Your purse strings

will loosen as you pass our store and see the windows "crowded with bargains."

Note the prices—pick out the ones you like—and have them put aside for you until you are ready for them.

If you have never dealt with us, it is your fault; but if you deal with us just once and do not continue, it is our fault, So come in to see us and give us a chance.

We enjoy showing our goods just as much as you do seeing them, and we will see if we cannot show you some bargains.

We are yours for business.

AN UNRIVALED SUCCESS

Cantata of Queen Esther Given By Chestertown Choral and Dramatic Association to Packed Audiences—Beautiful Costumes and Splendid Choral and Orchestral Music and Fine Acting.

The popular and beautiful cantata of Queen Esther was presented to splendid audiences two successive evenings in the Lyceum Theatre this week by the Chestertown Choral and Dramatic Association. The sale of seats for these performances was a record breaker. Every seat in the Lyceum had been sold the day preceding the presentation, and on the first night 35 persons were turned away because of not even standing room. A similar condition was experienced the second night.

Mr. William Walter Chapman, the director of the Choral Club, was the master hand who moulded and fashioned into harmonic form the beauty and majestic splendor of the evening s presentation. It was his judgment which selected the characters and his untiring perseverance and careful training which brought forth the best that was in them. His persistent "Don't be discouraged" put strength in the weak, and his keen, soft eye brought assurance to the timid ones.

Dr. Edward J. Clarke put the dramatic touch to the affair, and to him is due the credit for the fine acting. Mrs. Horace W. Reed, who has taken the part of Zeresh on other occasions, assisted very much in working out details. As to the performanse as a whole—the attendance, generous applause and undivided attention—speaks more loudly than pen can portray. Each character, from the lovely Queen and stately King to the grand chorus, all did their parts in a splendid manner and made a presentation which reflected credit on the leader, the club and the town. The orchestra was a pleasing feature of the event, and under Mr. Kemp Bordley's direction rendered excellent music. The cast of characters follows:

Caste of Characters

Esther, the Queen.....Mrs. David B. Ford
Ahasuerus, the King.....Arlington L. Sparks
Haman.....Thomas D. Bowers
Mordecai.....John Richards
Zeresh.....Miss Helen Boyd
Mordecai's Sister.....Miss Isabel Beck

Pianists, Miss Sue Dunbracco, Mrs. A. Parks Rasin, Mrs, Jesse Medders and Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman.
Guards, J. Hydie Thompson, Clarence Newcomb, Wm. Sachs and Colin Duyer.

The others not mentioned in the cast who took part are: James P. Parrott, Dr. A. S. Hall, Mrs. F. H. Russell, Mrs. A. M. Culp, Mrs. Horace Reed, Miss Maud Duyer, Mrs. Wm. H. McKee, Mrs. W. W. Chapman, Mrs A. Parks Rasin, Mrs. Jesse Medders, Miss Susie Dunbracco, Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, Miss Stephanie Ford, Miss Hallie Toulson, Miss Carolene McKee, Miss Flora Wheetley, Miss Edith Fallowfield, Mrs. Belle Smith, Mr Wm. Hague, Miss Celeste Stokes.

The orchestra which rendered splendid music throughout, was as follows.

Violin, T. Kemp Bordley, R. Hynson Rogers, Merritt Twilley, Bordie Cain; flute, Eben F. Perkins; cello, Prof. Pearson; trombone, Foster Cannan; cornet, Arthur Bacon; piano, Mrs. A. Parks Rasin, Mrs. Jesse Medders; Miss Sue Dunbracco and Mrs. W. W. Chapman.

Miss Mamye Thompson had charge of the most beautiful and attractive features. They were well drilled and costumed in keeping with the occasion and were as follows:

The rendering of the cantata this week makes its third presentation here, and we give below the characters which comprised the cast on each of these occasions. A sad feature occurred during the first presentation in that a death took place in Mr. R. K. Pippin's family, and Mr. Jack Bordley, who was King, could not serve and Mr. C. L. Snyder, of Centreville, took the part upon a day's notice, having played the character on another occasion.

The beautiful costumes were furnished by A. T. Jones & Son, Baltimore.

Notes Of The Event

The Choral Club on Wednesday evening presented diamond scarf pins to Messrs. W. W. Chapman and E. J. Clarke in appreciation of their service.

Miss Minnye Sachs, the pretty "sister of Mordecai," received a lovely boquet of roses from Richmond on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. D. B. Ford, Mrs. J. H. Sides, Misses Isabel Beck, Helen Boyd, little Miss Margaret Rasin, and others received lovely boquets.

The gross receipts of the entertainment were $398.

The Choral Club will meet next Monday evening in the High school at 7.30 p. m.

The following is a brief synopsis of the Oratorio:

Esther was born in Persia 500 years before Christ. Being an orphan from infancy she was adopted by her uncle Mordecai, who, recognizing her great natural beauty, trained her in the accomplishments of highest womanhood. She was chosen by the King of the Realm to be his wife and Queen. She did not disclose her nationality. Haman was premier and favorite of the King. Haman hated Mordecai because he would not worship him as the King commanded. He did not know Mordecai's relation to the Queen. To be revenged he obtained a decree for destroying all the Jews in the provinces. Mordecai discovers the plot and charges the Queen to petition the King for safety of his people, which she does at the peril of her life, on account of the law that no one shall go unto the King unbidden. The King hears her petition and Haman is defeated. Haman has prepared a gallows for Mordecai An attendant informs the King of the fact. The King orders Haman to be hanged from it and proclaims Mordecai premier in his stead. After this the people rejoice.
