trade with the Grabo Inhabs, they trade with the Zaba Inhabs East ward of the Cavally River
