SATURDAY, JANUARY 25, 1913.

Notice.—The NEWS will have to remind our friends again that obituaries, memorials, etc., are charged for at the rate of five cents a line, in advance. We have received a number this week when the above conditions were not complied with.

FRIENDS of Mr. James T. Anthony are boosting him for President of the Maryland Agricultural College. Nothing is too good for our esteemed "neighbor."

THE inaugural ball will not take place this year as President Wilson and his wife are opposed to it. The prime reason is because of the great cost, some estimating it at $90,000. He has thrown a bomb into society at Washington.

ANNAPOLIS was chosen for the annual meeting of the Maryland State Teachers' Association, and June 24, 25, 26 and 27 as the dates, at the meeting of the executive committee at the State Normal School Monday morning.

JUDGE HOPPER, at the January term of court held in Kent county Monday, had three divorce cases to pass upon, very much to his regret. He has positive views on this question which coincide with the judgment of many others.

CONNECTICUT is to join the list of States which believes that the prevention of too easy marriages is the surest check on too easy divorce. Hereafter in that State fly-by-night weddings will be prohibited. Bands must be published three days before the marriage can be officially sanctioned.

THE appointment of Mr. Joseph Mallalieu as postmaster at Millington is announced elsewhere in the NEWS, but his confirmation has not been accomplished. Hon. John Walter Smith is holding up the confirmation of all Republican officials claiming that President Wilson should have this privilege.

THE Democratic members of the Delaware Legislature are still in deadlock as to a choice for United States Senator. Willard Saulsbury has 25 votes while the other four are scattering. These four men should be marked by their constituents. The best way to choose Senators is by direct vote; and that in case Mr. Saulsbury would undoubtedly be the choice.

THE Public Service Commission of Maryland will hold a meeting at Cambridge on Thursday, January 30, to consider telephone rates on the Eastern Shore. It is said that the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company desires to submit a schedule of rates to apply to this entire territory. Vernon S. Bradley, secretary of the Board of Trade, who is acting as attorney in the matter, is calling upon the different boards on the "shore" to submit data in regard to rates in their towns. Chestertown certainly should be represented.

THE question of mothers' pensions is now uppermost in several States. Hugh Piper, Philadelphia, introduced a measure suggesting the payment of $10 a month to mothers for the support of one child and $5 a month for the maintenance of each additional child, provided the father is physically or mentally disabled, or is the inmate of an insane or penal institution. The Juvenile Court would supervise the allowance, which would be withdrawn when the father becomes able to provide or the child able to work at the age of fourteen. It has more merit than many other pensions. Its easy however to create a pauper class, like that of England and some of the other European coudtries, where unavoidable destitution only exists now, by the too liberal granting of unwise pensions.

LEE GAINING FRIENDS.

The announcement in the NEWS last week of its support of Hon. Blair Lee for the short term in the United States Senate has brought showers of congrautlations and indications point to his election. It was the first public allignment announced and has been received with favor by the voters of Kent County.

The Barrol organ up to this time has not endorsed anyone for the long term nor short term, but we invite them to join us in the advocacy of the People's choice.

Senator Wm. W. Beck in endorsing the NEWS' advocacy of Lee says:

"In taking your stand behind Senator Lee you are doing what I believe is in accordance with public sentiment in Kent county. I believe Lee should be sent to the Senate, especially with Governor Wilson in the White House, as he represents in this State what Governor Wilson will represent in the nation.

"Every worker has reported a preponderance of Lee sentiment, and thus it is wise to stand by the man who the people want.

"Personally, I am fond of Senator Lee, and I am also fond of the other Democrats whose names are mentioned for the short term. But this is not the time to play personal politics. As organization and regular Democrats we should support the candiate wanted by the people, and my observations convince me that they want Lee. He is a regular. true and loyal Democrat. As Democrats we will make our fight for Lee and not against any candidate. Personalities will not be injected in the contest."

Personal ❋ ❋ ❋ ❋ and Social

A FLORIDA WINTER

Flowers Blooming in Chestertown Gardens—A Roe Shad Caught and Crabs Are Seen.

A resident of Kent says he thought of visiting the South about this time, but since Florida had visited him he preferred to stay home! The weather has surely been ideal.

Mrs. Geo. B. McWhorter has a large bush of yellow jessamine in full bloom, and it is a beauty. Others about town have rose buds which are trying hard to burst out into bloom. Hydrangeas out of doors are bursting out into leaf and candy tuft has been in bloom all winter.

Dandelions usually wait until the chirp of the spring birds is heard in the balmy month of May before they modestly show their yellow heads above the greensward. And, in this connection, it may also be mentioned that hard-shell crabs do not usually put themselves in the way of grasping nets wielded by human hands until the iceman is in the midst of the heaviest business of the year.

Dandelions and crabs adopted these schedules at a general conference of all of Nature's products, said to have been held in the Garden of Eden the day before the formation of Adam. And all through the thousands of years that have elapsed since then they have stuck rigidly to these schedules, with few exceptions. The present year has been honored by one of the exceptions.

The spring-like—even at times summer-like—weather of the last month has proved attractive to both dandelions and crabs, and both were discovered. True, both were a little timid, but they came out.

The warm spell has been general all over the Eastern section of the country. The normal temperature for the month of January is 34 degrees, while the average temperature so far this month has been 43 degrees, 9 degrees above normal. Only three days this month has the average temperature been as low as the normal.

On Monday the highest temperature reached was 52 degrees—at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

From Overbrook, three miles from Lewes, Del., comes the report that Daniel Thomas, of that place, as the result of the warm weather that has been experienced, has strawberry vines in full bloom. and on some of the vines there there are berries almost as large as the end of the little finger.

FAIRLEE NOTES.

At this writing the weather is balmy. Not any need of going to Florida if this weather continues.

St. Paul's Church will in the very near future give one of their grand entertainments in our hall here.

Mr. John F. Rice, in the State Sanitarium, we are sorry to report is not improving to any extent.

Mr. Walter F. Sparks has placed his saw-mill in Mr. Frank W. Jarrell's woods, near here, and is sawing some very fine lumber.

Mr. T. H. M. Bramble is in Baltimore for a while under medical treatment. We hope for his speedy recovery and return to his lucrative business.

A large congregation was present last Sunday morning in Salem Church to greet Rev. W. E. Habbard, a former pastor, who preached a fine sermon.

The young men of our community and adjacent neighborhood will entertain in Fairlee Hall Thursday evening, Jan. 30th. It will be a pleasant social event.

Mrs. H. Stockton Startt and Miss Blanche Smyth entertained quite a number of their friends in Fairlee Hall last Tuesday evening very pleasantly. Miss Smyth has just returned from the South.

The special meeting of the Grange last Wednesday evening was well attended, very entertaining and a social and an intellectual treat. "The Garner," edited by Miss Mary Nicholson, was exceptionally fine.

Mr. John Kilbourn, Baltimore, is visiting his brother, Thomas B. Kilbourn, Fairlee, and his son, Wallace, with Kilbourn & Bramble. He will remain for a while and substitute in the store while his brother takes a trip to Harrisburg, Pa., and other cities in the North.

St. James' Church will hold one of their excellent suppers in our town hall next Tuesday evening. Mr. Conlyn Noland, by request, read his paper on "How to Keep the Boys and Girls on the Farm." It was an excellent paper and showed much thought in its preparation.

Summary of events in our town in the next few days: Entertainment Calendar Club, Salem Church, Jan. 31. St. James supper, next Tuesday evening. Young Men's reception, Jan. 30. St. Paul's entertainment, very soon. All of these events to be held in Fairlee Hall. Now, let us help one another.

Our Calendar Club will give a fine entertainment in Fairlee Hall next Friday evening, January 31, 1913. Mr. L. D. Northam, Broad Neck, will take part in the entertainment, which alone will assure the success of the Calendar Club, which is a great auxiliary of our village church. See advertisement.

Mr. George C. Lee, one of our popular young men, was married last Wednesday morning to Miss Helen Kerr, a bright and intelligent young lady of Rock Hall. After a short trip they will occupy their pretty home in the village, where the groom is engaged as a builder, being a fine mechanic. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Lee.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

Mrs. Elias T. Othoson, after an absence of a number of months from indisposition and an operation in a Baltimore hospital, attended divine service last Sunday morning in the M. P. Church. Her numerous friends were delighted to see her in her accustomed place again, where she so much loves to be.

At a business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the M. P. Church, held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Urie on Wednesday evening, Miss Annie Weer president, among other things for the good of said society, it was decided to hold a pie and box social in Weer's Hall on Friday evening, Jan. 31. If the date named be stormy, with rain or snow, the social will be held on Saturday evening, Feb. 1. Everybody most cordially invited. Be sure and come and help the young Endeavor Society in a most worthy cause. A delightfully social time is assured.
