WEDDING NOTES.

The wedding of Mrs. Viola M. Howard, one of Chestertown's popular ladies, and Mr John A. Bibb, of Harrisburg Va., took place in Baltimore Wednesday. They will reside for the present in Baltimore.

DILL—CONNELLY.

Miss Anna Louise Connelly, known to her friends as "Dovie," daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Connelly, sprung a surprise on her many friends Saturday by becoming the bride of Mr. Marcus C. Dill, of New Berne, N. C. The wedding took place in Baltimore Saturday at 11 a. m., Rev. Peregrine Wroth officiating. They will reside at New Berne.

NELSON—WHEAT.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Wheat, of Chestertown, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday afternoon, June 28th, when their daughter, Tabitha, became the bride of Mr. Norman B. Nelson, son of Mrs. Thomas Holdson, in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends of the couple. The house was decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. All light was excluded and the room was lighted by pink candles. Promptly at 2 o'clock when Miss Helen Wagner, of Rock Hall, started to play Mendelssohn's wedding march, the couple marched down through the hall into the parlor where they were met by Dr. L. E. Barrett, under an arch of green entwined with blooming clematis. The bride was dressed in an electric blue taffeta dress with coatee, and wore a becoming hat. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. The groom wore the conventional black.

After the ceremony the couple left amid showers of rice and confetti for Tolchester, where they took the boat for Baltimore and thence to Washington. The couple was followed to Tolchester by Miss Ethel Ringgold with a car full of friends who bombarded them with rice until the boat pulled out. They received many beautiful and useful presents. They returned Thursday and took up their residence in Mr. Fred Robinson's house, next door to Mr. J. W. Barnes' residence on High street, uptown.

WEER—BONWILL

A quiet but beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Bonwill, near Betterton, Tuesday morning; June 29th, at 6 30 o'clock when their only daughter, Edna, became the bride of Mr. Hartley Copper Weer, son of Mr and Mrs. James E Weer, of Kennedyville. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march rendered by Miss E. Pauline Copper, where they were met under an arch of evergreen by the Rev. S. S. Hepbron who performed the ceremony. The bride was gowned in white embroidered voile over taffeta silk and carried bride's roses. Miss Mary Sasscer, of St. Mary's county, attended the bride as maid of honor. Miss Sasscer wore pink silk crepe and carried sweet peas. The two little flower girls, Miss Ann Bonwill and Miss Elizabeth Dukes, cousins, of the bride, wore white lingerie frocks and carried baskets of daisies. The groom wore the conventional black.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, after which the happy couple left for points North They will be at home after July 6, at 23 W. 27th street. Baltimore, Md.

RYAN—CARR

Mr. Mequay Ryan and Miss Grace Carr, both of Rock Hall, were quietly married at the parsonage of the Protestant Episcopal Church Wednesday evening at 8.15 o'clock The bride and groom were congratulated by quite a few boarders at the Comegys House.

LENTZ—GROVES

Miss Margaret Wyatt Groves, formerly of Chestertown, and daughter of the late Albert S. Groves, of Chestertown, was married Saturday afternoon to Mr. George Lentz, son of Mr. and Mrs Adam Lentz of 2125 Hollins street, by the Rev. Kenneth G. Murray at the parsonage of Fayette Street Methodist Episcopal Church.

The bride was attired in a blue traveling suit, with hat to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley. There were no attendants and the ceremony was witnessed by only members of the families and a few friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lentz left on the steamer City of Norfolk for a trip through the South. They will make their home in Washington, where the bridegroom is employed.

OUTLAND—MADDOX

Miss Lida A. Maddox of Snow Hill, Md., became the bride of Mr. Grover C. Outland, of Boaz, Va., at high noon Wednesday, June 30, in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few close friends. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leonard B. Smith, a former college-mate of the bride. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Maddox, of Snow Hill, and was one of the most popular teachers of Worcester County. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Outland of Isle of Wight County, Va. and is principal of Drake's Branch High School, Drake's Branch, Va. Both of the young people have many friends who will be glad to extend their congratulations.

The bride was attired in a handsome traveling gown of dark blue, while the groom wore the conventional black.

Immediately following the ceremony the newly married couple left for an extended trip to points North, and will be at home to their friends after July 10, at Windsor, Va.
