A VALUABLE FARM at Chancery Sale.

UNDER a Decree of the Court of Chancery the subscriber, as Trustee, will offer for sale at public auction on the first day of November, 1852, at 3 o'clock, at the Court House door in Centreville, the farm on Corsica creek and embracing the "Corsica Landing" and about 5 miles from Centreville, now occupied by Mrs. Boyd and Isaac L. Boyd, and heretofore by the late Jeremiah L. Boyd. It is part of the tract called

Monday,

"Bennett's Regulation," and contains, it is believed, full

320 Acres,

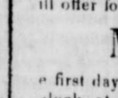

although laid out originally for only 283 acres, 17 perches. No place excels it in health; and few equals it as a most inviting residence from the beauty of the situation, its fertile soil, its easy access market advantages by the Steam Boats from Baltimore, and the supply it commands of fish, oysters, and wild fowl.—There are large beds of MARL on the land; and abundance SEA-ORE is found on its shores. It has excellent water from pump and springs; and the farm throughout is well watered.

The proportion of

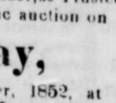

Wood Land

IS ABOUT 80 ACRES.

The Improvements are two DWELLING HOUSES,

(one of brick, 56 feet front, very commodious, and the other of frame, with

Barn Stable, &c,

It has PEACH & APPLE ORCHARS, the peach orchad being particularly good

On the property is a large

Wharf,

with a house for a store. The Wharf rents yearly for $180; and is the regular landing-place of the Steam Boats from Baltimore which stop there almost daily The standing crops will be reserved from the sale.

TERMS OF SALE:

ONE-THIRD of the purchase money ta be paid on the day of sale, or, at the purchaser's option, on ratification (in two month) of the sale, with interest from said day; and the residue, with like interest, in three equal instalments, in 8, 14 and 20 months from said day. All credit payments are to be by bonds or notes with surety to be approved by the Trustee.
