GRAND VICTORY IN KENT COUNTY

The result of the Democratic Primary in Kent county is one which will stand out in distinctness for many years to come. It is filled with cheer and hope to the good citizens who desire clean politics and who advocate the abolishment of bribery. We are of the opinion that no county in the State was as "clean" as was Kent county and the result shows that giant of the hills of Western Maryland, the farmers' friend, comes out a glorious victor.

The result proves beyond question that Kent county Democrats will not be BOSSED by one man, but that they believe in authority vested in organization and that they have faith in that organization to believe that they will advocate those men which are for the good of the people as a whole.

Mr. Barroll as a leader has been discredited again and the people have asserted their allegiance to one whom they delight to honor.

"Senator" Lewis carried every district in the county, but one, and every precinct but two—and that without money! Indeed, the means at the disposal of the organization was so small that but one auto per precinct could be secured, while the opposition had from three to five in some precincts! It was a grand victory for the farmers of Kent because Mr. Lewis was looked upon as their candidate and they supported him loyally. The vote was small there being only 1500 out of a total registration of 2600. A full vote would have swelled Lewis' majority to over 300.

Republican Primary.

The Democrats of Kent had the pleasure of witnessing a real fight among the Republican factions headed by John D. Urie, Esq., on the France side and Mr. A. Parks Rasin on the Goldsborough side. Both were well supplied with "sinews of war" and no doubt made use of it. The France people claim that the anti-faction in the Democratic party brought assistance to Mr. Goldsborough and possibly lost sight of their own man Lee! Mr. Rasin, however, made a fair showing for his man but he was up against too shrewd a leader and one who has had more experience at the game. It is said that the factions in this party are so wide apart that France cannot be elected; if so, then it is different from former years. The total vote was 1100 out of 1700.

Betterton was the "Gooseberry" stronghold and Worton would have done better had not a certain colored leader "saw de light" (France) the night before the primary.

LEWIS AND FRANCE FOR U. S. SENATE

Primary Election Names Standard Bearers For Coming Campaign.

The primary election on Monday was full of surprises for both parties. The vote polled throughout the State was very light, and the predictions of all the political prophets were set at naught when Congressman David J. Lewis captured the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, with Senator Lee a poor second and William Cabell Bruce a bad third. But the greatest surprise of all was when Dr. Joseph Irwin France, with all the bosses of the Republican party in his favor, barely won out over ex Governor Goldsborough for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate.

In this Congressional district, Robert F. Duer was nominated by the Republicans for the House of Representatives, defeating Josiah Leeds Kerr. On the Democratic side, Congressman Jesse D. Price was unopposed for renomination.

In Kent Davy Lewis won by 151 majority while France carried it by 192.

The delegates agreed upon by the Democrats are Charles L. Dodd, John P. Ahern and W. B. Copper, all pledged to the renomination of Wilson.

The Republican delegates, unpledged, are John W. Dowling, Jr., L. Bates Russell and John Strychlin.

The result in the State shows that while Lewis will have 76 votes in the convention to 53 for Lee, the latter received a majority of the popular vote; and that while France will have 73 to to Goldsborough's 56, and also received a majority of the popular vote, the change of a very few votes would have reversed the election.

The nominees of the two parties for Congress are as follows:—

First District—Jesse D. Price, Democrat; Robert F. Duer, Republican.

Second District—J. F. C. Talbott, Democrat; William H. Lawrence, Republican.

Third District—Charles P. Coady, Democrat; Charles W. Main, Republican.

Fourth District—J. Charles Linthicum, Democrat; J. Frank Fox, Republican.

Fifth District—Jackson H. Ralston, Democrat; Sydney E. Mudd, Republican.

Sixth District—H. Dorsey Etchison, Democrat; Frederick N. Zihlman Republican.

The Democratic result is a sweeping victory for Governor Harrington and Senator John Walter Smith and their friends, who turned the trick for Mr. Lewis. The result was a shock to thousands of Democrats, as Mr. Lee's nomination was taken as a foregone conclusion on the basis that the Smith-Harrington machine was only nominally supporting Lewis.

This opinion was so widespread that some of the Smith people at the last minute swung to Mr. Lee. Notably among these were John E. George, the leader in Queen Anne's, and former Senator Arthur P. Gorman, of Howard, John Keating in Allegany and others in Baltimore city. It makes the victory of Lewis so much more praiseworthy. The farmers certainly showed their appreciation of the "Parcel Post man."

THE barbers' Union at Cumberland has collapsed and the barbershops in that place will return to the 10-cent shave and 15 cent hair cut. In Ridgely the barbers seem to have an understanding, and on and after May 1st the price of a hair cut will be 25 cents, instead of 15.

SMALLPOX IN WILMINGTON

Because of the growing number of smallpox cases in Wilmington, and the fear of a further spread of the disease, the health authorities have served notice on the proprietors and managers of all the amusement places in the city to close their places until further orders from the Board of Health. About 30 saloons also have been closed. There have been about twenty-five cases of disease in the city, discovered in one day.

BORDLEY & SONS are making an advance showing of some of the most stylish straws we have seen. The young men's models are just "full of pep" and there are styles for the older "heads" as well. Their front window contains some beauties. Ask their prices and you'll be surprised. The war hasn't advanced straw, yet!
