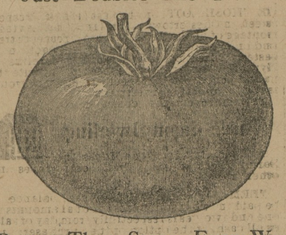
Bolgiano's "Greater Baltimore" Tomato

Just Doubles The Yield



Better Than Stone Ever Was

Bolgiano's "Greater Baltimore" Tomato just doubles the yield of many of the best Canning Tomatoes you have ever grown. Smooth, well-formed and deep from stem to blossom. Ripens evenly to the stem and is entirely free from ridges, cracks and blight. Unrivalled shipper, due to its solidity and firmness. Fruits in large clusters at every second joint. Joints are short and sturdy. Vigorous, compact, healthy vines. Brilliant red color, one of the handsomest tomatoes you have ever seen.

THE NEW STANDARD

"It is largely the EARLINESS and UNIFORMITY with which the plants bear a LARGE NUMBER of LARGE, SMOOTH FRUIT throughout the ripening season, that makes Bolgiano's 'Greater Baltimore' superior to Stone which has been the Standard canning variety for many years."

"During our Picking Season from July 25th to October 1st, Bolgiano's 'Greater Baltimore' yielded nearly 22 Tons Per Acre.
PROF. J. C. BOYLE,
Dept. Hort. Purdue University.
Lafayette, Indiana.

TREMENDOUS CROPS YEAR AFTER YEAR

---1913---

T. A. SNYDER PRESERVING CO., Chicago, writes: "Enter our order for Thousand (1,000) pounds 'Greater Baltimore' Tomato Seed. Bolgiano's 'Greater Baltimore' produced the largest, the most Tremendous Tomato Crop we have ever had in our lots at Fairmount, Marion and Tipton, Indiana."

---1914---

T. A. SNYDER PRESERVING CO., Chicago, writes: "We have been so busy with our Big Tomato Crops, we have neglected writing you in regard to Thousand Pound Bolgiano's 'Greater Baltimore' Seed for our 1915 crops.

"We feel satisfied you are going to have a lot of good-sized orders this year from the canners of Indiana, because they have seen our fields of 'Greater Baltimore' growing."

TWO TONS PER ACRE MORE

On January 30th, Mr. Wm. B. Plummer, of Kent Co., Md., writes as follows: "I have planted many varieties of Tomatoes, but have not found any other to do as well for me as the 'Greater Baltimore.' The past season we gathered over two tons per acre more than any other varieties. It is one of the best varieties that can be planted for canning purposes on account of firmness, standing drouth or wet weather. They are the first to ripen and continue firm and good-sized until frost."

THE HOME MERCHANT

The home merchant. Who is he? He is the chap who gives you credit when you are financially broke, and carries your account until your are able to pay.

He is the chap who gives you back your money or makes exchanges when you are not satisfied with what you have bought.

He is the chap who stands behind his guaranty, and makes restoration of all losses that you may sustani on the goods you buy.

He is the chap who meets you at the door [with a handshake and lets you out with a message to the "kids," and a real come-again goodby.

He is the chap who meets and greets you on the street every day in the year. and takes a neighborly interest in your family and your affairs.

He is the chap whose clerks and bookkeepers and other employes live in Chestertown and spend their money with you and with other Chestertown people.

He is the chap who pays a heavy tax to help support Chestertown's schools. and build Chestertown's streets, and maintain Chestertown's fire department and police department, and lighting and water service.

He is the chap who helps support Chestertown's churches and charity organizations, and lodges and commercial [clubs, and talks for Chestertown and boosts for Chestertown every day of the year.

He is the chap who visits you when you are sick, sends flowers to your family when you die, and follows your body out among the trees and tombs, as far as human feet may travel with the dead.

He is the home merchant—your neighbor—your friend—your helper in time of need.

Don't you think that you ought to trade with him, and be his friend and his helper in time of his need.

Don't you know that every dollar that you send out of Chestertown for merchandise, is sent to strangers—to men who never spend a dollar in Chestertown; to men who would not trust you for box of matches; to men who would a turn you over to the police if you should enter their offices!

You don't save much, frequently nothing, when you send your money out of Chestertown, and you take all the risk yourself of short weight or measure and of getting damaged or inferior goods. Possibly if you and everybody else in Chestertown should trade at home, the home merchant might afford to sell as cheaply as do the big stores in the big cities. And don't you know that the growth and prosperity of Chestertown depends very largely upon the success and prosperity of the home merchants? Out of town people judge our town by the appearance of our stores and the degree of enterprise shown by our merchants. And our home merchants cannot succeed unless home folks give them loyal support.

LOCAL NOTES

DON'T forget the comedy and minstrels at the Lyceum next Tuesday night, March 16th. It will be great.

IT is a curiosity to visit the big dairy farm of John Schauber and sons, near town. They have now purchased of Messrs. Graham & Thomas, the agents, a patent milking device. The machine will do the work of about five men. For many years milking by machinery was an experiment, but now Graham & Thomas have one that is a success.

THE new store at Lanford opened by Mr. J. Y. Kilbourne is doing finely.

THE "Little Charley," Capt. Edgar N. Culley, made his first trip of the season up Chester river the past week. He carried a consignment from the Peerless Company to several points in Anne Arundel. The "Little Charlie" was put into commission last September and is capable of carrying eighty tons, being equipped with a sixty-horse power White-Middleton engine.

THE local college team defeated Susquehanna University quintet by score of 26 to 21. The last game of the local basketball team at home was played Friday evening when Delaware College was W. C.'s opponent. The season will close the following Saturday when the locals will journey to Newark for the final game with Delaware.

Mr. A. M. CULP has a large force of men engaged building an immense addition to the garage of Mr. Jacob F. Thompson on High street. When completed it will be the largest garage in town and will extend from High street clear through to Cannon street. Mr. Thompson's garage will be 246 feet long when completed.

Two detectives from Baltimore came to Kent last Saturday and arrested W. R. Larrimore, of Eastern Neck Island, charged with bigamy. Mr. L. is said to have had three wives and to have quite an exciting record. He was taken to Baltimore.

THE following postmasters have been named in Kent: Carrie M. Graves as postmaster at Blacks, Md., and Lizzie E. Hepbron as postmaster at Lynch; Mary S. Quick, Gratitude; W. J. Rutter, Locust Grove, and George E. Noland, Tolchester Beach.

FORMER MARYLANDERS TO DINE

The recently organized Maryland Society of Delaware at a meeting in Wilmington decided to hold the organization's first dinner at the Hotel du Pont on the night of April 8th. Governor Goldsborough of Maryland will be the guest of honor. Ex-Congressman L. Irving Handy, of Smyrna, Del., a native of Worchester county, Maryland, and Governor Miller will be guests.

Ex-Judge Daniel O. Hastings, of Wilmington, a native of Princess Anne, Md., president of the society, will be toastmaster. The dinner will be truly Maryland and will be featured by fried chicken and corn pone. The society, which has been in existence but a short time, has a large membership. In addition to ex-Judge Hastings, president, the officers are: Vice-president, James H. Shuster, from Kent county; W. H. H. Willis, from Talbot county; Dr. S. C. Frederick, from Baltimore county; secretary-treasurer, Howard G. Marston, from Baltimore city. Among the Kent members are: J. K. Bailey, Isaac W. Bowers, George M. D. Cann, James F. Crew, J. Frank Davis, C. H. Greenwood, J. W. Loud, Thomas J. Mowbray, Geo. C. Sallaway, James E. Taylor and B. T. Housten.

Coughs, Cold Stiff Neck Neuralgia

Especially in the piercing pain of neuralgia or the dull throb of headache is Sloan's Liniment wonderfully relieving. Laid lightly on the part where the pain is felt, it gives at once a feeling of comfort and ease that is most welcome to the overwrought sufferer.

Hear What Others Say:

"There are no Liniments that equal Sloan's. My husband has neuralgia very often, he rubs Sloan's on his face and that is the last of it."—Mrs. V. J. Brown, Route 1, Box 121, Halls, Tenn.

"I have used Sloan's Liniment for family use for years and would not be without it. We have raised a family of ten children and have used it for croup and all lung trouble; also, as an antiseptic for wounds, of which children have a great many, it can't be beat. My wife sprained her ankle last summer and it was in bad shape. Sloan's Liniment applied enabled her to be as good as ever in a week. I have used it several times for sprains and rheumatism."—John Newcomb, R. R. No. 2, Keokuk, Iowa.
