LOCAL NOTES

PASTOR MCCANN, of Pomona, not only can help a parishioner out in picking peaches but this week he found Mr. Ralph Barnett a man short so he went to work and shaved a customer. The parson is a good preacher and an excellent pastor, too.

Capt. Wm. H. Capel presented to the NEWS Thursday a fine herring caught in Chester river above the bridge.

Wm. Malin is building an up-to-date boat house for Capt. Robert Calder. It will be launched in a few days.

THE parsonage at St. James Church was "pounded" Monday night by the congregation and the larder was left filled with good things. Rev. G. A. Morris and wife opened the door to the the "pounders" and gave them a warm welcome.

THE St. Paul Domestic Club are preparing to give an entertainment at Fairlee soon. Date, etc., will be announced next week.

THE road Engineer for Queen Anne's county is preparing to build a new road under the State aid or Shoemaker Road law near Crumpton. The road commences at the Causeway and extends to the cemetery.

Mr. Tucker's hen roast, was robbed of five hens Sunday night. The five heads were left behind.

THE Vickers property in Broad Neck has been purchased of Wm. Glenn by Mrs. Bertha E. Bennett.

POLK T. BRAMBLE, of Baltimore, has purchased from Mr. James T. Anthony a five-acre tract immediately on the state road near Chester river bridge. It is understood Mr. Bramble will build a home for himself in the spring.

THE annual statement of the Kent Building & Loan Company is published in this issue. The company now has assets exceeding $88,000, and retired the last series of installment stock at $104 25, which is a splendid showing.

OLIVER MILLER caught two roe shad near Tolchester this week.

AT the annual share holders meeting of the Kent Building & Loan Company, held Monday night Messrs. M. A. Toulson, Thomes S. Bordley and Charles S. Smith were re-elected directors for three years; and Mr. Charles N. Satterfield was elected a member of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Mr. Thomas H. Topping.

ELWOOD BAKER'S paint shop took fire Tuesday evening but was saved by the Volunteer Fire Department. The shop is located near the railroad and it is supposed a spark from the locomotive set fire to the roof as a hole was discovered burned in the roof. The loss is covered by insurance with Jos. N. Wheatley & Co., and J. Arthur Bradley.

IT is said that George Sutton near Black's has a field full of lambs!

AN entertainment of refinement and pleasure will be given in Firemen's Hall Tuesday, February 11. Full particulars next week.

HARRY RUST has rented a large marsh on Morgan Creek and will go into the trapping business on a large scale. He has had a small house built on wheels and will move it around to suit his fancy. Mr. Herbert White will assist him. Mr. George Gardner is another one of Chestertown's leading trappers.

D. LANDRETH SEED COMPANY have issued a fine catalog. This is a reliable house and persons interested should write to them for their catalog.

THE price of eggs dropped this week. Abe Cohen at Sandy Bottom offers 2 cents per dozen above market price on Wednesday.

THE executive council of the Modern Woodmen of America decided Tuesday not to put into force the new schedule of rates authorized at the head camp meeting in Chicago, but will let the head, which meets in 1914, pass on the matter. The council's decision will be effective regardless of what disposition the Illinois Supreme Court may make of the injunction, which now restrains the society from enforcing the increase.

RAYMOND NEWCOMB, of Baltimore, formely of Kent Co. met with a very painfull accident Thursday evening when a gun shell went off blowing off his first and second fingers, bursting the thumb aud making a hole in the palm of his hand. He is at the Mercy Hospital and is doing as well as can be expected.

A Serious Fall.—In attempting to escape from his nurse, Dr. John C. Harris, who had been quite ill at his home, 733 West Lexington street, for several weeks, Thursday morning fell fram the first story window to the cellerway sustaining severe cuts and bruises.

He was found by Patrolmen Rasris of the Western district, and carried into the house. Dr Harris was weak, but thought he was well enough to leave his room. When he attempted to go out he found that the door had been locked. He raised the window and started to climb through. His hold weakned and he fell. Dr Harris is a brother of Hon. James S. Harris, of Kent county.
