Plenty of Water

THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public generally and those of the lower part of the county in particular that he is prepared to grind either Wheat or Corn with dispatch, and in a superior manner. The report that he is scarce of water, or has more than he can do is utterly without foundation; give him a trial is all he asks; especial attention given to those from a distance, hands and teams will be cared for.

FARM FOR SALE.

THE undersigned, as agent, will offer at public sale, at John McDaniel's Tavern, in Chester Town, on TUESDAY,

the 12th of OCTOBER, 1852, all that

Farm and Plantation

which George W. D. Ford purchased of John W. Apsley, situate and lying in Kent county, Md., adjoining the lands of Jos. Porter and others, containing 140 Acres,

MORE OR LESS

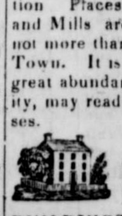

About FIFTEEN or TWENTY ACRES are in

WOOD,

and about the same number in beautiful MEADOW LAND.

The farm is now divided into four fields under excellent Chemut Rail Fencing, and every part of it is throughly watered by a never failing stream. The soil is generous and in a good state of cultivation. Places of Public Worship, School and Mills are very convenient. It is not more than four miles from Chester Town. It is believed that MARL, in great abundance and of the richest quality, may readily be found on the premises.

The IMPROVEMENTS are a small frame DWELLING HOUSE, KITCHEN and the usual OUT-BUILDINGS, all nearly new and in a good state of repair. There is a well of excellent water in the yard. There is also a very thriving Peach Orchard.

The Terms

will be, as far as possible, made to suit the convenience of the purchaser.

Mr Ford resides on the premises and will take great pleasure in showing them to any person who may wish to purchase.
