SCOUTS SAVE LIFE

Stop Blood Flow When "Billy" Evans Is Injured.

The presence of Boy Scouts at Bay Shore Park played a large part in saving the life of "Billy Evans," the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Evans, of 12 Winston avenue, Govans, who is lying today in Johns Hopkins Hospital with a fractured skull. The boy was struck by a swing last week.

"Billy" was in one swing when he noticed something on the ground belonging to his sister. He jumped from the swing and bent over to pick the article up when a second swing struck him with great force.

One of the first to reach the side of the injured boy was Wilbur Collier, a member of Troop 60 of the Boy Scouts. Wilbur drew out his first-aid kit and bandaged the head of the little chap and stopped the flow of blood. Later physicians stated that the action of the scout had undoubtedly saved "Billy's" life. Other Scouts of Troop 60 made a stretcher on which the injured boy was taken to the hospital by trolley and train.

"Billy" was operated on a few minutes after he reached the hospital and a letter from his aunt states that he is getting along as well as could be expected. "Billy" is the son of Mrs. Susiebelle Culp Evans. Mrs. A. M. Culp has been with him since the accident.

RADCLIFFE PARK MATINEE

The races offered by The Kent and Queen Anne's Fair Association on the Radcliffe Park track drew over a thousand people Tuesday. These were four first-class races. The feature event was the special race between Happy J., 2.15½, a rich find in John Mallalieu's stable, and Twinkle March, 2.16¼, the pride of Galena, in George Sutton's Worton stable. There has, for several years past, been a friendly rivalry between the owners of these racers, and it proved one of the hottest races seen on the Chestertown course. The two heats paced were the fastest ever raced at a matinee on the Eastern Shore. Happy J. taking both, in 2 13¼ and 2 13¾.

State Detective J. Frank McCoy and Constables William Tinsman, Frank Lockerman, of Massey, and Timmons, of Townsend, were fired upon Monday night by William Davis, or Scott, a negro they were trying to arrest and whom they had surrounded in a woods near Millington.

The negro is alleged to have shot and wounded his wife at their home at St. George's, after which he attempted to shoot her sister. He made his escape was tracked to the forest by the officers. As they closed in the negro ran through the underbrush, firing several shots, none taking effect, and the posse returned the fire. The running fight lasted for some time, but finally the negro escaped.

A HEN belonging to Mrs. Stockley West, Laurel, Del., had been laying about the average quantity of eggs until recently, when she began setting. No particular attention was paid to her until a few days ago when it was noticed that as the hen walked, her breast had become so large it dragged the ground. Upon examination, five perfectly formed eggs covered with shell, were found, besides several other unmatured ones.

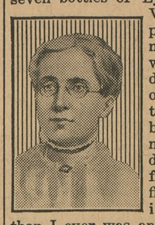
HEAT FLASHES, DIZZY, NERVOUS

Mrs. Wynn Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.



Richmond, Va.—"After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the Change of Life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2812 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness.

For these abnormal conditions do not fail to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
