"IT'S THE LONG BLUE CHIMNEY"

IF you are a business man, if you are a professional man, if you are employed at a daily wage, make up your mind to deposit weekly a certain sum of money in the bank. You'll be surprised how the sum will grow. Cash in bank gingers up the man who has it there. He has more confidence in himself. The business man is ready for a dull season. He is ready for an opportunity.

So is the professional man. The man who is working for a daily wage and who hasn't any money in bank frequently is fearful of a loss of his situation. He does not work as well or with the confidence in himself as does the man with something laid aside for a rainy day.

IF YOU WOULD GUARD CHILDREN FROM DISEASE

New York has been suffering from an epidemic of infantile paralysis and the Evening Telegraph of that city offers some suggestions to mothers as to the care of their children that are as applicable to one muncipality as another.

Among wise suggestions are the following:

Don't allow the youngsters to become weakened and easily subject to the disease, by eating trash candies and ice cream and by playing in the sweltering heat.

Do keep all flies and mosquitoes out of your home, and if any manage to gain entrance kill them at sight. Do be careful of the young baby's nursing bottles and nipples. See to it that all the milk the youngsters drink is perfectly pure and pasturized, as much disease is spread through impure milk.

Remember that absolute cleanliness is the worse opponent of the paralysis germ. It cannot flourish, we are told, except in dirt.

Now, with these things to remember, set to work in a valiant fight against disease. Make up your mind that your house will never be included among the plague-stricken homes, and use all your intelligence and all the information you can gain to fight against it.

Every one knows that disease germs are more quickly spread in a crowd than anywhere else. The bacilli may be carried about in the clothing and spread from one to another in a crowd. So it is not only important that you keep your kiddies out of the crowded cars and movie houses, but also that you avoid crowds yourself, for fear that you may carry the germs to the little ones at home. Stick to the open-air buses and open street cars, where the sun and wind will do much to dissipate danger.

Keep the youngsters indoors during the worst heat of the day. Let them have their airing before 4.30 in the morning and after 4 30 in the afternoon. During the intense heat let them stay quietly indoors. Bathe them in cool water at about 11 and then let them nap until 1 or 1 30. Give them a nourishing cold lunch at that time, and then try to make them amuse themselves indoors, from 2 to 4.30. If the day is very hot, they may be willing to sleep longer. Let them wear as little as possible about the house these hot days.

COST OF INTERVENTION IN MEXICO

Ex-Governor of Kansas, a Republican, Estimates it Would Cost Lives Of 200,000 American Soldiers, Take Two Years, And Cost Billions Of Dollars, to Say nothing of Pensions.

"I never was a Democrat, but I think Woodrow Wilson will sweep the country for re-election this fall" said ex-Governor St. John, to a reporter for the Olathe (Kan.) Register the other day.

"I am basing the assertion on the attitude of the people in Western Kansas," continued Mr. St. John. "While I was in that part of the State during my recent ninety-days' tour. I took occasion to sound out my different audiences on the candidates then looming most largely in the public eye. Successive references to Hughes, Roosevelt, and Wilson, always brought the most applause for Wilson. Wilson's Mexican policy, for which he has been so bitterly attacked, is, in my opinion, an element of strength. I am not critising the government's policy. The old plan of tying two fight tom cats' tails together, throwing them over a clothes line and letting them fight it out, seems to apply forcibly to the situation in Mexico. But Mexico is no scrub as it was in 1847. It has fourteen millions of people and an advanced civilization in many respects. To whip Mexico into line, as some demand, would be a job, necessitating at least two years time, the expenditure of billions of dollars, and probably the lives of 200,000 men. In addition, as an item of expense, would be the formamation of a great pension roll.

"What would we gain by such a war? We don't want that territory. The whole proposition is absurd. Taking it as a whole, we never have had a president more level-headed than Woodrow Wilson."

THE RICHEST WOMAN

The papers announced on their first pages the other day that the richest woman in the world had died. What did they mean? Simply that a woman who possessed more dollars than any other had passed away and left all that she had, all that she loved, behind. After reading a short history of her life and possessions we deny that she was the richest woman in the world. Comparing her life with countless others we know, it seems cold and barren. The women whose lives are spent in loving embrace of little children, and whose ears are attuned to the prattle and laughter of their little ones experience a happiness that can never be inspired by the click of the stockticker. Real riches are possessions which fill the cup of life full of happiness and joy and our land is full of such homes, although material wealth is a stranger to them. The "richest woman" was consistent in that she never pretented to be happy. —Pennsylvania Farmer.

WHY WOMEN WRITE LETTERS

To Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

Women who are well often ask "Are the letters which the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. are continually publishing, genuine?" "Are they truthful?" "Why do women write such letters?"

In answer we say that never have we published a fictitious letter or name. Never, knowingly, have we published an untruthful letter, or one without the full and written consent of the woman who wrote it.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and suffering.

It has relieved women from some of the worst forms of female ills, from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, nervousness, weakness, stomach troubles and from the blues.

It is impossible for any woman who is well and who has never suffered to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.
