Closing Out

¶ We have decided that we will not have sufficient room to handle any other shoes in "The Men's Store" except the famous "Walk-Over" Shoes, and in order to make more space for our growing Ready-to Wear Clothing, we intend to utilize our shoe department—and we must get rid of all these shoes.

We, Therefore, Offer the Following Absolutely REGARDLESS OF COST

All Shoes other than the "Walk-Over" of this season and the "Endicott-Johnson" of this season. These two lines we will be obliged to carry the entire year round, but we will close out all others. Now is the time to buy shoes—and good shoes—very cheap. Some of our best grades and a great many of the "Walk-Over" and "Regal" Shoes will be included in this sale. See our big side window and you will realize what tremendous bargains they really are. It will pay you to see them.

¶ Pay a call early, so that you may get a good selection before the stock is broken in sizes and styles. Low shoes and high, button and lace, tan and black, and patent leather will all go REGARDLESS OF COST.

LOCAL NOTES

THE J. B. Crowding farm, near Still Pond, has been sold by the Kent Land Co. to Mr. Lewin Usilton, of Brooklyn, son of Mr. L. Jeff. Usilton.

ONE of the slickest locks on the market is now for sale by Mr. Frank Lambert, now employed by Duyer Bros. It requires no key and works by combination.

THE Indiantown farm, on Chester river, which was sold on Tuesday at public sale by E. H. Brown, assignee, was purchased by E. B. Emory of B. for the sum of $55 50 per acre.

JAMES T. BRIGHT, attorney for R. E. C. Lowe, mortgagee, sold the Bryan farm, near Centreville, on Tuesday, at public sale, Mr. R. E. C. Lowe becoming the purchaser at $56 per acre.

A CONTRACT has been made with Duyer Bros. by R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., to erect a residence on his lot on Front street recently purchased from Mr. F. V. Simpers. It will be ready for occupancy in the fall.

HERMAN BRAMBLE, living near Lankford, evidently understands the culture of strawberries. He has as fine berries as are grown in Kent. Fifteen large, ripe berries were gathered from one vine, leaving eighty-six (86) green ones on the same vine. Who can beat this?

SALVA, a new preparation for keeping down dust on roads, has been tried on a small part of Chestertown's new street. It was given the town by Mr. Harry Thomas, son of the late Dr. S. Thomas, and is much cheaper than oil. The commissioners will give an order as soon as it has been proven successful.

THE management of the Voshell House changed hands Sunday, June 1. George E. Lambert succeeds J. E. Ferguson. Mr. Ferguson is now residing in the Lambert house, on Queen street, and Mr. Lambert and mother are at home in the Voshell house. Simon Evans remains as the handy man.

COLLECTOR STONE has given his decision that rowboats, canoes and other small craft must carry lanterns and be ready to show them at all times from sundown to sunup, no matter where they go. He states that electric flash-lanterns meet the requirements, provided they are in good condition and will flash without difficulty.

THE automobile ranks have been augmented by adding Mr. Chas. Nickerson. He has a Ford. In speaking of autos, the Enterprise says:

"The editor has been a victim for some weeks of the prevailing epidemic—a feverish desire to own an automobile. He has had under consideration several well-known makes, the possible selection narrowing down to two, namely, a 'Ford' and a 'can't afford.' He has finally decided that the latter is the one he will have to take. Agents, therefore, will take due notice and govern themselves accordingly."

Why worry, friend Russell, you've selected the best make. You'll not have any punctures, blow-outs, nor turtle-turns. You'll be free from taxes, heart-ache and sores and ride with your friends to run your chores.

THE Smith Bros, Edesville, have purchased a 1913 Maxwell automobile, five passenger, from J. H. Sides. Conductor John D. Welch has bought a new four-passenger Detroiter from J. W. Russell, agent.

HARVEST will be here about June 20.

THE prospect is for good prices for potatoes. The acres in Kent look fine.

AN accident to the Joppa from Rock Hall last Saturday caused a long delay to the passengers. A tug towed her to Baltimore. The Joppa arived at this wharf at 10 P. M.

ISAAC BROWN has ripe stringed beans in his S. Vannort garden. Isaac is hard to beat.

DE RUE BROS. MINSTRELS are booked to show in the new Lyceum Theatre (formerly Stam's Hall) on Saturday, June 21st.
