SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1915

WE can stand flarebacks in March but when it comes to April, it's too much.

CERTAINLY we may reasonably suspect there will be no more snow this spring.

WHEN it comes to Easter, or any other day, fashion proposes, but the weather disposes.

GOOD news is that which says that the fruit crop in Kent has not been damaged by the April blizzard.

NOT a very ennobling spectacle was the brutal fight between a white man and a negro, but the victory of the white man is a very popular one among the white race.

MR. FRANK C. CROW, the Organization candidate for Treasurer, is meeting with encouragement every place he goes. It is wonderful how popular this young man is, and he is deserving of it all, too.

IN the death of Hon. Spencer C. Jones, of Montgomery county, passed away one of the grand men of the State. Noble in looks and actions he was always a striking and influential factor in all that was of interest to Marylanders.

MR. BARROLL has not yet made public announcement as to his candidacy for State's Attorney of Kent county, though "feelers" have been sent out in all directions. Wait in patience for the answers, friends, and then watch "the automobiles smash up."

IT is reported that Mr. Barroll's candidate for Comptroller will have his campaign managed by the same gentleman who so successfully (?) managed Mr. W. T. Marbury's Senatorial campaign two years ago. Flying auto trips and extensive speech making will be the order in a few weeks. Watch for it.

MR. LEONARD WILSON, the Organization candidate for commissioner from the First district, was in Chestertown on Wednesday and says everything is lovely up the county for the Organization ticket. The people in that section, like other sections of Kent, are tired of being bossed to death by one man. A man who says to his willing tools, "You shall not be a candidate for Register of Wills," and "you must be my candidate for this office and that office."

THE friends of Mr. James G. Harris and Mr. George E. Noland are urging their claims for place on the Barroll ticket as candidate for Senator. But they may as well content themselves in patience, for NO PERSON will get a place on the Barroll ticket except by the direct and explicit orders of the Big Chief himself. There is no dispute about this. If Mr. Barroll says Mr. Harry Davis is to be his candidate for Senator, that ends it. If he says Mr. Leary is to be the candidate, all other aspirants had as well save their energies for something else. We think Mr. Barroll is the logical person to run for Senator on his ticket. He will direct the office anyhow if he wins and should have the nerve to go before the people of Kent county for their approval of his methods and actions. So, instead of coming out for State's Attorney, let him head the Barroll ticket for Senator.

AGRICULTURAL AGENT

At a meeting of the County Commissioners, held at Denton, Caroline county, on Tuesday last, an appropriation of $1,000 was made for an Agricultural Agent for Caroline county. The proposition was presented by Director T. B. Symons of the Extension Service, and was backed by a strong delegation of farmers

The Kent County Commissioners are considering the same proposition.

THE FIGHT HAS BEGUN

Hon. James H. Preston, Democrat, will be the next Mayor of Baltimore city. He is the nominee of the Democratic party without a contest. The Republicans after a hot primary fight last Tuesday have selected Charles H. Heintzman to lead their forlorn hope Heintzman defeated John Philip Hill for the Republican nomination by a majority of nearly 3,000 From now until the May election the fight between Preston and Heintzman promises to be a warm one. Preston has made good and should be re-elected. Will the Democrats of Baltimore see that he is?

[COMMUNICATED]

CHESTERTOWN, MD., April 3, 1915.

Messrs. Editors:—The Barroll organ is wondering what the Hon. John Walter Smith would think of Mr. George H. Cannan, the Organization candidate for county commissioner, if he knew that heretofore he had not been a very great friend of that gentleman, and in the absence of any direct information from the Senator we can't say. But does the organ remember that in 1911 they were very much in accord with the views of the Hon. John Walter in their support of Hon. A. P. Gorman for Governor and very much oppos d to Hon. Blair Lee, and that two years later they only gave that gentleman a very lukewarm support for the Senate? At the present time they are "slopping over" a little in their advocacy of his candidacy for Governor. Now, in view of these facts, wouldn't it be a little interesting to know just what the Hon. Blair Lee's thoughts are in regard to this bunch?
