SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1914.

THE Kent County Grange has asked for an Agricultural School to be located at Kennedyville. A better place could not be found for a school of this character and the NEWS is heartily in favor of the plan.

The Federated Club of Chestertown is working hard toward getting a State road from Chestertown to Rock Hall and Chestertown. Interesting Committees with the State Road Commission will be published next week.

THE Baltimore Sun in speaking of Kent's representatives calls Senator Beck one of the vigorous men and Representative Howard Turner one of a type that commands consideration. Representative Shallcross is also making a good impression.

CIVIL SERVICE examination for stenographer and typewriter field service will be held at Baltimore Feb. 28th, 1914. The examination is open to all citizens of the United States. Persons wishing to take this examination should make application at once for Form 1424 of the Fourth Civil Service District, Washington, D. C.

THE action taken last Friday by the Directors and stockholders of the Dorchester County Fair Association in incorporating into its by-laws a section prohibiting the directors from granting or giving any privileges for gambling tables, games of chance or gambling devices of any kind, or for indecent, obscene or suggestive shows of any character, undoubtedly meets with the approval of every right-thinking man and woman.

Mr. Howard Turner, of Kent, presented the following resolution in the House and receives the commendation of all tax-payers:

Resolved, That the House of Delegates shall so manage its business during the session of 1914 that it shall not incur a greater expense than the sum of One Hundred and Fifteen Thousand ($115,000.00) Dollars, and that no more employees shall be placed on the pay roll except those already authorized by the report of the Committee on Organization who have not qualified as yet, until the fixed charges and possible expenses of the House shall be fixed by the committee to whom this resolution is referred.

This resolution was referred to the Committee on Rules.

THE Eastern Shore dinner given in Baltimore Wednesday night was a celebrated affair. Hon. James A. Pearce was one of the speakers and gave some interesting historical data. Among the Kent countians we note J. Henry Baker, J. Herman Ireland, Dr. C. Irvin Barwick, Harry Busick, J. W. Chapman, Jr., Walter R. Gale, L. W. Barroll; Wm. C. Holton, Wilmer P. Little, N. T. Meginniss, R. J. Nicholson, Dr. Horace W. Nicholson, C. W. Perkins, Henry O. Redue, R. Nelson Stevens, Hyland P. Stewart, Thos. H. Stavely, D. B. Stewart, Owen H. Smith, Robt. Venable, Arthur B. Wheatley, Rev. Peregrine Wroth.

THE Centreville Observer, in its issue of Saturday, called attention to the need of a bill regulating the ownership of dogs, as hundreds of dollars worth of lambs, sheep and valuable poultry have been destroyed during the past six months by worthless curs. It calls for a law providing for the "removal" of the cause of these ravages, and offers to co-operate with the farmers in any way possible in securing the desired legislation. This much needed law should not only apply to the Eastern Shore counties, but should be state-wide. Kent, like Queen Anne's, suffers the loss of hundreds of dollars worth of lambs, sheep and poultry during the year by worthless dogs. Our representatives' attention is called to this very important matter.

Broke His Leg.—While coming down stairs on Thursday morning, Mr. John C. Armstrong, proprietor of the Cantwell House, in Odessa, made a miss-step and fell, breaking his leg. Dr. D. W. Lewis was called in and later in the day took Mr. Armstrong to the hospital, where the exrays were used to locate the fracture.

LEGISLATIVE NEWS.

Kent county has control of both doors of the Senate Chamber. At the front door Mr. Albert Lewis, of Fairlee, had charge, while at the back door Mr. Robt. Johnson, of Golt's is in command. Inside we find Mr. Lionel Keyser chief engrossing clerk. Mr. Howard Turner had one appointment and has named Messrs. Walter Crew and Frank Meeks, each to serve one half the session. Mr. Robert Shallcross has named Mr. John Kelley, of Piney Neck, as his appointee. Miss Katie Howard, of Still Pend, has been named as one of the stenographers.

Delegate T. Van Clagett, of Prince George's county, introduced a bill designed to reorganize the system of the County Commissioners of his county with the view of saving $600 annually. His bill provides for the amendment of the act of 1912 so that the number of Commissioners may be reduced from five to three.

The bill, if enacted, would not affect the present members of the board, but would abolish the offices of two of them at the expiration of their terms. He is convinced that the affairs of the county could be conducted as well with a smaller board and that the saving of $600 a year in salaries justifies the proposed change.

Two other bills were introduced by Mr. Clagett, one providing that voters from other States who take up their residence in Prince George's county may make their declaration of intention to change their registration before justices of the peace instead of before the County Clerk, and the other allowing the use of the State roads to traction engines and thrashing machines.

State Senator Speicher, of Garrett, introduced his cigarette bill. It prohibits anyone from furnishing cigarettes to minors, "by sale, gift or otherwise." On conviction the guilty person is made subject to a fine of from $25 to $50 for the first offense and for each subsequent offense to a fine of from $100 to $300, together with imprisonment of 30 days to six months. If the minor on whom cigarettes may be found declines to state from whom he secured them he is liable to a fine of from $5 to $10 and to imprisonment if the fine is not paid.

Among the bills introduced was one by Senator Campbell that should please the advocates of equal rights for women. Under the present law a married woman cannot become an executrix or administratrix of an estate unless her husband joins in the bond. The Campbell bill releases her from this necessity; it permits her to give bond herself without any regard to the husband. The measure will virtually complete the legal freedom of women in Maryland short of the exercise of the ballot.

Senator W. W. Beck has introduced the anti soliciting whiskey bill which was defeated two years ago. Statements in city papers that he has introduced the Anti-Shipping Bill is erroneous.

S. Scott Beck, Esq., was in Annapolis this week and states that he saw Representative Claggett, of Prince George, who has introduced a bill allowing traction engines and machines to travel over State Roads. There will be a meeting in Annapolis the first week of February when all interested in this matter will have a hearing before the State Roads Committee of the House. The time will be made known to those interested.

Senator W. W. Beck was made Chairman of the Insurance committee and of the Elections committee, two very important positions. He is also named on the following committees: Amendments to the Constitution; Executive Nominations; Finance; Chesapeake Bay and its Tributaries; Judicial Proceedings; Printing; Revaluation and Assessment.

Representative Robert Shallcross gets on two important committees, viz., Chesapeake Bay and its Tributaries and Fish and Game.

Delegate Howard Turner is one of the Committee on Ways and Means, the most important committee in the House.

Speaker Trippe made appointments of employees as follows:

Chief page, Col. Thos. J. Ewell; assistant chief page, Roger O'Day; chief billroom clerk, Alfred Matthews; assistant billroom clerk, Thomas Larkins; secretary to Speaker, Daniel C. Joseph; messenger, Charles Weiss; messenger to the printer, William J. Mahoney, all of Baltimore city.

He also selected a stenographer and an assistant janitor, the names of whom he has not yet announced. The Speaker said:

"Now that I have completed my list I do not intend to make another appointment during my natural life."

Mr. Frank H. Meeks has a position at Annapolis as clerk to the committee on printed bills.

A Bill to repeal the Haman oyster law has been introduced in the Senate and will have strong supporters from the Eastern Shore counties.

The Legislature will have plenty opportunity to prove their worth from an economical point of view. The employment of so many employees does not have the approval of tax-payers and should be curtailed, but how to do it has not yet been solved—by Democrats or Republicans. We'll have to get the women to help do it.

SENATE VOTES TO SEAT LEE.

By a vote of 7 to 3 the Senate committee on Privileges and Elections last Saturday, voted to seat Blair Lee. Senator Kenyon voted with the Democrats and Senator Bradley, Southerland and Dillingham, Republicans, voted against Lee. The report in favor of Lee was made to the Senate Monday by Senator Kern, chairman of the Committee. The action of the committee means Mr. Lee will be seated as a member of the Senate to succeed Senator Jackson, to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Rayner.
