VOL. 76 — CHESTERTOWN, MD. SATURDAY, MAY 30, 1914 — NO 10

THE CHESTERTOWN BANK and THE GALENA BANK always mindful of the interest of its patrons, have decided to

Pay 4 Per Cent Interest on deposits in the Savings Department to take effect as of March 1, 1914.

We trust that our friends who are not doing business with us will appreciate this liberal offer and start an account with us.

We especially appeal to our friends up the county in and around Galena, who have a bank right at their door, and if they will stop and think of the advantage and the prestige it gives to the community, we feel that they will be glad to support the Institution, have you ever thought of it this way, consider it, and see if you will not agree with us that we have a right to ask you for your business.

Your purse strings will loosen as you pass our store and see the windows "crowded with bargains."

Let us suggest to you, Mr. Farmer, the early selection of your needs for this Spring. The time to make this selection is NOW, the place is HERE.

Note the prices—pick out the ones you like—and have them put aside for you until you are ready for them.

If you have never dealt with us, it is your fault; but if you deal with us just once and do not continue, it is our fault. So come in to see us and give us a chance.

We enjoy showing our goods just as much as you do seeing them, and we will see if we cannot show you some bargains.

We are yours for business.

A SAD DROWNING IN CHESTER RIVER

Cecil Robinson, Member of Graduating Class in Chestertown High School Drowned in Chester River While Bathing With A Chum.

Cecil Robinson, the 17-year old son of Mr. S. Frank Robinson, of Chestertown, was drowned off Chestertown in Chester river shortly after 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Cecil has been employed at the telegraph office here during the hours when not in school, and, in company with Mr. John F. Melvin, telegraph operator, started for a swim. Mr. Melvin stated to the NEWS man that they rowed across to the Queen Anne's shore and when but a short ways out they both jumped over for a swim. Cecil could swim a little and kept close to the boat. We had not been in the water long when Cecil called to me to come help him to get to the boat. He did not seem to be excited at all. "I went to him and telling him to place his hand on my shoulder, I started toward shore. Cecil soon began to spit water and let go his hold. I grabbed for him but he caught me first and we both went under. I managed to loosen his hold and quickly got in the boat hoping to save him by this means, but he seemed to shoot off from me like a fish and I never saw him anymore." Mr. Melvin was completely exhausted from the struggle and greatly lamented the sad affair.

The deceased was a fine young man, industrious and popular. He was in the graduating class at the Chestertown High School and looked forward with pleasure to his graduation and new duties at the depot afterwards. His father is employed at the Electric Light plant.

After an all night's search the body was recovered at 8 30 yesterday morning. The funeral will take place Sunday at 1 P. M., interment in Chester Cemetery, Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating. The bearers will be Messrs. Alvin Bailey, Chas. Ford, Norman Hirons, Alvin Coleman, Irving Sparks and Jewell Armstrong, members of his Sunday School Class.
