GRAND EXCURSION

To Annapolis & Washington

Wednesday, July 21

This is one of the opportunities that do not come often, and we advise all who can to lay aside business to make this trip. Arrangements have been made for the steamer "ANNAPOLIS" to leave Chestertown at 7 30 a. m., stopping at Quaker Neck only, then direct to Annapolis, Md., arriving there at 11 a. m.

Here we find the great Naval Academy, War Ships, State House and many points of interest.

Those who desire may take the Electric Cars and go on to Washington, having about 4 hours to see the Capitol of the United States and other great buildings. A chance to see things you have never seen before—so many big things we can't name them all. We simply say go This excursion has been arranged with the view of giving something new.

There will be music for the young folks as well as for the old folks. Refreshments and meals will be in charge of the Tolchester Company. We promise all who go with us a good time. Returning, we leave Annapolis at 6.30 p. m., back to Chestertown about 10 p. m.

TO ANNAPOLIS:
Adults, 50 Cents.
Children, 25 Cents between ages 5 and 12.
To Washington, Adults $1.25.
NO HALF FARES.

P. S.—This excursion and tickets will be in charge of Christ M. P. Church and Sunday School, Chestertown, and we especially invite all to go with us. Other information can be had from the committee. jy10 2t

BETTERTON, MARYLAND

DEATHS

Enoch Nichols Roland was born at Cross Roads, near Accokeek Creek, Prince George's County, Md., on June 27, 1827 and his earlier life was spent in that neighborhood; Washington and Baltimore, learning the trade of engineer in the latter city. In 1859 he moved to Kent County and conducted a mercantile, wheelwright and blacksmith business at Fairlee; in 1872 he removed to Chestertown and in 1874 to the Miflin Thomas farm where he resided a number of years, and again back to Chestertown as engineer at the American Strawboard Mills for a short time, then he took up his home with his daughter, Mrs. A P. Matthews and moved with her to Florida, where he died July 2nd, 1915, in his 89th year.

In 1854 he married Miss Mary A. Rutter, of Cecil County, who died in Chestertown. His family consisted of Charles E., of Baltimore; Wm. B., of Philadelphia; John G. of Chestertown; Mrs. A. P. Matthews, Enoch H., and George Z., of St. Petersburg, Fla.; two daughters dying in infancy.

He was a charter member of Chester Lodge of Masons, and is the last of those members; a fond parent, kind neighbor and a christian. "Enoch walked with God."

The body arrived from Florida in Chestertown on Tuesday morning and conveyed to St. Paul's cemetery where it was taken in charge by Chester Lodge No. 115, A. F. & A. M. and buried with the impressive Masonic rites. The bearers were fellow Masons and consisted of S. Scott Beck, A. L. Sparks, H. F. Jefferson, H. R Graham, W. B. Usilton and J. H. Sides. J. E. Ferguson undertaker.

Miss. Josephine M. Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hicks, died at the home of her parents on Queen street early Saturday morning aged 23. Miss Hicks had helped nurse her sister through typhoid fever and had left for her work in the South when she was taken sick with fever. She returned home and went to bed. After weeks of careful nursing she recovered and went to the country for a short visit. While away enjoying her stay she contracted pneumonia, returned home, and died as stated. She was an attractive young lady with a host of friends and her death cast a shadow over this community. The funeral took place Monday at 3 P. M., interment at Chester Cemetery; Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating. Wm. T. Hicks and Wm. E. Krusen were undertakers while father and brother acted as bearers, a most pathetic incident.

Thomas Holmes Thumlert, aged 25 years, son of Peter Hepburn Thumlert and the late Ida Holmes Thumlert, died in Rock Hall on Tuesday. The funeral took place from the residence of his sister, No. 24 Haywood avenue, Arlington, with interment in Loudon Park cemetery, Baltimore,.

BIG 5TH OF JULY

Fine Horse Races At Chestertown—Betterton And Tolchester Have Large Crowds.

Notwithstanding the fact that the threatening weather of Monday morning kept many from the races, about fifteen hundred people were present at Chestertown races course to see the horses go. There were thirteen hundred and sixty paid admission to the races.

The races were enjoyed by the crowd present, which consisted of lovers of the sport from several counties. Classes B. and F. with nine and seven starters, respectively, furnished the most excitement, class F. being the only split heat race on the card, Pony Boy II and Dr. R. each taking a heat, after which the judges called off the final heat owing to the lateness of the hour.

Classes C. and D. which was composed of the good ones and furnished the best time of the day, the finishes of which were close and exciting. Bertam McKinney, in Mr. E. M. Hanson's string stepped with ease in 2 15½, the fastest mile of the afternoon.
