Haying Season

Are you prepared to care for the large crop of hay this season has given us?

We are ready to help you harvest your hay with all the latest improved and most up-to-date machinery. This year we offer for the first time our No. 6 McCormick Mower, a gem of perfection and mechanical ability. You well know the enviable reputation the McCormick Mower has enjoyed for so many years and you wonder how it could be improved upon, but it has been done. The No. 6 Mower has been working under the most adverse field conditions for 5 years, being thoroughly tried out by expert mechanics and by farmers to whom it was entirely new and all pronounced it good. The No. 6 is not the New 4 made over but an entirely new mower with all the good features of the New 4 embodied. There are so many points to call attention to that it is impossible to mention them here, but we ask you to come and see the mower.

COLLEGE CONTRACTS

The bids to erect the new William Smith Hall at Washington College were opened Saturday night. Henry S. Rippel, a Baltimore builder, was the lowest bidder. Mr. Bramble of the same city, was the architect. The following are the bids.

Henry S. Rippel	$44,190
David S. Andrew Co	49,815
Price Concrete Construction Co	49,885
W. S. & A. M. Culp	50,079
Singer-Pentz Co	52,327
Clarence B. Stubbs	52,350
Walter T. Pippin	54,441
Consolidated Engineering Co	79,568

The bids for building the boiler and heating were as follows:

Clarence B. Stubbs	$9,800
Singer-Pentz Co	13,577
Price Concrete Construction Co	13,050
David M. Andrew Co	12,400
W. S. & A. M. Culp	14,034
Henry S. Rippel	15,075
Consolidated Engineering Co	20,098

The above bids do not include the erection of the smoke stack, for which a bid of $1,780 has been offered.

Mr. Bramble estimated that the cost of the buildings, complete, taking lowest estimates, will be $70 395

The committee will require a bond and satisfactory material of the contractor.

Mr. Rippel, the lowest bidder for Smith Hall said it would take 100 working days to erect same.

The building committee met the lowest bidders for the two buildings last Thursday in Baltimore and signed contracts for the buildings.

CORN CLUB BOYS DOING GOOD WORK

The Corn Club Boys are having a strenuous time in growing the crop this year. First, the ground was so wet that they could not get it properly prepared and planted, then when it did finally get started the bugs and cut-worms attacked it or the crows and blackbirds pulled it up, and if it by chance escaped these pets, the later rains drowned it out.

In spite of these difficulties, and the necessity for replanting, and in some cases the preparation of a new piece of ground; the boys are taking a great interest in the contest, and are doing very good work.

The following boys are each growing an acre of corn under the direction of County agent, L. L. Burrell.

DAIRYING INTEREST TO THE FOREFRONT

A Splendid Display of Gattle At The Kent And Queen Anne's Fair—Fancy Hogs And Mule Colts.

After repeated efforts the NEWS is glad to see the management of the Kent & Queen Anne's Fair recognize that feature of farming which is so essential to the success of our people and in which our farmers are showing such an awakened interest, viz., DAIRYING.

The exhibit of cattle at the Fair was equal to any ever seen in Kent and would do credit to larger and more wealthy counties.

Col. John E. George, of Sudlersville, had an exhibit of Holstein Fresian cattle from his Golden Run Stock Farm that was well worth going miles to see. Mr. F. H Hadland, who gets a salary of $1,500, was in charge of these beauties with several assistants. First comes King Poutrai Walker sired by the King of the Poutrai, Stevens' $100,000, 4 years old and weighs 2100 pounds. Then comes the milkers, etc., Allamuchy Minnie Pasch Prilly—7 days test, 15.69 pounds butter. 414 2 pounds milk.

Kiata Princess Leo, as a 2-year-old record—12 71 pounds butter, 248. 4 of milk in 7 days.

Pausy Metchilde, 3d, was bought in New York three years ago for $500. Her 7 day record is 561 lbs. milk and 23 75 of butter. For 200 days she gave 12,600 lbs. of milk and 569 lbs. butter.

Countess Heeringer Olga Mercedes, for which Col. George refused $1,000, has a 7-day record of 22 72 butter and 564½ of milk; 200 days, 14,841½ lbs. of milk and 672 pounds of butter.

Fairmont Cradock Alcactra was the Sensation at the Philadelphia Bazar and was purchased for $500; since which time Col George has refused an offer of $800 When under 2 years old she gave 15.66 lbs. butter and 301 7 of milks in 7 days.

Briar Pontiae Aume has a 2 year test of 16 48 lbs. of butter and 414.5 of milk in 7 days. The calf at her side is sold for $150 to F. W. Scott, of Granville, N. Y. There are five elegant heifers one of which is 6 months old and weighs 600 pounds. C. L. Jarrell has an exhibit of Ayrshire cows while F. H. Parker, of near town, has a fine 2-pear-old Ayrshire bull. Dr. J. W. Urie has a fine Guernsey bull 3 years old, next January, Charles K.

Holt Woodall, of near Galena, has a wonderful exhibit in his Holstein cow called "Stump" and five daughters. his cow in 30 days in 1915 gave 1232 pounds of milk. One of her calves six years old gave 120 pounds in 30 days, a year-old gave 1190 pounds and a 3-year-old gave 1140 pounds. His herd of 27 milch cows, 3 of which were fresh in March, have given 82,664 pounds of milk since New Year's. His 2-year-old bull, Holstein, Prince Clothilde Lyons, weighs 1200 pounds.

Mr. Woodall has 54 head of cattle on his farm and he raised all but four! Everything on the farm is black and white, even the help and dog. He has Kent Island geese and Indian Runner ducks and would make these black and white if he could!

Charles H. Clendaniel has an exhibit consisting of an 8-months-old Holstein bull, a cow with two heifer calves and each heifer has a calf by side as has the mother!

C. E Cornelius, of near Harmony, has 5 fine heifers which cost over $700

Mr. John N. Bennett had two extra fine Guernsey calves, 7 and 5 months old, which won first prize and also a Guernsey cow and calf. In nearly all the stalls the fine exhibits won blue ribbons.

SOME EXHIBITORS.

Mr. Emory Bonwell had a display of his well-known Briscoe car which attracted considerable attention.

Davis & Satterfield had their machinry on exhibition and the I. H. S. did not fail to show the public how to do things by gasoline power. An engine with which to plow and harrow was sold to C. L. Jarrell.

Graham & Thomas had a fine show and Mr. Nickerson makes a good "showman" too. Their implements attracted the farmers. Kilbourn, Bramble & Noland and A. S. Turner each had fine exhibitions of there machinery.

Foster H. Parker, of near Chestertown, had two Jersey Hogs weighing about 400 pounds that were beauties. They were bred by J. H. Warren, of Va.

James Magrogran, of Church Hill, offered $25 in prizes to the best mule colts by his celebrated Jack. Julian Jones won the first prize of $10; Chas. H. McKee, Bud Potts, P. Story and Medford Grein each $2.50 prizes. Chas. H. McKee won the first prize on a 2-year-old mule.

THERE were 1575 autos and carriages ts cross Chester river bridge Thursday.

ALEXANDER BROWN & SONS, of Baltimore, were the successful bidders for an offering of $18,000 of 5 per cent. serial bonds of Kent county. The bonds run from one to 18 years, and all the local houses also had bids in for the issue. The successful bidder won by a small margin.

ROBERT J. MCWHORTER traded his fine pacer, Pony Boy, 2 17¼, to Pat Dougherty, of Virginia, for a speedy pacing mare with no mark, six years old, which Mr. Dougherty now has in his fine stable at Radcliffe Park. Pony Boy was entered at Radcliffe Park this week.

THE Radcliffe track record is held by Mary Allen, who paced a mile in 2.09¼ last year during the fair. This horse, owned by W. C. Miller, Washington, D. C., really made the mile in 2 07½.

THE Dodd-Jarrell farm has been rented to Mr. Walter King, who has been on Mr. Jarrell's Morgnec farm for ten years. Mr. Wm. Hudson will tenant the King-Jarrell farm.

THE two Broad Neck farms of Col. W. J. Vannort have been rented by Mr. J. V. Vansant and son, Elwood.

D. J. LEWIS HERALDS DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

Congressman David J. Lewis was notified of his nomination for United States Senator and Dr. J. Herbert Wade, of Washington county, was elected chairman of the State Central Committee for the unexpired term of the late Gen. Murray Vandiver at an unusually large and enthusiastic gathering of Democrats Tuesday at the Hotel Rennert. Considering the season and the weather, the meeting was remarkable.

Senator Smith, the State leader, was unable to attend. He was kept in Washington because the District of Columbia bill of which he has charge was pending and needed constant attention to keep its place on the calendar. But his close friends were there in force. Governor Harrington, Comptroller McMullen, State Treasurer Dennis and other State organization leaders were about the hotel several hours. The party people were confident of victory. They seemed to think there was no question about the result in this state, so far as Wilson and Marshall are concerned. And while they recognized that Mr. Lewis is in danger of some "cutting," they seemed unaffectedly confident that he has a personal strength which will more than overbalance the amount of whatever "cut" may develop.

Mr. Lewis, in his speech of acceptance, enthused the party people greatly and brought forth repeated cheers as he graphically and succinctly recounted the triumphs of the Democratic party during President Wilson's administration—in both domestic and international affairs.

BIG ENTRY LIST AND GOOD RACING

Wednesday dawned fair and pleasant and 1500 people turned out at the Fair. It was "Governor's Day," Gov. Emerson C. Harrington being present and was shown about by ex-Senator W. W. Beck, President J. G. Beck and others.

The field of horses was large and the races hotly contested. Mr. Fox was thrown while driving in the 2.24 trot and injured, but his brother took his place behind Lord Wiltondale. The officers were as follows:

Starter—Oscar Roe.

Judges—W. G. Smyth, W. F. Watson, Robert J. McWhorter.
