Drills

Superior Drills need no introduction in this locality. They are so very favorably known here that all we have to do is make mention of the fact that we sell them. Our latest styles are here, with all latest improvements. They are light draft, simple in change of quantity. Sample Drill, in both hoe and disc, set up.

Disc Harrow

Our new Harrow has the best oiling system ever seen on any disc harrow. It is easy to use and absolutely positive. Every farmer knows that most all disc harrow troubles are in the oiling. Holes are soon filled with dirt and boxes are soon cut out, making unnecessary expense. Come look this one over.

WEDDING NOTES.

The wedding of Miss Ida Skipper, daughter of the late Thomas Skipper, of near Chestertown, and Mr. Claude A. Parks of the firm of R. F. Parks & Son, took place on July 25th at Kennedyville by Rev. F. S. Cain, pastor of M. P. Church.

A very pretty wedding took place early Wednesday morning when Mr. Samuel Merritt Willis, of Betterton, Md., and Miss Clara Walbert, of Fairlee, Md., were married at the parsonage in Pomona by the Rev. O. B. Rice. The happy couple left for a few days visit to places of interest.

Miss Fannie R. Hazell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hazell, formerly of Kent, but now of Phila., and Mr. Frederick S. Frankenfield, of Philadelphia, were married Saturday, Aug. 22nd at 7 p. m. in Chestertown, at the M. P. parsonage by Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham.

THIEVES IN UPPER KENT

A gang of thieves have been operating in the upper part of Kent county during the last ten days. The railroad depot at Massey was the first place broken into. On Wednesday evening they visited the stable of Mr. R. A. Prettyman and stole his driving horse "Dewey," so well known in the vicinity, also his bridle and some feed. On the same night Dr. E. A. Scott was relieved of a saddle and bridle; Thursday night Mrs. Steele's boarding house was entered and everything good to eat taken, even the lunches for all the men, which were arranged over night and placed in the refrigerator. Friday night the front door of Pierce & Boltons store was broken in and several boxes of shirts, overalls, about sixty dozen eggs, and other things. Also the money from the cash register was stolen. They also broke into the ice cream saloon adjoining, which is kept by Mrs. Lillie Leur, and ate some of ice cream. The thieves are thought to be several who broke out of the Delaware Work House and are being closely followed. Their haunts in the forest were discovered Monday and their arrest is looked for any day.

WHEAT PRICES ARE MOVING SKYWARD

Starts To Jump As Soon As The Chamber of Commerce Opens—The Farmers Are Speculating—One Man Sold Crop, Bought It Back And Now Holds It.

No. 2 red Western wheat jumped another half cent when the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce opened Wednesday morning, bringing the price up to $1.14. The farmers are holding off for still higher prices.

Just before the opening of hostilities a leading member of the local exchange sold the entire crop of one nearby farmer at 84 cents, which looked to be a good figure as things then stood. Soon after war was declared the farmer and commission man got together and the farmer decided to buy his whole crop back again. He paid 91 cents a bushel, a loss of 7 cents, aside from commissions. It was then agreed that the wheat should be sold at $1. But when this figure was reached indications of a higher market were so strong that the farmer insisted upon holding for $1.05. At the $1.05 point he was certain that he would soon be able to get $1.10 and held off far that figure.

Now Holding For $1.20.

Tuesday the $1.10 mark was reached and passed by a half and quarter of a cent, and Wednesday morning the farmer wired in an order to hold the whole crop at $1.20.

It is authoritatively stated that a large majority of the wheat growers east of the Mississippi river are doing the same thing—holding for a high figure and when that is reached refusing to sell. When the farmer starts speculating, it is claimed no one can forecast just where he will stop.

Receipts have been comparatively light, only 64,232 bushels of Western wheat being received, and a very small quantity of Southern came in. Shipments were 86,227, showing a slight decrease in the stock on hand at the elevators. This was 2,718,101 bushels.

Yesterday, Friday, the price was up to $1 25 and still going up.

MR. BARROLL PREPARES FOR WAR!

Removes old Cannon from Chestertown to His Beautiful Home on Chester River.

Believing that in peace prepare fo war, Hope H. Barroll, Esq., has "fortified" his home on Chester river with a big cannon so that the enemy from Double Creek and Crumpton cannot reach his possessions. This is the cannon that stood for so many years in front of the old market house, then put in the school yard on Cross street on the site of Davis & Satterfield's plant. It was removed by Mr. John S. Vandegrift, a member of the old Kent Guards, and for 16 years has been buried in front of his barber shop and used as a hitching post.

It is stated that the cannon had its birth during the Revolutionary war.

Mr. Thomas S. Bordley says that a relative of his was killed many years ago when the cannon was used to fire a salute on a fourth of July.

Mr. Edward Robinson superintended the moving of it, assisted by seven colored men. It was a big job to drag it over to its new home, as it weighed about 2500 pounds, and a heavy storm started soon after the job was undertaken, and continued throughout.

It will be mounted on wheels, repainted and used to adorn the lawn at Mr Barroll's pretty home.

To Preach To Orders.—Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, will preach a special sermon to the fraternal orders of the town on Sunday morning, September 6. All members of all the orders are urged to bear the date in mind and cordially invited to meet at the lodge room at 9.45 and go from there to the church in a body where seats will be reserved for them. It is to be hoped there will be a large attendance.

Dixie D. is Sold.—Mr. Leonard Wilsen, of Millington, was in the NEWS office this week and says that Dixie D. has really been sold to Geo. Johnson the Middletown Hotel proprietor for $1350. Several other parties were anxious to buy Dixie D.
