Public Sale
—OF—
Valuable Real Estate
IN KENT COUNTY, MD.

THE undersigned, as agent for the heirs of the late Mrs. Agnes C. Jarman, of Kent county, will offer at public sale in front of the Court House, at Chestertown, Maryland, on

TUESDAY, July 11, 1916

Between the hours of 11 o'clock A. M. and 12 o'clock noon,

All That Fine and Valuable Farm Known as the Comegys or Mann Farm

situated, lying an being on the northeast side of the public road leading from Chesterville to Black's Station, and on the west side of the public road leading from Chesterville to Lambson's Station, and about ½ mile from the village of Chesterville, adjoing the lands of Mrs. Sallie E. Lockwood, Richard E. Feddeman and others, and containing more or less, 40 acres of which is woodland, the balance is all tillable and divided into five fields, an Apple Orchard of 60 trees, a Keifer Pear Orchard of 400 trees and ten acres in Asparagus.

This is the same tract of land which was conveyed to George Allen, "in trust," by Andrew Woodall and wife and Cornelius J. Scott and wife, by deed dated October 28th, 1878, and duly recorded in Liber D. C. B., No. 4, Folios 448, 449, 450 and 451, a Land Record Book for Kent county.

The land is a medium clay loam, producing excellent crop of wheat, corn and grass, and should make an ideal "dairy farm," capable of easily supporting a herd of 50 or 60 good cows A milk station at Black's will take care of the milk produced, and the farm will take of the manure, a product all farms sadly need.

The improvements consist of A FRAME DWELLING containing 12 rooms, with halls, porches and cellar. An overseer's house, containing six rooms, now occupied by the tenant Other improvement include a granary, stables, carriage house, chicken house, dog pen, asparagus house and meat house. Ample shedding for everything. Windmill and two wells of water that can't be excelled.

This farm is ½ mile from Chesterville, where there is a church and school; 2½ miles from Black's and Lambson's Stations, where there is a milk station, railroad and State road; 2 miles from Crumpton, on Chester river; 5 miles from Millington and 5 miles from Galena, 11 miles from Chestertown, the county seat of Kent county.

PARCEL NO. 2

Valuable Residence and Lot

with improvements in Millington, Kent county, Md., situated on the east side of Sassafras St. in the town of Millington, Md., adjoining the lands of Richard E. Feddeman and the Price lot, fronting on Sassafras street 118 ft. with a depth of 151 ft. more or less, on a side street leading to the railroad.

This is the same property conveyed to Julian T. Power and wife by Florense Dukehard and T. Krebs Dukehard, and by them conveyed to Agnes C. Jarman by deed dated March 1911, and duly recorded in Liber J. T. D., No. 15, folio 330, etc., a Land Record Book for Kent county. The improvements consist of a comparatively new 7-ROOM FRAME DWELLING, with halls and porches. A stable for 2 horses, with carriage house or garage, and corn crib combined, wood and coal house, chicken house and yard, cement walks and a large garden and flower yard. This offers a fine opportunity for one wanting a home, being finely located on one of the principal streets of the town, with an unobstructed view of the centre of the town and close to church and railroad station.

PARCEL NO. 3 consists of ALL THAT LOT OF LAND, in Chesterville, Md., at the intersection of the public road leading into said village, one from Millington and the other Galena. Fronting on the Millington road 60 feet, with a depth of 113 ft., more or less, on the Galena road. The improvements consist of a 5 ROOM BRICK AND FRAME DWELLING, in good repair. Now occupied by Harvey Freeman.

PARCEL NO. 4 consists of a LOT OF LAND, immediately in the rear of No. 3, improved by a Small Stable and Shedding, fronting on the Galena road 167 ft, with a depth of 300 ft. more or less. This lot rents with the corner property.

PARCEL NO. 5 consists of a LOT OF LAND, adjoining the old M. E. Church property in Chesterville and fronting on the road to Millington 56 ft., with an even depth of 278 ft., more or less. Improved by a 2-STORY FRAME DWELLING, nearly new, containing 5 rooms and hall, and now occupied by Jas. Dobson. This would make a very comfortable home for one of moderate means.

PARCEL NO. 6 consists of a LOT OF LAND, adjoining No. 3 on the east and No. 5 on the west, fronting on the Millington road 244 ft., with a depth of 113 ft., more or less. This lot has been rented with No. 5, and is a very desirable building lot.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third of the purchase money cash on the day of sale, and the residue in two equal installments, payable in one and two years from day of sale. All unpaid purchase money to bear interest from day of sale, and to be secured to the satisfaction of the undersigned. Title papers at the cost of the purchaser. All crops on the farm reserved. Present owner to pay taxes for this year and to give possession Jan. 1st, 1917. Purchaser acquires rights of incoming tenant. Possession of Millington property can be given upon ratification of sale. These terms may be modified with the Chesterville property.
