THE work being done by the Health Department in Chestertown is certainly to be commended. It is one of the most important matters for the public's consideration, but which ordinarily receives little attention. We advise our people to try and carry out the instructions of the health officers as far as lies in their power.

The notice of precaution issued by the Health Department in reference to infantile paralysis will prove equally as effective in other diseases, viz:

Clean up to day.
Clean up to-morrow.
Clean up every day.
Keep clean.

This is your personal affair; the Board of Health has no force and no funds for this work.

Tap sewer where possible.

Flies and mosquitoes spread disease. Flies breed only in filth and mosquitoes in stagnant water.

Do not travel (unless absolutely necessary) into infected districts.

Children should not travel at all.

Keep visitors from infected districts away.

You will do these things after an epidemic has started; it can be done now without haste and without fear and at a less cost.

The cost of dead and crippled children cannot be counted in dollars and cents.

Adults are being attacked as well as children.

CHURCH NOTES

W. F. Russell, Jr. Esq, was the leader at the early service at Christ Church Sunday evening, his theme being "How to become Beautiful." A sweet solo was rendered by MissCollins, of Berlin, and a fine duet by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Maule, of Millville, N. J.

George White, of New York, who is spending his vacation with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. L White, in Easton, sang two solos at Ebenezer M. E, Church last Sunday, one at the morning service and another in the evening. Mr. White has a baritone voice of ecxeptional excellence and sings in the choir of a large city church.—Easton Star Democrat.

Dr. S. S. Hepburn announces a change in the time of service at I. U from afternoon to morning at 10.30 and at Betterton in the afternoon.

The church paper of the Md. Annual Conference of the Meth. Protestant church hasbeen greatly improved recently under the new management, Dr. Benson.

The following items from Forest Park will be read with interest:

Rev. F. T. Benson, editor of the Methodist Protestant, has bought a cottage on Fairview avenue.

Rev. F. C. Klein will build a bungalow on Powhatan avenue.

Rev. George W. Haddaway, pastor of Starr Methodist Protestant Church, Garrison and Alto avenues, Baltimore, started on a tour Wednesday in his new touring car. He was accompanied by Mrs. Haddaway, his son, Cline, who is a theological student at Westminster Seminary; his daughter, Miss Mildred Haddaway, and by Mrs. Haddaway's sister, Miss Ella Martin. They will visit Ocean City, Md., and other places along the Eastern Shore of Maryland and make a short stay at Ocean Grove, N. J.

At a congregational meeting of the membership of the People's Christian Church, Dover, for the purpose of selecting a pastor to succeed the late Rev. A. W. Lightbourne, D. D., a unanimous call was extended to the Rev. A. Victor Lightbourne, the eldest son of the late deceased pastor, who some two years ago entered the evangelistic work. He has accepted.

Wesley M. P. Church, Rev. A. C. Smith, minister. 9.30 a. m., Sunday school; 10 30 preaching, subject, "A Perfect Day"; 7.15 p. m. lawn service, subject, "Sorrow and Pain." All visitors, strangers and especially persons with no church affiliation cordially invited to worship with us.

Rev. W. B. Judefind and wife, 3425 Piedmont avenue, Baltimore, are now at Mountain Lake Park.

The W. C. T. U. have held very interesting and helpful monthly meetings and last Friday night was no exception. The report and talk given by the president was very interesting and encouraging and the Union is looking forward for a good report from the State Convention and hope to have a long to be remembered meeting in October. Other very interesting and enjoyable parts of the program were a recitation and solo by Miss Mildred Hurlock, of Bridgeville, Del., a niece of Mrs. Leonard Price. Miss Mabel Norris with her pleasant manner gave a fine recitation, but we must not forget the little girls that sang so sweet and showed the training of our efficient organist, Miss Lulu Vandyke. These things make us feel there is still some genuine happiness in this old world.

Rev. Mr. Schauers has been conducting a special service one Sunday evening each month. On Sunday night of last week the service was held on the green in front of the church as during the hot weather the evening service will be held on the green unless the weather is unfavorable. The service was good and the large attendance showed their appreciation by the attention and interest they took in the service. The congregational singing was interspersed with a solo sweetly sung by Rev. Mr. Schauers' little four-year-old niece Miss Henrietta Webb sang a pretty solo while the audience listened and felt the inspiration of the gospel song. By the request of the pastor, Mr. William T. Hague gave a short talk on Song which held the attention of the audience and also of the pastor, as he was not going to say anything, but he changed his mind and gaue a few good closing remarks.

Rev. W. A. Wise, Dist. Superintendent, will preach Sunday in the M. E. Church in the absence of Mr. Beauchamp who has been granted a vacation of two weeks.

Rev. Charlton H. Kidd, formerly of Kent, now of the Virginia Conference, will preach at Salem M. E. Church, Sunday at 10.30 a. m. and 7.45 p. m.
