WEDDING NOTES

Society in the lower section of Kent county was thrown into a state of excitement last week when the wedding of Mr. John E. Hadaway, a well-known bachelor and popular farmer, of Piney Neck, to Miss Mary M. Leary, the only daughter of the late Capt. Columbus A. Leary, was announced. The ceremony took place at the Methodist Protestant parsonage, Rev. H. W. B. Johnson officiating. After the ceremony the bridal couple went to their elegant home near Wesley Chapel church and have been the recipient of scores of congratulations to which the NEWS adds theirs.

Mrs. Geo. B. McWhorter announces the engagement of her daughter, Nellie, to Mr. A. L. Sterling, formerly with Mr. M. A. Toulson, but now a representative of a large wholesale drug firm in Baltimore. The wedding will take place about Xmas.

The "coldest" wedding yet reported is that of Miss Snow marrying Mr. Blizzard which occurred in Wilmington last week.

St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, Ingleside, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Thursday at noon, when Miss Katherine Thomas Merrick became the bride of Mr. James Addison Hall, of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. T. Benson, D. D., of Crisfield, Md., and the music was skillfully rendered by Prof. Howard L. Benson, of Westminster. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. C. Percival Merrick.

The bride was gowned in soft white satin, made "en courte train", combined with tulle and silver lace. Her veil, made artistically in cap effect, was caught up with lillies of the valley and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lillies of the valley.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Nancy Scott Thomas, of Baltimore, as Maid of Honor. She wore yellow pussy willow taffeta, combined with gold band; a hat of black velvet and carried white chrysanthemums.

The bride's maids were Miss Leila Dudley, of "Maple Lawn"; Miss Ann Clements, of Chestertown, and Miss Bertha L. Wilson, of Ingleside. They wore gowns of white pussy willow taffeta, combined with radiance lace and yellow tulle; black velvet hats with single yellow rose, and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Margaret Tillard Merrick and Gertrude Merrick, little neices of the bride, were flower girls. They were dressed in dainty white lingerie frocks with yellow sashes and carried baskets of yellow chrysanthemums.

The groom's gift to the ushers were gold scarf pins. The bride gave her maids gold friendship circle pins.

Immediately following the ceremony an elaborate reception was held at "Shady Side," the bride's home, where a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums further emphasized the color scheme.

Will be at home during December, at 1113 M. street, N. W., Washington.

Store Robbed.—The store of Kilbourn, Bramble & Noland, at Fairlee, was broken into and robbed on Thursday night last. Officers Mark Perkins and Jack Jester were put on the case yesterday and they arrested Jos. Long, of near Fairlee, and placed him in the Chestertown jail. A basket full of watches, gun shells, penknives, gum boots, etc., were fouud in the possession of Long.
