Haying Season

Are you prepared to care for the large crop of hay this season has given us?

We are ready to help you harvest your hay with all the latest improved and most up-to-date machinery. This year we offer for the first time our No. 6 McCormick Mower, a gem of perfection and mechanical ability. You well know the enviable reputation the McCormick Mower has enjoyed for so many years and you wonder how it could be improved upon, but it has been done. The No. 6 Mower has been working under the most adverse field conditions for 5 years, being thoroughly tried out by expert mechanics and by farmers to whom it was entirely new and all pronounced it good. The No. 6 is not the New 4 made over but an entirely new mower with all the good features of the New 4 embodied. There are so many points to call attention to that it is impossible to mention them here, but we ask you to come and see the mower.

WEDDING NOTES

Mrs. W. Frank Hines, of Chestertown, Md., announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Jennie Emory Hines, to Mr. Benjamin Houston, of Wilmington, Del., the wedding to take place in Baltimore in September. Mr. Houston is the grandson of the late Hon. Jos. A. Wickes and for a number of years has been holding a splendid position with the Duponts in Wilmington.

Mr. John Marcel Tapie and Miss Clare Emma Grandhomme, both of Centreville, Del., were married at the parsonage of Christ M. P. Church, Monday afternoon, Rev. J. L. Ward officiating. They will reside at Centreville where the groom is engaged in business.

SMALL—WILLIAMS.

A quiet home wedding was solemnized at "Bryn Hybrid" last Friday evening at 7 o'clock, when Miss Miriam Elizabeth Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cadwallader Williams, became the bride of Mr. Francis Small, of New York City. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. T. Ward, of the M. P. Church Chestertown.

Only the members of the family and a few intimate friends were present. The bride was beautiful in a gown of cream white satin trimmed with Italian point lace. Her veil was caught with lillies of the valley and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and lillies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Alberta H. Williams, who wore a gown of white chiffon generously sprinkled with green leafed roses and topped by a waist of apple green tulle. Mr. Earl Harvey Lyall attended the groom as best man.

The guests were: Mr and Mrs. Earl Harvey Lyall, of New York City; Miss Estelle Anthony, of Chestertown; Mrs. Louis Henri Cande, of Indianapolis, Ind., sister of the bride; Mr. Seymour Williams, of New York, brother of the bride, and his wife and small son, Manly Cadwallader.

The ceremony was followed by a short reception, after which Mr. and Mrs. Small left for an extended tour of the Adirondack Mountains. The "at home" announcements are for August 1st, 30 Pendleton Lane, Staten Island, N. Y.

WM. COMEGYS KILLED!

Bayard Wharton, of Houston, and William R. Comegys, of Millington, Md., were seriously injured at the railroad crossing at Houston Wednesday evening, when the automobile in which they were riding collided with a freight train. Comegys suffered a fractured skull and was otherwise injured. Physicians do not expect his recovery.

Wharton suffered three serious cuts on his head and for a time it was feared that his skull had been fractured. Wharton remembered nothing of the accident other than leaving the front of his father's store.

Dr. William Pierce, of Milford, was the first to arrive and he was followed quickly by Drs. Dawson and Pratt, of Milford, Dr. Hoey, of Frederica, and Dr. Lewis, of Harrington. The latter doctor is the railroad physician and he ordered a special train made up at Harrington and brought to Houston to take Comegys to the Delaware Hospital at Wilmington.

Shortly before the train left, Dr. Comegys, of Millington, Md., a son of the injured man arrived, and accompanied his father to that city.

The automobile is a total wreck, even the crank case of the engine being smashed. When persons arrived at the wreck of the car they found the emergency brake fastened solid, an indication that young Wharton made an effort to stop the car after he saw the locomotive bearing down on him.

DEATHS

John Thomas Orem, who was 65 years old Wednesday, died from a complication of diseases at his home, 23 Wilton Heights avenue, Arlington. He was for many years bookkeeper for Muth Brothers & Co., wholesale druggists. He is the third member of his family to die from a complication of disease during the last year.

Surviving him are five daughters, Misses Cora M., Florence H., Erma T. and Margarett S. Orem, of Arlington, and Mrs. R. Ellsworth Jones, of Baltimore; two sons, J. Harry Orem, of Baltimore, and Edward A. Orem, of Wilmington, Del.; a sister, Mrs. Charles S. Smith, of Chestertown, Md., and a brother, Perry H. Orem, of Baltimore.

Chas. A. Lambert, aged 32, son of Sarah J. Lambert, died at his home in Chestertown on Monday last. The funeral was held Wednesday, interment in Chester Cemetery; Rev. Mr. Beauchamp in charge, C. L. Dodd undertaker. The bearers were W. A. Burke, Wm. Kirby, D. W. Hadaway, Linwood Burris, Wm. Vansant, T. V. Simpson.

Annie Reybold Knight Tatnall, wife of Walter G. Tatnall, died on Tuesday, June 27th, at her home, 1560 West 14th street, after a long illness. She is survived by her husband and her son, Walter G. Tatnall, Jr. The funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment in the Wilmington and Brandywine cemetery.

Mrs. Tatnall was born at Delaware City, the daughter of William O. B. and Charlotte Stewart Knight, and since her marriage had been a resident of Wilmington. She was a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Tatnall's gentle and lovable disposition and the patience and fortitude with which she bore her long illness endeared her to all who knew her.

Misses Mary and Emma Knight, of Chestertown, were sisters of the deceased and were at her bedside at the time of her death.
