WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

WASHINGTON CHAMPIONS

Washington College Beats Western Maryland By 4-To-0 Count—Brown Allows Only Five Bingles.

The Washington College base ball team played St. John's and Western Maryland last week away from home and brought back the bacon including the State Championship.

Enright had the St. John's Cadets at his mercy and his team won by score of 5 to 0. The Annapolis writer says the visitors put up a much better game and deserved to win.

Enright not only twirled a strong game, holding the Cadets to three scattered hits, but was given the support by his teammates, especially in the pinches. He walked five men, but he managed to tighten up in every instance

On the other hand, Tucker was hit hard, particularly in the seventh inning, when the visitors collected five singles, which, with a couple of errors and fast base running, enabled them to gather four runs and sew up the game.

At Westminster Western Maryland and Washington engaged in an interesting game Saturday afternoon, in which Washington was returned a victor by the score of 4 to 0. Brown, who was on the mound for Washington, was in grand form and his work could hardly have been improved upon. Hardly less effective was young Diffendal, who served up the benders for the home team. He held the hard-hitting Eastern Shore men to seven hits, two of which came in succession after two men were out. Brown held the Upstaters to five hits.

Western Maryland had a man on third base three times, but was unable to score. Myer had home stolen cleanly in the sixth, but the batsman hit and was thrown out for the third out. Washington College scored three runs in the third inning after two men were out. Keller, at short, pulled Meyer off first base after a long throw from deep short. This error was followed by two clean hits and three runs resulted.

The Chestertown boys team won from Worton Friday by the score of 16 to 6.

The splendid work for W. C. of Woodland at short, succeeding Fred Wallace, who went with the Lancaster team and is making good, is a source of satisfaction to all local fans. Not only is he fielding the position in superb style, but is also hitting the ball hard.
