HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do colds settle on your chest or in your bronchial tubes? Do coughs hang on, or are you subject to throat troubles?

Such troubles should have immediate treatment with the strengthening powers of Scott's Emulsion to guard against consumption which so easily follows.

Scott's Emulsion contains pure cod liver oil which peculiarly strengthens the respiratory tract and improves the quality of the blood; the glycerine in it soothes and heals the tender membranes of the throat.

Scott's is prescribed by the best specialists. You can get it at any drug store.

DEATHS

Mrs. Deborah Brown, wife of Mr. Arthur M. Brown, died at her home on Water street Friday afternoon after a long illness, aged 60. No one thought her illness was of a serious nature and her death was quite a shock to everyone. We all knew her as "Miss Debbie Lambert" and she won the esteem and respect of everyone by her kind and lovable disposition and unselfish devotion to her friends. Mrs. Brown was born in Kent county where she has resided ever since. She leaves to mourn her loss, a husband, Mr. Arthur M. Brown ; three sons, Messrs. Leon, Robert and Julian ; a daughter, Miss Helen Brown ; five sisters, Mrs. Alice Burchinal, Mrs. Wm. H. Brown, Mrs. Frank M. Miller, Mrs. Seth M. Ellegood ; Mrs. Jas C. Vansant ; and two brothers, Mesrs. Harry Lambert and Edward Lambert.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp. The interment was in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Dodd had the funeral in charge. The pall bearers were : Frank Miller, Henry Brown, Wm. H. Brown, Merrick Clements, William T. Brown, Wm. H. Lambert, Jr.

Mary Elizabeth Fowler, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood E. Fowler, died Saturday at 8 15 a. m. Funeral was held Sunday, Dr. J. L. Ward officiating, interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Dodd had charge of the funeral.

Miss Martha Ellen Skipper died on Tuesday night suddenly at the home of her niece, Mrs. Claude F. Parks, near Chestertown. She retired Tuesday night without complaining of being unwell and Wednesday morning when her neice Mrs. Parks, went to her room she was found on the bed dead. Dr. H. G. Simpers was called at once and pronounced her death due to heart failure. She was 73 years of age and leaves several nieces and nephews. She had made her home with Mrs. Parks but was a native of New York. Miss Skipper was a most estimable lady and endeared herself to the family of Mr. Parks by her lovable disposition and ways The funeral took place yesterday with interment in Chester cemetery. The bearers were A. W. Carmine, S. S. Beck, J. E. Ferguson, J. W. Crouch, J. R. Simpers and C. L. Jarrell. Rev. Ward and Beauchamp officiated.

Miss Skipper was a true christian, always saying some word of comfort to those in distress and always helping the poor and needy. For 25 years she belonged to the W. C. T. U. of Yonkers, N. Y., and was a strong worker for the cause. She was a member of the Women's Grand Army of the Republic and Ladies Aid Society of Yonkers, N. Y , a member of the Central Methodist church of Yonkers, N. Y., also a member of the Daughters of Liberty of Harrisburg, Pa. Miss Skipper has been spoken of by her friends as an angel on earth, and had the verse "Watch, for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come," where her eyes could rest upon it when she awakened each morning.

Mr. Omar C. Kendall, a former resident of Centreville, died Sunday, July 9, at his residence in Wilmington, Del., from cancer of the stomach, in his 60th year. Mr. Kendall was born near Rock Hall, Kent county, Md., and when only a few years of age moved with his parents, the late Capt. Thomas W. and Josephine Kendall, to Centreville Landing. A few years ago he left that section and for the past three years has lived in Wilmington. He is survived by a widow and two children, two sisters and one brother, Amos T. Kendall, of Wilmington.

Miss Virginia Auston died at the home of her brother-in-law, Thomas Dewberry, near town, Tuesday aged 53. The funeral was held at the home Thursday, Rev. Mr. Starling officiating, interment Church Hill Cemetery; C. L. Dodd undertaker.

Mr. Roy Woodland, one of the popular graduates at Washington College this year, lost his father by death Friday, aged 52. He was a native of Virginia, and at an early age followed the sea, retiring about 15 years ago. During this time he had commanded several large vessels plying between New York and Baltimore and the West Indies and South America. After his retirement from the sea he entered the mercantile business in Crisfield. He is survived by a widow and two children, a brother and one sister.

Mrs. Esther Cochran Gane died at the Union Hospital, Elkton, Md., last Sunday, July 16th, 1916, in her 21st year. She was the daughter of John P. Cochran and Hattie Church Cochran. Funeral services were held from St. Ann's P. E. Church, conducted by the Rev. P. B. Stauffer, rector of St. Andrew's Chapel, Galena, Md. The bearers were Messrs. Bradford Pierce, J. Alvin McCauley, John Quinn, Leroy McCauley, James Quinn, Daniel Quinn, of Galena, Md. Interment took place at Forest cemetery, Middletown, Del.

WORTON

A most delightful social event was the July meeting of Union M. E. Ladies' Aid Society at which they entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of Salem M. E. Church at beautiful new home of Mrs. Harry Williams, president of the Union Society. There were between 80 and 90 present including some foreign members and friends who do not now reside in the community. A musical and literary program was rendered. Cake and ices were served in abundance.

Master Ross Crew and sister from Philadelphia are visiting Miss Eunice Carter.

Miss Scarborough, of Baltimore, is spending some time with Mrs. Wm. M. Hadaway.

The Union Cemetery committee are anxious to improve and beautify the cemetery and invite all persons interested and those who have relatives and friends interred there to help by sending contributions, large or small, to Mrs. George Cooper or Mr. Ben Rash. As this cemetery is kept up entirely by voluntary contributions there should be a generous response to this appeal. A strict account will be given for every dollar expended. Public services will be held in the open air on the site of the old Church on the 1st Sunday in August at 3 o'clock as usual this being an annual custom. Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, of Chestertown, will be the speaker and there will be special music (weather permitting). Every one welcome.

As We Predicted

The flood tide of business has become greater than the markets of this country have been able to supply. Never before in the history of trade have the demands been so great as at the present time. Factories are swamped with orders that they cannot fill, nor money buy. The merchant with the goods in stock is the one prepared to take care of this increased trade and maintain the prices which the public can pay.

We have anticipated these conditions and are in a position to take care of your needs.

We invite your inspection of our stock, which you will find complete in every line and marked at our former low prices.

We especially call your attention to our line of Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes, the latest summer styles in Oxfords and Pumps.

Hats, Caps and Ties for everyone at reduced prices.

Furniture, Dry Goods, Notions, Groceries and Meats are still advancing. We can save you money in these lines.
