FARMERS' MEETING.

Tomato Growers Meet at Still Pond and Hear Reports From Various Parts of Kent—No Contracts Signed—Far Apart

A large number of farmers met at Still Pond last Saturday and discussed tomato contracts. Mr. Harry Davis was chairman of the meeting.

Mr. Edward Hepbron, of Still Pond, station, reported that he had seen the farmers and had agreed that they would abide by what the meeting did, relating to price per ton.

Rev. S. S. Hepbron said he had received word from Mr. T. E. W. Crew, of Broad Neck, that they were standing firm with 500 acres signed to abide by what the meeting did in regards to price, etc.

The chairman, Mr. Davis, reported that he had received signatures for 132 acres around Turner's Creek, not to grow for a less price than last year.

The secretary reported that he and Mr. George Sutton had seen most of the farmers that grew for Black and over one half of them had agreed not to grow for a less price than last year. Some others would grow for any reasonable price, and others who wanted all they could get, but would not take any part in holding out.

Mr. John Redmile reported around Kennedyville, most of the farmers had signed not to grow for a less price than last year and with the exception of a few farmers who would not sign.

Mr. B. F. Rash, that around Worton they had agreed to abide by what the growers around Buck Neck did.

Mr. William Clendaniel said he had seen the farmers around Kennedyville, and with a few exceptions, they would not grow for a less price than last year. He said everything else seemed to be controlled by a trust, why not the farmers combine not to grow tomatoes for less.

Mr. Robert R. Hill said he had seen most of the farmers that grew for Shallcross wharf, and that they would not contract for a less price than last year.

Mr. Wolf, of Galena, said around Galena, the farmers had not contracted, and would not do so for a less price than last year.

Rev. S. S. Hepbron made the following motion: "That after hearing the report of the Committee, it is the sentiment of the meeting that the farmers hereby agree not to grow tomatoes for a less price than last year, $10 per ton." The motion was unanimously adopted.

Mr. John N. Bennett by request then made the following motion: "That the prevailing price of last year for the picking of tomatoes (which was 2 cents per basket) be the price paid this year." This was also unanimously approved.

Mrs. B. F. Rash read a clipping from one of the county papers of the last meeting, and asked that correction be made, where it was reported he had said he would rather grow tomatoes for $2 less per ton for any one than Mr. Carr. He said he was misunderstood as he meant he would rather grow for the water delivery than for a local cannery. Mr. Rasin said Mr. Carr was a very nice man, and would just as leave grow tomatoes for him as any other local canner, but for the water you did not have to be so careful in picking your tomatoes just so.

Mr. Arthur Harris said Mr. Rash was wrong, that the farmer who grew for the water should receive as much as the grower for the local canner, as the basket was bigger, and he personally knew of one canner who had 68 baskets made and used them until the farmers caught on.

Mrs. Arthur Harris made a stirring address saying the farmer ought to have demanded $12 per ton instead of $10 and if it did not come this year, why demand it next. It was said to be the best address of the meeting.

Some of the farmers thought it would be a good thing not to grow tomatoes this year so the canners would then know the sentiment of the farmer.

The secretary was authorized to write to Mr. H. V. Gould, Church Hill pledging our support to the farmers of our sister county and wishing them success.

The meeting then adjourned to meet again Saturday, March 8, at 1 p. m.

Banquet At Betterton.

The Musical and Literary Club, of Betterton, gave its banquet at Owen's Cottage Feb. 21, 1913. The scene represented to the members of its heavy laden table and their friends was one of beauty and the ambition of the Club "Sociability." About forty-nine persons partook of the following menu:

Sea Food — Raw Oysters
Creamed Oysters on Toast — Fried Oysters
Fowl
Roast Turkey
Meats
Roast Ham
Salads
Chicken Salad — Potato Salad
Tomato Salad with Mayonnaise Dressing
Bread — Jellies
Cold Slaw — Olives
Pickles — Celery
Crackers and Cheese
Maryland Biscuits
Fruit — Nuts
Coffee — Ice Cream

Mr. J. H. Gooding, president of the Club, was an ideal toast-master, his voice penetrating every part of the long dining hall.

The Following is a brief synopsis of Mr. Wm. H. Kelley's response to the toast "Our Club:" Our Musical and Literary Club from its small beginning until the present time has made great progress as is fully evidenced by this splendid company assembled here tonight to join with us in the present festivities. It is a pleasure to me to be present at the first banquet of our Club and I hope it is the first of a long line of similiar gatherings to follow. Our club has started a good work, for excepting the work of the church, nothing contributes more to the development of a community than a growing acquaintance with an indulgence in music and literature. It has been said there can be too much of a good thing, but it is difficult to believe that anyone can hear too much of good music or to have too great an acquaintance with good literature. The great paintings, the inspired musical compositions and literature that educates and elevates us are ours for the asking, and if our club helps us to add but slightly to our knowledge of these great uplifting forces, we shall deserve the well wishes of our people."

Mr. Harry Willis responded to Toast "Good Citizenship." "He stated that to become good citizens was one of the most important questions occupying the minds of the people of this nation."

Miss Hurlock, "The Advantages of Country Schools."
Mrs. Ernest D. Briscoe, "The Advantages of City Schools."
Mrs. Thos. S. Silcox, "Art."
Mr. Chas. H. Brice, "Betterton as a Summer Resort."
Mrs. Chas. H. Brice, "Music."
Miss Irene Crownhart, "Beauties of the Chesapeake Bay."
Mr. Louis Sykes, "Food of the Chesapeake Bay."
Miss Lillie Crownhart, "Storm of the Chesapeake Bay."
Mrs. Will Owens, "The Town of Betterton."
Mr. Will Owens, "The Laws of Betterton and their Proper Enforcement."
Mrs. William Crew, "Comparison of Baltimore with Betterton."
Mr. Ernest D. Briscoe, "Farming in January, February and March'
Mr. Raymond Herbert, "Experience on Chesapeake Bay."
Mr. Rae Crew, "Experience in a storm on the Chesapeak Bay."
Mr. William Crew, "Our Banquet."

The toasts were interesting and instructive, reflecting credit upon the Club in its Literary department.

An elaborate program was givin in the reception hall. Recitation, solos-vocal and instrumental and an interesting dialogue was given by four young lady members of the club.

The members present were:

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland held on Wednesday, February 19, 1913, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved That by the death of ALDAY CLEMENTS, Kent county loses and mourns one of its most upright, generous and public-spirited citizens. His private and public life as well as his private honor were pure and stainless; his business career honorable and above reproach. We offer to his bereaved family our sorrowful grief over the desolation which has come into their lives and express the hope that they will find consolation in the fact that as husband, father and citizen he was worthy the emulation of all.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in one of the county papers and a copy sent to the bereaved family.

The Spring Presents the Best Time to Buy Your Home or an Investment in Land.

I have 30 Valuable Farms in Kent alone, which can be bought at prices that will make these propositions superior to anything in which you could invest for a sure, steady investment.

These farms are for sale—not put up because they are worthless—but because the owners, for reasons of health, or too much land to till, or wanting a smaller farm, or too much in debt, are in a measure compelled to sell.

The list I can submit to you is the result of careful investigation, and contains tracts of land that will prove a profitable investment for your Funds.

The proportion of wise investments is greater in Real Estate than in any other line of investment.
