It is with pleasure we welcome the return of Prof. J. L. Smyth, superintendent of the public schools of Kent county. For a year he has been an ill man and unable to attend to his duties. He has had the best of attention and treatment but yet his condition was growing worse.

As a last resort his brother, Mr. Wm. G. Smyth and sister, of near Fairlee, insisted on a trial of a private Sanitarium in Baltimore. Prof. reluctantly made the trip and entered the home containing nine other patients. From the start, Prof. Smyth began to improve and after remaining there several months returned to Kent Friday night by train. He has gained twenty-five pounds in weight and to all appearance is his old self. He attended Church Sunday morning and was given a warm welcome.

The office at the school has been removed to the first floor and Prof. Smyth may be found there every day attending to his duties.

Mrs. J. L. Smyth spent several days in the city "taking lessons" as to the preparation of food for her husband and will do all in her power to keep him well. The treatment the professor received was most interesting consisting of massages, electric rubs, and special foods. His first "lecture" on his experience and "cure" will meet with a packed audience.

We are all glad to see you back, Professor. May you continue to improve.

DEATHS

Miss Mary A. Davis died at her home on Mill street early Friday morning after being afflicted with heart trouble for some months, aged 70. The deceased with her sister, Miss Sallie, have been like Mary and Martha, of Biblical history, living the simple life. She was beloved by all who knew her and lived for others. She was a faithful member of Christ M. P. Church and for more than thirty years a teacher in the Sabbath school. Many of the boys who were in her class are now men occupying responsible positions in life She was a good woman, faithful unto death, therefore there is laid up for her a crown of righteousness.

The funeral will take place Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from her late home, with interment at Chester cemetery. Dr. W. R. Graham will officiate, C. L. Dodd undertaker. The bearers will be her nephews.

Lee, Robert J. and George W. McWhorter and John E. Sutton.

John F. Ernest died at his home in Sassafras on Tuesday night last. He had been in bad health for several months. He was one of Kent's best known citizens, particularly in the upper section of the county, and was County Commissioner of Kent for four years. He was 64 years of age and had been engaged in the mercantile business and other pursuits at Sassafras for many years, but about two years ago gave up all business interests to the care of his two sons, John R and Douglas E. He was a director of the People's National Bank at Middletown for several years, but resigned about a year ago on account of his health. He was a member of the M. P. Church of that town He is survived by a devoted wife and two sons, and one sister, Mrs. Jennie Staats, of Philadelphia. The funeral services will take place from his late home Saturday afternoon March 11th, at 1 o'clock, interment in the M. P. Cemetery. The services will be in charge of Rev. C. M. GRANGE NOTES.

Chestertown Grange No. 248 had a large and enthusiastic meeting. A great deal of interest was manifested and had a pleasant, interesting and profitable interchange of thought. All seemed glad that the old grange sentiments and spirit had asserted itself, which resulted in an optomistic view for its future success. Will hold our regular meeting next Wednesday, March 15, and earnestly request all members to be present, as business of importance will come before the grange and we expect to take in several new members.

The Kent County Pomona Grange will meet at Fairlee on Saturday, April 8th, at 10 a. m. Full program will be published next week.

The next special meeting of Fairlee Grange will be held Sunday, the 15th, at 4 p. m. St. Patrick's day will be observed by the wearing of the green; after supper the gentlemen will entertain. April 8th Fairlee Grange will entertain Kent Pomona, as this will be the 8th anniversary of Fairlee Grange and in the evening a special program will be presented in celebration of same.
