Riding Cultivators

Our "Easy" Buckeye Cultivator is the simplest, neatest, strongest and LIGHTEST on the market. Has single tongue, 42-in. steel wheels and square tube steel frame.

The construction of the balanced frame gives the operator at all times an unobstructed view of the work ahead and eliminates all neck-weight and flying up of the pole.

It has eight teeth, the two inside teeth being independent. The wheels may be adjusted for wide or narrow rows, as wide as 47 inches or as narrow as 37 inches.

By the use of the balance lever all weight is removed from the horses necks.

You can come nearer hoeing corn with an "EASY" Buckeye than with any other Cultivator.

Personal and Social

We are sorry to learn that our old friend, Enoch N. Roland, is quite sick at his home in St. Petersburg.

Dr. James W. Cain, President of Washington College, has accepted an invitation to address the graduation class of Berlin High School on the evening of June 18th, when the annual commencement exercises will be held.

Mr. Charles B. Chance, of Sudlersville, entertained his Sunday School class of 15 small boys at a motion picture party at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night.

Miss Stephanie Ford is home for her vacation.

Miss Elizabeth Jones, of Bryn Mayr, is the guest of Mrs. Garrett Foxwell on the avenue.

State's Attorney Vickers attended the Commencement Exercises of his alma mater, Delaware College, this week.

Miss Mary Hyland has been the guest of Miss Dodd, on High street.

Mr. Rolph Townshend entertained a number of friends at a dance at his home on Washington avenue, on Friday evening, in celebration of his eighteenth birthday.

Misses Alice Draye Wood and Edith Belle Colison, of Kent, were among the graduates at the State Normal School this week.

Mr. Barber Bartley entertained the Young Men's Club in fine style at his home on High street.

Mr. Philip G. Wilmer returned from New York Wednesday after being sick there for eight weeks. He is able to be about the house.

Mrs. W. W. Chapman and little daughter expect to join a party on a trip to Boston leaving here on the 15th and will be away about three weeks.

Mrs Carrie Wroth, Misses Nellie Walters and Annie Copper have rented a cottage at Ocean City for the summer where they will be glad to entertain their many friedds at reasonable sum. This cottage should be the most attractive place on the coast.

THE auto fever seems to be still raging. Mr. P. G. Wilmer has purchased a new Chevrolet of Graham, Clements & Sutton with self starter, electric lights.

Mr. F. H. Parker, of Queen Anne's, near Chester bridge, has also purchased a new Chevrolet.

Mr. Henry Beck, of Texas, purchased a Ford car from Mr. J. F. Thompson Friday.

Mr. Merrick Clements rode from Detroit to Chestertown in a new six cylinder Buick. He made 400 miles Monday.

J. H. Sides' new Maxwell is a beauty and is admired by all automobilists. His sales have been very gratifying.

TRIAL began Wednesday before Judge Dobler in the Circuit Court of the divorce case of Tiberons G. Pritchard against his wife, Mrs. Daisy E. Pritchard, from whom he is asking an absolute divorce. They were married in 1898 and have two children.

James E. Marshall, who lives near Rock Hall, was called as a witness for Mr. Pritchard and testified that during certain visits in the summer of Mrs. Pritchard to Rock Hall, he and another man and another woman went on a launch party together. At that time, he said it was the fashion for ladies to wear rats in their hair. He did not know whether Mrs. Pritchard took out the rats in the launch but he did remember that they had 42 hairpins in them. Attorney Ward offered a photograph, which the witness identified as showing Mrs. Pritchard sitting between the other man and himself with her arms about them. He said, however, that the whole picture was not there, for, as he remembered it, the other lady was in it, too, sitting on his knee.

Mrs. Pritchard denies her husband's charges of unfaithfulness.

WORTON

Worton Grange held its last regular weekly meeting on Monday. Interest in these meetings continue although the farmers are very busy at this season of the year, yet they seem loath to discontinue our interesting and inspiring meetings. However, for the three summer months, June, July, and August, the meetings will be held only once a month. These meetings will be interesting and full of inspiration for all who are fortunate enough to attend. Our lecturer is certainly wide awake and leaves nothing undone to make our Grange one of the best in the county. The last Monday night in June the gentlemen who have charge of refreshments promise to show the ladies how to serve. Brothers G. A. Hadaway, A. T. Loller, Lester Carter and Carroll Loller are the committee in charge and with assistance of the other gents they promise us something great. At the business meeting last week questions of importance were discussed and all business was put in shape for the summer, then the literary program was taken up, consisting of singing "Beautiful Golden Somewhere." "How to Care for Tulips After the Flowers Are Gone," by Sister Sara Carter. Sister Rachel Carter read us a beautiful paper on "Influence." Sister Turner then read us a humerous piece on the boys of today and yesterday. We then closed with a reading entitled, "The Woman On the Farm," by Sister Blanche Loller. In this the men have everything up to date, all the latest improved machinery to till the soil, motor cars to ride in, etc., while the women has to put up with any old thing. The house that his father built in '67 is good enough for her. But our men are opening their eyes and you take a look around you will find that the homes in this neighborhood are being improved.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK

Ghestertown High School Hold Interesting Exercises—Averages of Pupils — Graduates Acquit themselves Nicely.

Christ M. P. Church was the Mecca for hundreds Sunday morning when Dr. W. R. Graham preached the Baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of the Chestertown High School. It was a most delightful occasion and made so by the beauty of the surroundings, the interest of the people, the elcquence of the speakers and by the sweetness of the music. Dr. L E. Barrett offered the prayer after which Dr. Graham preached a sermon especially fitting the occasion. His theme was "Goodnees", prophesying that the future great man would not be one noted for art, science nor war, but for his goodness.

The music was furnished by the Choral Club under the leadership of Mr. William Walter Chyaman and was of a very high character. The soloists were Mrs. W. F. Jarrell and Miss Fannie Stwart.

The Declamation contest on Tuesday, evening, for the Thomas and Russell medals, was participated in by Misses Lydia Comegys, Carrie Bolton, Carolene McKee, Louise Russell, Messrs. It was a successful affair under the directon of the efficient principal, Prof. Clark. The graduates were Misses Louise Hudson, Josephine E. Walters and Etta Beck. The honorary address was delivered by Miss Walters. Dr. L. E. Barrtt delivered the address to graduators and Miss Ida Smith sang a pretty solo and Mr. Kemp Bordleya gave a fine violin solo.

ELOQUENT LADY SPEAKER

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, was selected by the W. C. T. U., of Kent County, in which to hold an institute last Tuesday afternoon. The speakers were amoung the best in the State. Seldom indeed is an audience favored with such practical address from such able speakers. Miss Minnie Price Bryan presided Mrs Dr. Bordean Siscoe spoke on "health" and gave information for which the average patient would pay many dollars. She was followed by Miss Minnie B. Taylor who spoke on Moral Education in a manner that was touching and impressive. Miss Taylor has been assisting Dr. Kelley and others in rescuing women from lives of shame and her interest in this work is bringing forth great and good results Mrs. Beveridge spoke on the pension for widowed mothers. Dr. Hare spoke on "cleanliness" in a most forceful manner. Mrs. T. Shafer, Mrs. S. A. Hurlock, Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth, Miss Ida Crew and others are deserving a vote of thanks for bringing such distinguished speakers to us. Just to think, here were capable speakers who could tell how to preserve health, how to educate children in delicate and important things, how to eradicate the evils which surround us, brought right into our midst.

THE Commencement Exercises of the Wilmington Conference Academy, Dover, Del, were held the past week.

The Alumni Banquet was held at Hotel Richardson following the Commencement Exercises.

Miss Vera Whitaker, of Galena, was one of the graduates.

Fairlee Grange will meet next Wednesday at 7 30 p. m.

WEDDING NOTES.

Mr. Irving I Robinson, prop'r. of the White House Shoe Shop, opp. the P. O., was married Sunday in Baltimore to Miss Francies H. Wolff, of 2204 W. North Ave., of that city. After the wedding a dinner was served and then the couple left for an extended trip North, visiting New York and Atlantic City. They will take an apartment at Mrs. Dodd's upon their return.

The wedding of Mr. Jesse Taylor and Miss Rose Smith, of Chestertown, occurred at the M. E. Parsonage Wednesday evening. Dr. L. E. Barrett performed the ceremony.

One of the prettest weddings of the season took place in the little village of Sherwood, Md., at 4.30 p. m. Tuesday when Rev. R. L. Kirby of Kent county led to the altar Miss Ella N. Harrison of Sherwood.

The bride was beautifully attired in White Satin, her long white veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried white Roses. Her cousin, Miss Isabel Rowleson acting as bride's maid wore pink Crepe de Chine, and carried pink roses. Rev. J. L. Prettyman acted as best man. Ushers were cousins of the bride. They were united in marriage by Rev. Ivanhoe Willis, assisted by Rev. W. B. Horner. The groom is well known in Kent county, and is well liked by all who know him.

He is now pastor of the Methodist Church of Galeston, Md., and he and his bride will be at home to receive their many friends after June 18th.

JEFFERSON HOME BURNED

The farm dwelling in Flatland, near Worton, owned and tenanted by Mr. Purnell Jefferson and son was destroyed by fire Sunday morning at about 1 o'clock. Some of the furniture was saved by Messrs. Harry Willis, Harry Legg and others. The house was insured in the Kent Mutual for $1200, but was worth twice the amount. It was owned by Mr. Jefferson and sons.

Mr. Graham, who lives on an adjoining farm, saw the blaze, and rushing to the scene found Mr. Jefferson and son asleep in bed. The men were aroused and tried to extinguish the blaze, but it was beyond them and the building soon burned to the ground, It came from a defective flue.

Old Kent the Mecca

The Kent section of the Eastern Shore Society made an "official" visit here last Saturday returning on the 7 o'clock boat from Tolchester. Mr. Thos. Hines was the pilot of the company who visited St. Paul's Church and old Shrewsbury, Betterton, Galena, Georgetown and other places. Luncheon was partaken at the Voshell House ot 2.30 p. m., where Hon. James Alfred Pearce made appropriate remarks as a welcome back home to our fellow countians. All returned to Baltimore prouder than ever of old Kent.

Another distinguished company arrived Wednesday and visited Caulk's Field en ronte to Chestertown. These were members of the John Eager Howard Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of which Mrs. William A. Buckingham is regent, and of which Mrs. H. H. Klinefeltre, Misses Fannie and Elizabeth Stuart are members. The chapter left in a body for Mrs. Klinefelter's home at 6.30 o'clock on the Tolchester steamer. Automobiles met the guests at Tolchester, conveying them to Mrs. Klinefelter's country residence, where they were entertained at luncheon. They returned to Baltimore by the right boat from Tolchester, after a delightful day.
