SPECIALS NEXT WEEK

The NEWS has in hand an "Epitome of Billy Sunday," written by one who heard him recently from near Chestertown. It will appear next week, together with a full account of a Washington birthday reception at Mrs. William Medders'; also proceedings of literary society, &c., &c.

It is reported that Mr. Harry Todd is to be Mr. Barroll's candidate for Treasurer.

Mr. BARROLL could not get Mr. C. D. Wood to consent to run for Legislature and Mr. Jeff. Ayres has been selected.

THE new exemption tax law which relieves the tax-payer of furniture and household goods to the amount of $500 will mean a loss of $300,000 to the total assessment in Kent. This reduction in one man's taxes will have to be provided for by the larger tax-payers.

A LARGE DELEGATION from Betterton was in Chestertown on Tuesday last petitioning the Anti Boss to allow Mr. A. P. Emerson, of Betterton to run for Treasurer on the Barroll ticket. It is said The Boss frowned on the Emerson petition and said he had another man picked for that place, and as what The Boss says MUST be obeyed the Emerson people now know what a real nice Boss they bow down to.

THE Organization is slowly but surely making rapid headway in Kent. The PEOPLE are bringing forth candidates who have not the Boss' collars on them, nor do they with humiliation and shame step up and sign up a slavery paper. This week the NEWS takes pleasure in calling attention to the announcement of Mr. George Harry Cannan, the well known contractor and builder, as candidate for County Commissioner from the fourth district. Mr. Cannan is specially well-fitted for this office and the pledges he is receiving is an omen of sure victory.

LANDLORD OR TENANT

MESSRS. EDITORS—Gents: In your locals of last issue I read the following item: "A farmer of upper Kent says he does not keep any books, but feels satisfied when he gets his milk check for $200 and spends $60 for feed, that he is not losing any money." Will you kindly inform me through your columns if said farmer is a landlord or tenant, and oblige an EX-FARMER.

[He was a landlord.—EDS.]

THE OLD REED RIFLES

INWOOD, W. VA., Feb. 22, 1915.

Editors Kent News: I regret seeing the death of Mr. John Duyer, of the old Reed Rifles Company. I joined this company when it was first organized. E. F. Perkins was elected captain and R. A. Stam first lieutenant. If not asking too much, can you publish the "five or six" members that are still living? Also date of organization.

Yours truly, J. W. STRONG

[The living members of the old Reed Rifles are James W. Chapman, James W. Lambert, Alfred O. Benjamin, Milton Baker, Freeman Fiddis, William W. Copper. It was organized about 1856-57. —EDS.]

GRANGE NOTES.

The regular meeting of Still Pond Grange was held in their Grange Hall on Saturday afternoon. The labor question was thoroughly discussed and it was decided that if every farmer would employ one or more foreigners, that it would greatly relieve the labor problem. A number of the grangers had tried them and found them to be very satisfactory. The tomato situation was also discussed and it determined to turned the attention of the farmers to the growing of more corn this year and paying less attention to the growing of tomatoes so as not to overstock the market.

The seventh anniversary of Still Pond Grange will be held Saturday. The business meeting will take place as usual at 2-30, a basket supper will be served at 5 o'clock and the lecture hour will be opened to the public at 7 o'clock. Sister Lillie Kelley, the lecturer, has prepared an especially interesting program for the evening.

Kennedyville Grange, No. 244, held quite a large meeting on Monday night, February 22. Some time was spent in the discussion of business matters following which a program was given of subjects upon the life of George Washington as farm r, soldier and statesman. A humorous sketch was also presented. George and Martha Washington were also presented to the audience, and with their friends of "ye olden time," added much to the pleasure of the evening.

PUMPKINS ONE DOLLAR EACH IN WEST VIRGINIA

One Farmer Sells Two Thousand At One Dollar Each To Thirsty West Virginians.

The extreme methods that some people will employ in order to evade the stringent dry laws are exhibitions of genius and of an inventive nature.

According to a recent report in The Sun:

The latest move to outwit the Yost law has been the placing of a pint bottle of liquor in a pumpkin, which the Kentucky farmers haul here, charging $1 a pumpkin One farmer is said to have sold 2,000 pumpkins here in a single day. Mr. Blue, however, has a plot hatched for tomorrow night.

It is said a canvasser has been in the city securing orders for pints at $1 each. A constable is to station himself on Racoon Creek, about a half mile east, Saturday evening and be ready to catch any man who catches a pumpkin, which will be rolled down the Kentucky side.

EMERSON C. HARRINGTON

Emerson C. Harrington has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor. It was formally announced at a large meeting of representative Democrats from all sections of Dorchester county on last Tuesday. The meeting adopted a resolution endorsing Mr. Harrington and commended him to the people of the State. Mr. Harrington then was summoned and thanking the gathering for their action announced that he was in the fight to win.

Mr. Harrington said in his speech that it would be his unalterable purpose, if nominated and elected, to practice the most rigid economy and at the same time to seek the greatest efficiency for the several departments.

"Rochester Made"
Shoes for Women
Announcement
We have just taken the agency for
MANIHAN'S
"Rochester Made"
Shoes for Women
$3.50 to $4 00
This we did after careful consideration of the claims of the other standard lines of women shoes.
In our judgment Manihan's "Rochester Made" Shoes for Women offer our customers more for their money than can be found in any other line and we have looked them all over carefully.
We found that these shoes were a long way in advance when it came to fitting qualities for they are made on exclusive "foot-moulded" lasts—lasts which correctly reproduce the lines of the human foot to AN EXTENT NOT POSSESSED BY ORDINARY LASTS.
Come in and let us show you the splendid new stock which have just arrived.
