SHOEING!

AT the earnest request of a number of our fellow craftsmen we agree for reasons which seemed to us good and sufficent to raise the price of plain shoeing on September 1, 1913, to $1.00 per set.

Some of our fellows, however, felt that for good reasons they wished to again make the price 75c per set, and we hereby notify the public that on and after November 18, 1913, the price of plain shoeing in our shops will be

75c Per Set

We solicit a continuance of your patronage, promising to give the best service we can and not keep you waiting long to get your work.

THE WEEK IN TOWN

Every Night Filled With Splendid Entertainments and All Were For Worthy Purposes.

Firemen's Hall was well filled Monday night with an appreciative audience the occasin being a recital for the benefit of Mr. Robert R, Huey's Sunday School class of young men. The performers were Miss Bertha M. Noble, a Caroline native, now of Philadelphia, reader, and Miss Leah A. Hudson, soprano, of Buffalo. Miss Noble is of attractive appearance, easy manner and splendid delivery. She catches her audience at the start and continues to hold their undivided attention. Her pathetic selection reached every heart while her amusing stories were irresistible. Miss Hudson has a sweet contralto voice which showed off beautiful in "My Laddie" and "Sympathy." Miss Clara Usilton accompained her on piano.

Tuesday was the opening night of the big Bazaar and Entertainment for benefit of Emergency Hospital and Old People's Home. The program included violin solo by Mr. Kemp Bordley; play by ten little girls arranged by Misses Annie Copper and Anna Smyth; instrumental solo by Miss Helen Boyd and song by Sig G. Goldberine. This entertainment was enjoyed by a fair audience.

Wednesday evening the combined dramatic talent of I. U. P. E. and Lynch M. P. churches repeated their play "His Wife's Relations," a fine musical comedy. The Stavely boys can't be beat. This company very kindly consented to come to Chestertown for the benefit of the cause entirely, and a crowded house greeted them. Every character was just grand and we who know them could enjoy it more. "Miss Lucy," whom everyone admires, was at home in her part as was all the others. We can recommend this company anywhere. The full caste was as follows:

Monologue.....A. H. Stavely
A musical comedy entitled
"MY WIFE'S RELATIONS."
—CAST—
Norton Selma.....The Husband
William Krusen.
Henrietta Selma.....The Wife
Miss Pauline Copper.
Ted Tyrel (in love).....Frank H. Mann
Cousin Emma (the object of his his love).....
Mrs. Carroll Lolier
Uncle Dobson (a relation)....A. Wroth Stavely
Katie (the maid).....Mrs. E. C. Bowers
Aunt Patience (another relation.....
Miss Margaret Harper
Aunt Charity (still another)..Miss Jessie Copper
Cousin Hector (a loving soldier man).....
A. Hanson Stavely
Mrs. Franklin (the sister in disguise).....
Mrs. Lee Jobner
Character Song—Smiles—Mrs. E. C. Bowers, R. W. Stavely, A. H. Stavely.
Vaudeville Sketches.....The Stavely Boys
Piano Accompanist.....Mrs. A. N. Stavely

A fair audience was present Tuesday evening in Christ M. P. Church to hear Karl Lehmann, a renowned speaker for Christian Endeavor, of Colorado. He is a wonderful speaker, alive with enthusiasm, eloquent and interesting. After the address an enjoyable sociable was held in the lecture room at which block ice cream and cake was served. Miss Mayme Thompson, president of the local society, and her noble and willing band of helpers, are to be congratulated upon the splendid program arranged.

Thursday evening a sumptuous supper was served under the excellent management of Mrs. James Hatcherson with a corps of willing helpers. The menu included 11 fat turkeys, oysters, salads, celery, biscuits, rolls, etc., which was enjoyed by over 150 persons.

A feature of the Relief's entertainments was the Bazaar which turned in a fine sum of money. The candy table was presided over by Miss Rebecca McFeely; apron booth by Miss Gussie Cannon; fancy booth by Miss Minnie Hudson; cake booth by Mrs. Wm. Elliott; ice-cream, Mrs. W. B. Copper. Each of these ladies had a large cooperating force which made the whole affair a remarkable success in a financial and social way.

Another important event took place Thursday evening in the opening of the new lodge rooms of the Masonic order, Chestertown. These quarters are located on the third floor of the Lyceum Building and are handsome and elaborate. Wm. L. Fowler decorated the walls in expert style while the furniture, carpets and fixtures are of refined taste and exquisite beauty. New features have been added which will surprise and delight every member. After special communication at which Mr. Spielburger was given the first degree, refreshments were served.

KENNEDYVILLE HEALTH MEETING.

Kennedyville for several years in succession has had several cases of Typhoid fever. The Grange became interested and wrote the State Board of health and this was followed by an Inspector being sent and the sanitary condition of the town was reported to the State Board of Health. After a careful examination of the report Dr. Fulton of the State Board sent his reply. A town meeting was called and the citizens with those who our land adjoins were present. Mr. Geo. R Rasin, Worthy Master of the Grange, presided, and the report of Dr. Fulton was read by the Secretary. Everyone was interested and all were in favor of stamping out Typhoid or any other fever.

After the report was read Dr. Jones, the County Health Officer, who had been invited to attend the meeting gave a very interesting talk. Dr. Urie also was present and told how conditions might be improved. The citizens are willing and are doing their individual part in trying to secure better sanitary conditions. Mr. Richard Lockwood, who owns the farm adjoining the milk station and the cannery, was present with us and was in every way willing to do his part. Mr. James Weer said the owners of the milk station were willing to do, and last but not least, the County Officials in draining the road in our town did work that has done more harm than good. It does not drain the road and prevents property owners from draining their property. Committees were appointed to look after the work, after which the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

THE fourth death occured this week in Johnson Town, in Quaker Neck. Two new cases of diphtheria reported there Tuesday.

Something New.—Not since the days of Washington Hudgins has Old Kriss ever arrived in Chestertown. But on December 23rd, on the morning train, he will arrive, loaded with good things for the dear little children. Children, tell your father and mother about it—tell your school companions—get them all to come. The largest body of children ever exhibited in Chestertown will be presented to you that day.

Will of Robt. N. C. Ayres.—The will of the late R. N. C. Ayres, of Rock Hall, was presented to the Orphans' Court last Tuesday. It makes Mr. Louis C. Ayres the executor. It leaves to his niece, Bessie Davis, wife of William G. Davis, all his personalty after debts are paid, and also leaves to her during her life two lots of land adjoining Chas. A. Shoemaker and Wm. M. Miller; after her death to go to her legal heirs. To his niece, Rosa B. Ayres, and nephew, Robert Ayres, children of Louis C. Ayres, is left two lots of land near Swan Creek during their life, and at their death going to their legal heirs. The will was made April 13, 1912, and was witnessed by Dr. W. O. Selby and Mr. T. Benjamin Durding.

Traction Engine Owners Arrested.—Several owners of traction engines have been arrested recently for running on the State roads. Messrs. J. H. Clendaniel, Hill Beaston and F. Kinsey are among the owners who will have a hearing on Monday at Kennedyville and Chestertown. S. Scott Beck, Esq., will represent the traction engine owners and J. D. Urie, Esq., will represent the State. The tie-up of the traction engines is placing many Kent farmers in a very embarrassing position now, as a number have sold their corn and cannot get it shelled. It is hoped that some arrangement can be made by which the traction engines can get around.

New Autos.—Mr. Merrick Clements has purchased a beautiful 6-cylinder, 40-horse power Buick car, with seating capacity for five persons. Mr. Clements made his wife a Christmas present of this automobile.

Mr. Thomas G. Wroth has purchased a new, up-to-date model, Paige-Detroit, automobile of the very latest pattern from Mr. Meeteer Crouch. The machine develops 36 horsepower and has an electric starter and electric lights. It is a beauty.

Mr. R. G. Nicholson has replaced his Ford car with a new 35 horsepower Maxwell bought of J. H. Sides. This machine has all the very latest improvements, such as electric starter, electric lights, etc.

DEATHS.

Mr. Thomas J. Marsden, who was reported last week as being critically ill in Marine Hospital, Baltimore, succumbed to paralysis and was buried Friday in Baltimore. Marsden was a well known character in Kent. He was brought up on the farm of the late Gilbert Wood, in Morgnec.

Rev. Jacob E. Nicholson died Sunday after a protracted illness at the home of his daughter, in Waverly. He is a retired minister of the Methodist Protestant Church, and is one of the eldest clergymen of that church.

Rev. Mr. Nicholson formerly lived in Crumpton, and had done active itinerant service in this state. About two years ago, at the age of 67, his health failed and he took several trips but they were unavailing. He was an Odd Fellow for 40 years and was a member of the Maryland Conference for the same length of time.

The burial took place on Wednesday at Seaford, Del. He is survived by three sons and two daughters.

MR. MASSEY WINS AGAIN.

In the interstate corn contest in the Philadelphia Bourse, held by the Corn Exchange National Bank of Philadelphia, in which Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania and New Jersey competed G. D. Radebaugh, of Bynum, Md., won grand champion of the show.

For white corn in state—Joseph Massey, of Chestertown, won first.

Mixed Class—John Stevens, Rising Sun, first; W. Irving Walker, second; Bohemia Hall Farms, Earleville, third.

Boys' Class—George W. Radebaugh, first; Russell Galbreath, second.

Yellow Corn—A B. Twining, first; Oakland Farms, second; James R. Galbreath, third; James Clark, Ellicott City, fourth.

What's the matter with the big Massey corn raised by A. F. Huey and others? It should have been in these contests.

Do all your shopping possible at home and do it now. Kent stores are filled with good things.

THE Young Men's Club held an enjoyable meeting last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton C. Jones.
