GRAND EXCURSION
To Annapolis & Washington
Wednesday, July 21

This is one of the opportunities that do not come often, and we advise all who can to lay aside business to make this trip. Arrangements have been made for the steamer "ANNAPOLIS" to leave Chestertown at 7 30 a. m., stopping at Quaker Neck only, then direct to Annapolis, Md., arriving there at 11 a. m.

Here we find the great Naval Academy, War Ships, State House and many points of interest. Those who desire may take the Electric Cars and go on to Washington, having about 4 hours to see the Capitol of the United States and other great buildings. A chance to see things you have never seen before—so many big things we can't name them all. We simply say go This excursion has been arranged with the view of giving something new.

There wi l be music for the young folks as well as for the old folks. Refreshments and meals will be in charge of the Tolchester Company. We promise all who go with us a good time. Returning, we leave Annapolis at 6.30 p. m., back to Chestertown about 10 p. m.

TO ANNAPOLIS :
Adults, 50 Cents.
Children, 25 Cents, between ages 5 and 12.
To Washington, Adults $1.25.
NO HALF FARES.

P. S.—This excursion and tickets will be in charge of Christ M. P. Church and Sunday School, Chestertown, and we especially invite all to go with us. Other information can be had from the committee. jy10 2t

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

WHEREAS, it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to call to her heavenly home our beloved sister and co-worker, HANNAH R. GOODING be it

Resolved, That in her death Betterton Sunday School has sustained a heavy loss, which will be felt by every officer, teacher and scholar in the school.

Resolved, That as a teacher in the school (until sickness overtook her) she was always in her class, and with a happy and cheerful manner would teach Jesus crucified.

Resolved, That the life she has led will long be remembered and live on as an example to all who knew and loved her.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and published in the county papers.

DEATHS

Mrs. Sarah Adelle Hurlock, wife of the late Charles H. Hurlock, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred. G. Usilton, Thursday evening, at 10.45 o'clock, after an illness of complication of diseases, aged 67. The deceased was born on Christmas day in Dublin, New Hampshire, and when about 18 years of age came to Kent through the influence of the late John W. Corey to teach school near the Corey farm. This school is now taught by Miss Willis. Mrs. Hurlock made a most efficient teacher and after some years of teaching married the late Charles H. Hurlock. She was a most loyal helpmeet and raised a family of loving children, all of whom survive, viz, Arthur C, of Cambridge, Mrs. Charles Colladay, of Baltimore, Warren, Mrs. Fred. G. Usilton, Dr. Harry, of Cambridge, Frank A., Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell and Gaylord, of Newport, R I.

Mrs. Hurlock was a remarkable woman in many respects. She had an indomitable will that pushed forward to a successful issue the high aims she had in life ; she was of a high degree of intelligence, and notwithstanding her many home duties, kept posted upon the real news of the world and put it to good purpose ; she was a good woman, active in all those missions which tend to the uplift of her fellowmen. Her heart was won early to the temperance cause and she became one of its strongest supporters in this county. The great progress made in temperance is largely due to that noble band of women known to the world as the W. C. T. U., and in which Mrs. Hurlock played a prominent part. She was a lover of music and a sweet singer occupying a place on the program in all musical festivals of church and grange. She was a faithful member of St. James M. P. Church and retained her membership there to the end. We might write a column of this grand woman but will sum it all up in this fact—she was a good woman, patient, kind and loving mother, faithful friend and thoughtful neighbor.

The funeral will take place today, Saturday, at 3 P. M., at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred. G. Usilton, interment in Chester cemetery; Rev. H. S. Jester officiating ; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Ella N. Comegys, wife of Ex-Sheriff Sam'l Comegys, died at Catlin's Corner, in Queen Anne's, Wednesday last, aged 61. She was the daughter of the late Frank Newnam, of this county, and a sister to Mrs. John Newnam, of Church Hill. She lost her only son less than a month ago. The funeral was held yesterday at noon interment in Shrewsbury cemetery, Dr. Sharpe officiating. The bearers were J. Herman Ireland, H. H. Klinefelter, Jas. Brown, W. Irving Walker, Wm. Janvier, W. A. Comegys ; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Margaret C. Crawford, widow of the late Henry Crawford, died Tuesday night of last week at her home near Sassafras, aged about eighty years. She is survived by one son, Charles H. Crawford, of Cecilton. The funeral was held Friday, with services at St. Francis Xavier Church, near Warwick. Interment in the adjoining cemetery.

Mrs. Hannah R Gooding died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harvey B. Moore, in Betterton, on Saturday, July 10th. She was the widow of the late Eugene J. Gooding, Sheriff of Kent county. Surviving her are two sons, John Hough and Eugene J. Gooding and three daughters, Mrs. Josiah Massey, Mrs. Floyd Crowhart and Mrs. Harvey Moore. The funeral took place Tuesday morning and was in charge of her pastor, Rev. R P. Nichols, who was assisted by Rev. F. X. Moore. Interment was in Galena Cemetery and William H. Krusen in charge.

Mrs. Gooding was a woman of gentle, amiable, and affectionate temperament which made her a general favorite. She was a noble wife and mother of surpassing qualities of mind and heart; the joy of her husband and children, to whom she was devoted with an affection as abiding as it was beautiful, and the light of the home which was made sweet and happy by her presence. As a christian she was devout and unaffected in her duties and until her health would no longer permit, was engaged in every good word and work. She was per-eminently a reliable friend to whom moroseness and unkindness were a stranger and above all she was the friend of God and faithful in the service she rendered to him.

ENTERS SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. Rose P. Schwatka entered suit in the Circuit Court of Baltimore Monday asking that she be granted a limited divorce and alimony from her husband, Wm. H. Schwatka, said to be a wealthy resident of Rock Hall, Kent county. They were married October 23, 1895, in this city and have five children living whose ages run from two to eighteen years. Of the survivors three are sons 18, 17 and 12 years, and two daughters, aged 3 and 2 years.

The bill states that Schwatka and his wife own jointly a farm of 248 acres near Rock Hall, worth $10,000, and a store and dwelling house in Rock Hall, worth $3,000. He has other property worth $2,600.—Baltimore American.
