Local Notes

The Strong-Hoffman farm, on Grey's Inn, was sold at public sale Tuesday by S. S. Beck and Jas. W. Crouch, trustees to Miller Strong for $12,000. This farm was tenanted by the late Edgar Strong and the purchaser is one of his sons.

The Primrose farm advertised in the News for rent by Mr. H. P. Skipper has been rented to Marion Hunter, of near Centreville.

The News accepts with thanks a copy of "The Eastern Shore Cook Book," published under auspices of the Epworth League of the Still Pond M. E. Church. Mrs. Wm. Medders, President. The book is a compilation of many tested household recipes covering every branch of the culinary art, and in addition gives some valuable information as to food values, directions for feeding the baby, antidotes for poisons, etc. It is a book that every housewife will appreciate, and is worth many times the price, 25 cents. Copies of this book may be had by addressing Mrs. William Medders, Still Pond, or the pastor, R. P. Nichols.

The Chestertown base ball team lost the first game for the championship of the two counties Saturday to Elkton. The score was 5 to 3.

The County Executive of the W. C. T. U. met at the residence of Mrs. Clifton L. Jarrell Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Shafer presided and Mrs. Hatcherson opened with prayer. Mrs. Acca Crew was appointed vice-president for the ensuing year. Superintendents of different departments were elected for the year and arrangements made to organize a Union in the lower part of the county. The W. C. T. U. of Kent feel very much encouraged in their work. "The tide is rising."

The building boom in Chestertown still continues. A new brick garage was begun this week by W. T. Pippin for Thomas W. Eliason, Jr., while William Duver is improving the interior of the old Custom House. Mrs. Charlotte R. Roberts sold to Mrs. Gladys R. Wickes the residence and large lot on Queen street, occupied by Dr. Julian T. Power and family, for $3,500. Two weeks ago, as told in the News, Mrs. Wickes purchased two lots attached to this property for $1,249 50, making the total price paid $4,749 50. Mrs. Wickes, as announced in the News last week, has also purchased the building lot on Front street, adjoining the home of Mr. Thos. G. Wroth, and owned by R. Groome Parks, Esq., for $1,250. Mrs. Wickes will build some modern homes on this property and already has applicants for same.

The county commissioners, the county supervisor of assessment and the town commissioners of the various towns of the county received an invitation from the State Tax Commissioner to be present at a meeting held in the room of the City Court of Baltimore on July 6th next, to formulate plans for the general re-assessment of property throughout this State. The re-assessment will start sometime the next month and will be made so as to go upon the assessment books to be available for the taxes of 1917.

The President of the Kent and Queen Annes Driving Association, James G. Beck, has prepared an unusual matinee for July 4th, Horses from all over the shore, besides the Kent county horses, will participate. Watch for adv.

Col. Suplee is opening an Auto Park in Betterton. See adv.

The Topping home, advertised for sale in the News, has been ordered out because of numerous applicants—some way up in New York, New Jersey, etc.

I Hollins, one of the hustling merchants of Millington, calls attenntion to his special stock for July 4th. See adv. elsewhere in this issue.

Dr. J. E. Graham, of Chestertown has the first ripe tomato in this section. Several local gardeners including a lady, were in a contest with Dr. Graham, trying to get a tomato ripe before he did, but he beat them to it when he showed them his ripe one Monday morning. This is unusualy early.

HOSIERY
We are, as we have always been headquarters for hose. We have children's hose, the best that money can buy, for 15c per pair, or 2 pairs for 25c. They are hard to tell from the regular 25c a pair quality. We have a special grade of ladies hose, medium weight and great wearers, at 3 pairs for $1.0

CORSETS
The best advertisement on earth that a man can have is a satisfied customer. A lady whoever puts on a pair of Bon Ton or Royal Worcester Corsets is certainly satisfied and comfortable and she tells her friends and neighbors. That's the cause of our immense sale.

GROCERIES
This is the season of the year for parties and when giving one you always want nice things to eat. We have the best at all times. Why pay a high price for second grade goods when you can get the best here.
We use coffee as our leader. We have a special grade of coffee which are selling at 20c a pound and which cannot be duplicated at any other store for less than 25c a pound. Our 28c quality, our customers say, is as good as they are used to paying 35c a pound for. Try a pound, and if not satisfied no charge will be made for it.

Soliciting a trial to convince you am yours for business.
