LOCAL NOTES

The patrons of Brown's Wharf in Quaker Neck are much pleased with the management this year by Mr. Robert Walbert. The pear crop amounted to 17,000 baskets for which the farmers were paid 20 cents There were 80,000 baskets of Tomatoes shipped.

The prize grape grower in town is Mr. T. S. Bordley. He bagged 300 bunches and pulled his last bunch Sunday. They were delicious.

The Chestertown Grange will meet next Wednesday at 2.30 p. m. Business of vital importance will come up for consideration and all members are earnestly requested to attend.

A curiosity in the shape of an ear of corn was raised by Mr. Howard C Jones of Fairlee. Every grain has a husk on it. It is called Chinese corn.

A pleasant and successful meeting of the Woman's Federated Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. D. Bacchus on Wednesday afternoon, where sewing was done for the Red Cross Society. Another meeting will be held next Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, president of the club. All persons interested are urged to join in this good work for Europe's suffering ones.

W. E Deford, on the Crosby farm, has a fine field of corn. He has picked out a few ears and named them after well-known politicians.

The State road leading to Rock Hall is completed from Fairlee to Hatcherson's gate. Mr. Betts hope to finish his allotted mileage before Christmas. He has had weather made for road building!

The Peabedy recitals, announced in this paper a few weeks ago to be held by Mr. T. Kemp Bordley and Mr. H. L. Lemen, are assured. The first one will be held Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 26th. Mr. William G. Horn, baritone, and Miss Eleanor Chase, soprano, will be the singers of the evening, and we doubt if Chestertown has ever entertained two better singers. Mr. Fred. Huber, of the Peabody, was in town this week a guest of Mr. Bordley. The second entertainment will be held in December.

A meeting of the W. C. T. U. was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. W. Crew Thursday, October 29. A very interesting business program was on hand for the evening, including a report from the delegate, Miss Ida C. Crew; a solo by Mrs. Glenn, and a recitation by Miss Mary Richardson. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. Walter Fletcher Friday evening, December 4.

H. H. Beneman, Millington, has opened his big stock of fall wearing apparel for the whole family, complete in the newest style and patterns. Also comforts, blankets, trunks, dress suit cases, carpets, mattings, linoleums, rugs and furniture of all sorts upon which a saving of from twenty to thirty per cent. can be made. See adv.

The musical entertainment and supper and bazaar to be given by the ladies of Emmanuel P. E. Church on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 18th and 19th, promise to be among the leading social features of the fall and winter season Some of the best singers in the town will take part in the musical, and the supper and bazaar will be of a high standard.

The supper given by the Ladies' Aid of Still Pond M. E. Church held in Harper's Hall last Saturday evening was a decided success, realizing $83.00.

In Lofland & Culp's window Mr. Louis Price, tenant on one of Mr. James W. Chapman's fine farms, has a basket of white potatoes which are beauties. There are 45 in the basket.

Our good friend, Mr. Frank H. Greenwood, takes the palm for catching rock off Chester bridge He caught 4 beauties on Monday, one of which weighed 2¼ pounds, and on Tuesday he caught 4 more. Mr. Greenwood made the "boys" mouth water when he walked off with his prizes!

The wedding of Mr. Ralph Watson Shallcross and Miss Bertha Price is announced to take place in Still Pond M. E. Church, next Thursday evening, Nov. 12th, at 6 p. m. A reception will follow at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price, from 7 to 11.

Miss Elizabeth Russell has resigned as teacher of Broad Neck school and Miss Mary Rouse will succeed her.

Masquerade Party.—The "spooks" were out Saturday night, but the college boys took the "cake." They made quite an interesting parade and behaved themselves like gentlemen.

The Junior and Senior classes of the High School held a masquerade party in the auditorium of the High School on Hallow'een. The auditorium was prettiiy trimmed with evergreen and dogwood berries. Games of various kinds were enjoyed. Mr. Blades and Miss Stokes told fortunes. Colonial ladies, clowns, dominoes, Indians, soldier boys, negroes, red riding hoods, ballet dancers and others were represented at the party. Refreshments were served at 10 o'clock and the guests began to leave at quarter after eleven. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Creasy, Mr. and Mrs. Grimes and children, of Centreville; Miss Gooding, Miss Carroll, Miss Roberts, Miss Copper, Miss Smyth, Miss Davis, Miss Stuart, Miss Harley, Miss Urie, Miss Thomas, Miss Duyer, Mr. Blades and the members of the Junior and Senior classes.

The ladies of Chestertown Emmanuel Church will hold a musical with refreshments on Wednesday, Nov. 18 and supper on Thursday, Nov. 19. They are making extensive preparations for a big affair.

The October term of the Circuit Court adjourned late Friday.

The case of T. G. Wroth vs. Walter R. Kendall, a landlord and tenant case, was removed to Queen Anne's county.

C. W. Kibler & Son vs. Pennsylvania Railroad, for $81.57 for loss of grain in-transit, was settled in favor of former. W. W. Beck for railroad, H. H. and L. W Barroll for Kibler & Son.

A number of registration cases were then heard.

L. W. Barroll made a motion for a new trial in the Brown vs. Westcott case, which we noted last week. The new trial was refused. The court then adjourned.

SLEEPER SWALLOWS TEETH

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 2.—Ernest Fischer, aged 50, a well-known musician, swallowed his false teeth while asleep. Awakening in the morning he missed the artificial molars and searched for them in his room. Suddenly he felt a queer sensation in his stomach, then went to Polytechnic Hospital, Philadelphia, where the teeth were revealed in his abdomen by the X-ray. There will be an operation.

The races on Thursday were not largely attended owing to attractions elsewhere. The winners in the different classes were Happy J., Susie A., Poney Boy and Lady Thompson.

HAVE WE MADE IT CLEAR?

We sometimes wonder whether, in our advertising, we have made it perfectly clear to Chestertown men just what this store stands for?

Cheap, shoddy, questionable merchandise has about as much chance here as a snow-ball in the SAHARA, and we want you to realize that fact.

At $12.50, $15.00 and $18.00

we have brought together the most unusual offering of Men's and Young Men's Suits and Overcoats ever shown in the county.

Surplus stocks of big houses have made this possible, and it will pay you to see this line.

Made-to-Measure Suits and Overcoats, guaranteed to be better garments than you are now paying more for.

High Place On The .. Roll of Honor ..

It is with pleasure and commendable pride that we find the Kent County Savings Bank higher on the Roll of Honor than any other State Bank in the county.

The Roll of Honor of the State Banks and Trust Companies of Maryland is a table prepared by the Bank Commissioner from the reports of condition made to the State Banking Department. To secure a place on the Roll of Honor a Banking Institution must show surplus and undivided profits in excess of its capital stock—that is, assuming the capital at one hundred per cent. the surplus and profits must exceed that percentage. In other words, to be entitled to a place on the Roll of Honor an Institution must have, in the form of surplus and profits combined, an amount larger than its capital, and its numerical order on the Roll of Honor is based upon the percentage of this amount to its capital.

According to the last Reports of condition to the Bank Commissioner, there were in operation in the State one hundred and twenty State Banks and Trust Companies. Of these forty (or about 35 per cent,) are entitled to positions on the Roll.

The Kent County Savings Bank was ranked 12th with a percentage of 205.13. Its motto is "SAFETY BEYOND ALL ELSE."
