JOHN P. AHERN,

HAND OF DEATH.

The Sad Reaper Garners The Ripened Sheaves.

William H. Blakeney, one of the best citizens in Chestertown, died at 2 15 A. M. New Year's day at his home on Cannon street, in his 75th year. For many months the patient sufferer was confined to his home and bed but never was there heard a word of complaint nor of criticism. His presence was seemingly hallowed and all who visited him felt that an unseen hand was leading him. Happy amidst suffering is the well grounded hope of a Heaven for God's children. Mr. Blakeney was a christian and an active worker in the Methodist Protestant Church. It was through his indomitable perseverence and love that the old fashioned class meeting was kept up until he was detained at home, since which time there has not been a meeting. He was for several years a superintendent of the Sunday school but soon resigned this position. He was an expert carriage painter by trade and employed for many years by Chapman & Lambert, George E. Lambert and Henry S. DeForé. He was industrious, faithful and constant. Although born in Baltimore he came to Kent early and married Miss Charlotte E. Robinson, who survives him with three sons, viz., Wm. A., Fred and Harry. Mrs. Blakeney during all these months has been constantly at his side and ministered to his every want. Her devotion has been unselfish and loyal. He was bailiff to the Grand Jury for some years in which position he won the friendship of all and each court tokens of esteem were left to the faithful official by the jurors. The arrangements for the funeral were made by the decease several months ago and every detail as requested will be carried out. The services took place at 3 P. M. yesterday, Dr. W. R. Graham, officiating, interment in Chester cemetery. The bearers wers: Jas. W. Lambert; Wm. Vansant. John W. Hirons, John H. Greenwood, J. W. Chapman, Fred. G. Usilton; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Mary Etta Sutton died at her home on Cannon street Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock after a long illness, aged 68 years. The deceased before marriage was Miss Mary Etta Birch. Her husband was the late Thomas Sutton, an honored citizen of Chestertown. Mrs. Sutton was a good woman. In all walks of life she was true and lived up to her high ideals of right and justice. She leaves three devoted children, viz., Mrs. Wm. L. Fowler, William S. and Miss Nettie Sutton, and two sisters, Mrs. Aleck Crew and Mrs. Kronomier. The funeral took place yesterday morning, interment in Chester cemetery, Dr. W. R. Graham officiating. The bearers were Wm. H. Robinson, Wm. Vansant, Jas. W. Lambert, C. S. Smith, F. H. Howard, Wm. A. Wheatley; Chas. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Thomas B. Trew, a retired farmer of Kent, died at his home in Pomona on his 75th birthday, Wednesday. The funeral took place yesterday at Pomona Rev. Mr. McCann officiating, interme[illegible] in the family burying ground on Bartus Trew's farm. He leave a [illegible] one brother, Bartus, and siste[illegible] Jamee H. Baker. The bea[illegible] Bartus, Walter S. and Thom[illegible] C. C., Henry and Wm. T. [illegible] Ferguson, undertaker.

E[illegible] of St. Paul's [illegible] Delaware [illegible] olic M[illegible] sudde[illegible] o'cl[illegible] ch[illegible] Louis Brady, pastor [illegible] Roman Catholic Church at [illegible] and chaplain at the Cath[illegible] Protectory at Reybold, died [illegible] Sunday afternoon about 4 [illegible] in the church of which he had [illegible]. Father Brady was 60 years old. [illegible] was formerly rector in Chestertown.

The Rev. Elijah E. White, one of the oldest active members of the Wilmington Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died Thursday night at Oxford, Md., where he had been pastor four years. The funeral service was held at the Oxford parsonage yesterday afternoon, and Interment will be made at Snow Hill, Md., this afternoon. The deceased was 60 years old.

Nelson Reed, a well known colored citizen, died at his home near town on Sunday last. He was 76 years old.

John Kiel, a well known citizen of lower Kent County, died suddenly on Tuesday last at his home near Tolchester.

Andrew J. Taylor died suddenly Thursday at his home on the Hwitt farm Locust Grove, aged 53. He leaves two children. The funeral will take place at 1 p. m. today, interment at Kennedyville; W. T Hicks, undertaker.

Master Herman Pierce died Tuesday afternoon 4 o'clock at his parents home in Massey after a lingering illness. Relatives and friends are invited to attend his funeral at 1 o'clock Saturday.
