Order of Publication

George Broadway, Colored, versus
All Unknown Heirs of Alexander Corse, Colored, deceased.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity. No. 1897.

THE object of the Bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of Alexander Corse, deceased.

The Bill states:

1. That Alexander Corse, colored, was in his lifetime, indebted unto your complainant, George Broadway, in the full sum and just sum of eighty dollars ($80.00) on an open account for personal attention, nursing, etc., from April 1st, 1911, to July 30th, 1911.

2. That on or about the 8th day of August, 1911 your complainant paid to W. Frank Jarrell, Administrator of William E. Jarrell, deceased, the sum of nine dollars and fifty seven cents ($9 57) being a balance due on a confessed judgment of the said William E. Jarrell against the said Alexander Corse for sixty dollars ($60.00) dated May 11th, 1905, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent county on the 13th day of May, 1905, as appears by the receipt of the said W. Frank Jarrell, Administrator as aforesaid filed herewith, and marked "Complainant's Exhibit No. 1."

3. That your complainant paid the State and County taxes on the property of the said Alexander Corse for the year 1912, which amounted to the sum of one dollar and ninety two cents ($1 92), as appears by the receipt of C. S. Hurlock, Treasurer, filed herewith and marked "Complainant's Exhibit No. 2." And he also paid the State and County taxes on said property for the year 1913, which amounted to the sum of one dollar and eighty five cents ($1 85) as appears by the receipt of the said C. S. Hurlock, Treasurer, filed herewith and marked "Complainant's Exhibit No 3."

4. That the said Alexander Corse, being so indebted as aforesaid, unto your Complainant and also unto divers other persons and being seized and possessed of real estate located in the second Election District of Kent County, State of Maryland, departed this life intestate on or about the 30th day of July, 1911.

5. That the said Alexander Corse, deceased, left no personal estate, and no letters of administratio have been granted on his estate by the Orphan's Court of Kent county, as appears by the certificate of the Register of Wills filed herewith, and marked "Complainant's Exhibit No. 4."

6. That the said Alexander Corse was never married and that it is unknown to your complainant whether or not he left surviving him any heirs at law, and that so far as your complainant knows or has been able to ascertain, the said Alexander Corse left surviving him no paternal or maternal ancestor, and no descendant of such ancestor or either of them, and no brothers or sisters and no descendants of such brothers or sisters

7. That the real estate of which the said Alexander Corse died seized and possessed consists of a lot of land, 77 feet front by 282 6 7 feet deep, situated in the Second Election District of Kent County aforesaid on the public road leading from Chestertown to Millington, improved by a small frame house, which was conveyed to the said Alexander Corse by Charles W. Jones and wife, by deed bearing date the 26th day of November, 1887, duly recorded among the Land Records of Kent County aforesaid, in Liber S. B No. 10 folio 85, etc.

8. That your complainant is advised that as there is no personal estate of the said Alexander Corse, deceased, for the payment of his debts, that your complainant and his other creditors are entitled to have their claims paid out of the real estate of the said Alexander Corse, deceased.

It is thereupon this 21st day of November, 1914, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent county in Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 28th day of December next, giving notice to the said All Unknown Heirs of Alexander Corse, colored, deceased, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the 14th day of January next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

NEARLY DROWNS

McShane of the Mt. Washington Squad Had Close Call in Icy Waters.

It leaked out this morning that C. McShane, a player on the Mount Washington football team, had a narrow escape from death by drowning last Saturday night near Love Point when the Hillmen eleven was returning in a launch from the game played with Washington at Chestertown, Md. It was about 10.30 o'clock p. m. when McShane was walking near the edge of the boat and, because of the plunging of the boat in the raging sea, lost his balance and went overboard. There were only a couple of the players on the deck at the time and they were on the other side of the boat. McShane had gone below after some medicine for one of the boys who was sick, and when he did not show up in a short while they called out for him, but received no answer. The boat was searched, but McShane was not to be found.

Knowing that the only means by which he could have left the boat was by going overboard, they lost no time in putting a high-powered searchlight into play on the cold waters. After circling the greater part of the water around the boat with the bright light they noticed a white shirt floating in the troubled waters. Calling out loudly at this visible object McShane raised an arm. Fortunately for him he is a swimmer of no mean note and he held his own in the battle with the waves until rescued.

JACK JOHNSON'S CAR

Jack Johnson's racing car, which two years ago was the talk of the country, has been purchased by B. C. Rosencrans, of the Old Sanitarium at Prairie du Chien, Wis. This monster racing car was built by the Thomas Flyer Co. The solid aluminum body was cast in one piece in England, no manufacturer in this country being able to make it at the time. Its mechanism has a six-cylinder engine, each of the cylinders being 5½ by 7 inches which have a capacity of 105 horse power and will send the machine over the ground at a speed of 90 miles an hour. All the parts of this wonderful speed demon were especially made for Jack Johnson and cost $14,000. The reckless career run by Johnson in connection with his famous restaurant in Chicago brought about the loss of his rights in this country as well as his wonderful machine, which was attached for a debt by the Heilleman Crewing Company of La Crosse.

WOULD HAVE HAD THE MONEY

Shah's Cold-Blooded Suggestion to English Monarch—Why the Prince Left White's Club.

An amusing story of particular interest at the moment is told concerning the duke of Sutherland by Lord Suffield in "My Memories." When the shah of Persia visited this country, the late King Edward, who was then prince of Wales, told him that the duke of Sutherland owned large estates in Scotland, as well as in England. The shah is alleged to have said: "He must be very rich. Of course, when you come to the throne you will—" And here he made an expressive gesture with his finger across his throat.

Lord Suffield was on close terms of intimacy with the late king, who, although he had the reputation of affability and geniality, drew very plainly the limits which guarded his dignity. On one occasion his late majesty was leaving White's club, and began to light a cigar in a room in which people did not usually smoke. Some officious official came up and said so, and the prince replied, quite pleasantly, that he was just going. The official retorted, rather rudely, that the club rules must be observed, no matter who the member was, and the prince, without another word, left the club, and withdrew his name next day. The Marlborough owes its existence to that little lapse or lack of tact on the part of one of White's people.
