A BINDER PARADE

An unusual sight was witnessed on the streets of Chestertown yesterday when Davis & Satterfield made their delivery of McCormick harvesters. They had 11 all lined upon Cross street with Mr. Page Hickman in the lead. Five others were sent out earlier in the week. A fine whip and drinking cup was given each driver.

GETTING READY FOR THE 4TH OF JULY

A meeting of citizens of Chestertown was held Thursday night to make plans for the 4th of July. It was unanimously decided to procure an air ship for the day, if possable, and Messrs. J. G. Beck, D. B. Ford and J. Kemp Bordley was appointed a committee to look after same.

The big band from Greensboro will give a concert on the square while in the afternoon the Fair Association will hold fine racing.

Everyone in Chestertown is asked to put out a flag on this occasion and show Old Glory as never before.

Those present were Robert Moffe't, C. L. Jarrell, D. B. Ford, H. B. Rote, Harry Hodgkin, Norman Jefferson, J. G. Beck, Edward Newsome, Wm. W. Clayton, H. Sachs, J. Kemp Bordley, B. Brown, Judge Herbert Skipper, and the NEWS man. Everybody get ready for a big day. It is for you.

7 Joyous Days!

Chestertown's Chautauqua program is in hand and will appear in full next week. The date is August 30 to September 5. Charles Mr. Newcomb, for seven years teacher of oratory in University of Chattanooga, will be superintendent and lecturer. The lecturers will include Hon. Joseph W. Folk, Ex-Governor of Missouri, and Paul M. Pearson. The band will be here on the fourth day, Colangelo's Italian Band. Singers and musicians unequaled will appear and the program looks as good as any ever seen or heard here. More later.

HARRINGTON FOR GOVERNOR.

In nineteen hundred and eleven Senator Blair Lee was a candidate for the nomination as governor. He came within one vote in the convention of getting the nomination, although his popular vote was about thirteen hundred less than his opponents. In nineteen hundred and thirteen he received the nomination as candidate for Senator in the Democratic primaries without opposition and was elected by a plurality of over forty thousand votes. His term expires in 1917.

Within nearly two years of his Senatorial term to serve Senator Lee now desires to be Governor of Maryland and has announced his candidacy in the coming Democratic primary. His only opponent is Emerson C. Harrington, the present Comptroller of the State. Mr. Harrington, in our judgement, should receive the nomination. Mr. Lee has been a candidate for Governor and lost. He has been elected by a tremendous vote to his present position and we think that he is in duty bound, to serve the people of this State in that position until his term expires. He should stay in the United States Senate and help uphold the hands of President Wilson at such a time as the present, and not seek a new office, and thereby place in the Senate a new man.

Mr. Harrington, in our judgment, in the langugage of another "is worthy of the support of every Democratic voter in Maryland. He has been tried as a public official, both as State's Attorney of his own county, as Insurance Commissioner and as State Comptroller, and in all three of these offices he has made good and has proved himself loyal to the interests of the State, regardless of partisanship or friendship. His record, both as a public and private citizen, is clean and good. He has qualified himself for the duties of Governor as few men in Maryland have done. He has both the ability and experience, as well as the determination and steadfastness of purpose to make a splendid Chief Executive of this State."

Mr. Harrington should be nominated and if he is nominated he will be elected by a large majority.—Centreville Record.
